Libros en Llamas - Historia de la Interminable Destrucción de Bibliotecas Lucien X. Polastron,2007-12 Esta obra revisa la aterradora y frecuente practica de la destruccion de libros en ocasiones como consecuencia de una invasion o venganza en otras como resultado de un accidente en algunas mas como un simbolo pues muchas hogueras de libros en realidad buscaban aniquilar a sus autores Dejando de lado la indignacion que el tema provoca aunque sin escatimar calificativos cargados de ironia el autor recorre diversas geografias y epocas desde los depositos de arcilla con escritura cuneiforme hasta el saqueo en Bagdad ocupada por el ejercito de Estados Unidos para enfrentarnos con la nefasta vocacion de los hombres que pretenden silenciar las obras que hablan con sus lectores desde el papel Este libro es un modesto homenaje a los millones de obras desaparecidas y una advertencia para que se haga de la preservacion bibliografica un compromiso impostergable including the Japanese Noh or mask plays and modernist experimentation in the Irish language They also deploy diverse theoretical frameworks that range from Roland Barthes work on studium and punctum in photography to Henri Lefebvre's ideas on space and spatiality and the postmodern insights of Jean Baudrillard on the nature of the simulacrum and the hyperreal In this way innovative approaches are brought to bear on the Rulfian texts as a way of illuminating the rich tensions and anxieties they evoke about Mexico about history about art and about the human condition Political Religion Beyond Totalitarianism J. Augusteijn, P. Dassen, M. Janse, 2013-01-29 The success of fascist and communist regimes has long been explained by their ability to turn political ideology into a type of religion These innovative essays explore the notion that all forms of modern mass politics including democracies need a form of sacralization to function Ashes and Granite Olivia Muñoz-Rojas, 2011 Examines the wartime destruction and post war rebuilding of three prominent sites in Madrid Bilbao and Barcelona in the Spanish Civil War and its aftermath This title reveals aspects of the Spanish Civil War and the evolution of the Franco regime from an original and fruitful angle Design School Confidential Steven Heller, Lita Talarico, 2009-10-01 Every great design school in the world is defined in part by the work of its students at any given time The various project challenges given to a class determine the success of a school's pedagogy but also the ingenuity of its faculty and students This book features fifty real world class assignments from top design programs at universities around the world and examines the resulting student projects From undergraduate to graduate work and basic class challenges to final thesis's students delivered a wide variety of graphic and multimedia design projects from print to motion to exhibition The book has three functions 1 To exhibit a wide range of challenging problems and successful solutions 2 Provide practical models to be inspired by and learn from 3 Examine how sophisticated design school projects are and what value they have in relation to real world practice Changes, Conflicts and Ideologies in Contemporary Hispanic Culture Teresa Fernandez Ulloa, 2014-06-02 This book is formed by various chapters studying the manner in which conflicts changes and ideologies appear in contemporary Hispanic discourses The contributions analyze a wide variety of topics related to the manner in which ideological and epistemological changes of the 19th 20th and 21st centuries are reflected in and shape Spanish language literature and other cultural expressions in both Spain and Latin America The 19th century was conducive to various movements of independence while in Europe radical changes of different types and in all contexts of life and knowledge occurred Language was certainly affected by these changes resulting in new terminology and discourse strategies Likewise new schools of thought such as idealism dialectic materialism nihilism and nationalism among others were established in addition to new literary movements such as romanticism evocative of evolution individualism and realism inspired by the social effects of capitalism Scientific and technological advances continued throughout the 20th century when the women's liberation movement consolidated The notion of globalization also appears simultaneously to various crises despotism wars genocide social exclusion and unemployment Together these trends give rise to a vindicating discourse that reaches large audiences via television The classic rhetoric undergoes some changes given the explicit suasion and the absence of delusion provided by other means of communication The 21st century is defined by the flood of information and the overpowering presence of mass communication so much so that the technological impact is clear in all realms of life From the linguistic viewpoint the appearance of anglicisms and technicalities mirrors the impact of post modernity There is now a need to give coherence to a national discourse that both grasps the past and adapts itself to the new available resources with the purpose of conveying an effective and attractive message to a very large audience Discourse is swift since society does not seem to have time to think but instead seeks to maintain interest in a world filled with stimuli that in turn change constantly Emphasis has been switched to a search for historical images and moments that presumably explain present and future events It is also significant that all this restlessness is discussed and explained via new means such as the world wide web The change in communication habits e mail chats forums SMS and tools computers mobile phones that was initiated in the 20th century has had a net effect on the directness and swiftness of language

Sarmiento      Liminality, Hybridity, and American Women's Literature Kristin J. Jacobson, Kristin Allukian, Rickie-Ann Legleitner, Leslie Allison, 2018-05-04 This book highlights the multiplicity of American women's writing related to liminality and hybridity from its beginnings to the contemporary moment. Often informed by notions of crossing intersectionality, transition and transformation, these concepts as they appear in American women's writing contest as well as perpetuate exclusionary practices involving class, ethnicity, gender, race, religion, and sex among other variables. The collection's introduction, three unit introductions, fourteen individual essays, and afterward facilitate a process of encounters, engagements, and conversations within, between, among, and across the rich polyphony that constitutes the creative acts of American women writers. The contributors offer fresh perspectives on canonical writers as well as introduce readers to new authors. As a whole, the collection demonstrates American women's writing is threshold writing or writing that occupies a liminal hybrid space that both delimits borders and offers enticing openings.

Animal fibres from South American camelids and other fibre or wool bearing species provide important products for use by the human population. The contemporary context includes the competition with petrocarbon based artificial fibres and concern about excessive persistence of these in the natural environment. Animal fibres present highly valuable characteristics for sustainable production and processing as they are both natural and renewable. On the other hand their use is recognised to depend on availability of appropriate quality and quantity the production of which is underpinned by a range of sciences and processes which support development to meet market requirements. This collection of papers combines international experience from South and North America, China and Europe. The focus lies on domestic South American camelids, alpacas, llamas and also includes research on sheep and goats. It considers latest advances in sustainable development, under climate change, breeding and genetics, reproduction and pathology, nutrition, meat and fibre production and fibre metrology.
