The Work of Enchantment suggests that it is a lack of enchantment in rich developed countries that causes soul starved Westerners to experience mental and sometimes physical illness Del Nevo argues that this enchantment is most often experienced in childhood but can also be found in adulthood particularly through art However adults must cultivate within themselves the ability to appreciate art by reading listening and gazing activities often misconceived in advanced industrial societies Del Nevo describes the framework of enchantment and its philosophical and historical roots He then concentrates on the work of enchantment within literature considering what enchantment might entail taking the works of Proust Rilke and Goethe as examples Del Nevo shows how a sense of enchantment forms within and between art works using his literary examples as well as between the work and the audience The reader will learn along the way that enchantment may be found in the power of words as an expression of the desire of the soul a compliment of melancholy and in art that points to something beyond itself Enchantment may be found in many places ranging from philosophy religion and psychology to sociology and culture but here Del Nevo focuses on literature His audience is people who are searching for something beyond money or glamour perhaps the meaning of art and culture His focus on literary masterpieces such as the Duino Elegies Remembrance of Things Past Wilhelm Meister's Journeyman Years and others will make it of interest to those in cultural studies Well written and engaging and accessible to non specialist readers this unusual work in philosophy and aesthetics is free of jargon and complicated verbiage Inspiring and enlivening it is in the author's words a stirring call to idleness Calibrations Ato Quayson, 2003 The Enchanting Power of Mind's Canvas Pasquale De Marco, 2025-08-13

Rousseau Jr.,2018-01-03

Imagine living in a God created heart in the world of your imagination Imagine living in a world where the Holy Spirit seen allegorically in the person of the beautiful patience of Christian Nature lovingly and tenderly seeks to fill every nook and cranny of your heart with the beauty that only the Holy Spirit through Christian Nature can provide Imagine living in a world where each citizen like a cherished and highly valued goblet is filled to overflowing with enchanted golden drops of comfort to freely pour upon everyone whom their lives may touch Imagine living in a world where each citizen places their cup filled with goodness to the parched dry lips of the weary traveler who has not tasted the refreshing drops of kindness for a long time and in so doing restoring life to that previously hardened person who was on the verge of losing his life to a thirst for goodness in a hardened world Is this the kind of world in which you would like to live Sounds nice you may say But this is not real life The purpose of this literary endeavor the reason for this story is to reveal to each reader that this world is real It really does exist It exists in our own God created heart and the Holy Spirit who has filled it with the beauty of Christian Nature lovingly invites you to live here as a cherished citizen for all the days of the enchanted adventure of your life Play

World James E. Combs,2000-09-30 Should we take the idea of play seriously Since the publication of Huizinga s Homo Ludens in 1938 a provocative literature has developed in philosophy and social science that does Combs argues that we should understand play both as a generic concept with considerable power to explain human activity and as a contemporary procept that demystifies some of the puzzling trends and innovations emerging in the quickly developing new social world of the 21st century Combs explores the thesis that play has a central role in our understanding of human activity and social and political organization in the new millennium He argues that the human desire for play is strong and given the continuation of certain major historical innovations now shaping the world it may well be that 21st century people will increasingly exercise their desire for play and that the world will increasingly be organized around the principle and practice of play It may now seem a truism that people prefer to have fun but that has not always been the case If as Combs argues the preference for fun is becoming central to human activity we need to explore why that preference is becoming dominant and what kind of social organization and consequences such a change entails A provocative look at social change in the 20th century that will be of interest to scholars students and researchers of sociology and anthropology Different Voices Paola Partenza, Özlem Karadağ, Emanuela Ettorre, 2022-12-12 The concept of the human has been broadly re visited and modified and the term posthuman has now become a term of continuous inquiry Gender representations play s a critical role in works of literature culture and art and focusing on gender is crucial to uncovering the anthropocentrism or androcentrism that may underlie the work and the times to which it belongs While maintaining a solid literary emphasis the ten chapters included in this volume focus on feminist debates about women technology and the body on gender representation and the posthuman on post gender figurations on gender and trans post humanism biotechnology biopolitics bioethics on feminist posthumanism on animals the human machine and ecological posthumanism The aim of the volume is to analyse how useful these concepts may be for thinking about the subject its definition and identity in a changing society Enchanting and Enchanted Friedrich Wilhelm Hackländer, 1907 The Young Enchanted Hugh Walpole, 1921 A story of young love and of brother and sister
