

Encounter with GOD

"In a solidly packed book of about 300 pages the Rev. Morton Kelsey sets forth his thesis that there is a spiritual reality which impinges on man's consciousness, and the consequences of an appreciation of this reality for the life of the church and the individual Christian, today."

"Father Kelsey is a master at succinctly describing the essence of someone's thought and in a few deft sentences analyzing its major strengths and weaknesses."

"The first half of this book should prove a landmark in Christian philosophy in this century. It throws down the gauntlet to theologians and philosophers of our time."

"The second half of the book directs itself to the implications of this philosophical point of view. Father Kelsey makes a careful presentation of twelve ways in which the individual can discover spirituality for himself."

Human Subjectivity 'in Christ' in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Theology Jacob Phillips, 2019-09-19 Jacob Phillips presents a critical study of a neglected aspect of Dietrich Bonhoeffer s theology his writing on human subjectivity self reflection and individual identity in Christ In response to the rise of chronic self representation through digital technology Phillips argues that Bonhoeffer presents a radical challenge maintaining that from the perspective of Christian theology there is something deeply negative about beholding representations of oneself Bonhoeffer instead holds that discipleship means adopting a posture of radical agnosticism toward one s own identity Phillips focuses on the interrelation of simplicity and reflection in theological cognition and ethical deliberation showing a wider significance in contemporary theological anthropology soteriology and ethics By following the tradition of reading Bonhoeffer in relation to the philosophical sources such as W stenberg Janz Whitson Floyd Marsh Zimmermann Gregor Phillips highlights the ways in which Bonhoeffer s work relates to modern debates in epistemology and ethics generally and that of Wilhelm Dilthey and hermeneutical phenomenology in particular This volume offers a detailed theological analysis of the themes of self identity human subjectivity and self understanding which are highly pertinent for contemporary society Encounter with God Morton Kelsey, 1987

Meeting God on the Cross Arnfríður Guðmundsdóttir, 2010 The cross of Christ has proven to be no less of a stumbling block for Christians living in the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first than it was in the first century when the newly established community of friends and followers of Jesus Christ sought to define the foundation of their faith over against the critiques of their Jewish and Greek contemporaries This book presents a theological reception of the contemporary feminist challenge to classical christology by means of an explicit feminist retrieval and reconstruction of a theology of the cross Gudmundsdottir argues that a feminist theology of the cross serves a dual purpose in feminist christology it discloses the patriarchal distortion of traditional christology and can also reveal lost dimensions in the understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ Although Gudmundsdottir argues that feminist critique is an indispensable element of contemporary christology she also claims that there is a redemptive message in the cross of Christ that is retrievable for women today Despite its potential for abuse and indeed its well documented history of misuse against women in the past a theology of the cross proclaims Jesus as a divine co sufferer who brings good news to the poor and oppressed and as such can be a source of healing and empowerment for suffering women The constructive task of this book is to show that a theology of the cross can indeed become a theology of hope today offering women meaning and strength from a God who takes human form and enters redemptively into their situations of suffering
