Martin Buber Sarah Scott, 2022-12-06 A new collection of essays highlighting the wide range of Buber's thought career and activism Best known for I and Thou which laid out his distinction between dialogic and monologic relations Martin Buber 1878 1965 was also an anthologist translator and author of some seven hundred books and papers Martin Buber Creaturely Life and Social Form edited by Sarah Scott is a collection of nine essays that explore his thought and career Martin Buber Creaturely Life and Social Form shakes up the legend of Buber by decentering the importance of the I Thou dialogue in order to highlight Buber as a thinker preoccupied by the image of relationship as a guide to spiritual social and political change The result is a different Buber than has hitherto been portrayed one that is characterized primarily by aesthetics and politics rather than by epistemology or theology Martin Buber Creaturely Life and Social Form will serve as a guide to the entirety of Buber's thinking career and activism placing his work in context and showing both the evolution of his thought and the extent to which he remained driven by a persistent set of concerns My Friendship with Martin Buber Maurice Friedman, 2013-06-25 Martin Buber's philosophy of dialogue sought to express the human experience through the ways in which we encounter and interact with others His I Thou theory of dialogue and I It theory of monologue expressed ways of understanding one s place in the world in relation to others objects and especially God Buber died in 1965 leaving behind a vast library of writings and ardent students and scholars eager to engage with his ideas One of the most prominent scholars was Maurice Friedman Friedman and Buber shared a professional as well as a personal relationship based on translating interpreting and intellectual curiosity Beginning in the summer of 1950 and ending with Buber's death this volume takes the reader through Buber's three visits to America his wife's death the author's stay in Jerusalem and the articulation of Buber's culminating philosophy of the interhuman In tracing this chronology Friedman draws extensively on his personal collection of letters exchanged with Buber Intimate and meditative this book provides an exploration of a deeply intellectual friendship Martin Buber and the Human Sciences Maurice Friedman, 2012-02-01 The shared between two extraordinary thinkers specific focus of Martin Buber and the Human Sciences is dialogue as the foundation of and integrating factor in the human sciences using dialogue in the special sense which Buber has made famous mutuality presentness openness meeting the other in his or her uniqueness and not just as a content for one s own thought categories and knowing as deriving in the first instance from mutual contact rather than knowledge of a subject about an object By the human sciences the authors editors mean material that can be meaningfully approached in a dialogic way hence the humanities education psychology speech communication anthropology history sociology and economics The essays in Martin Buber and the Human Sciences demonstrate that thirty years after Buber s death his influence is still resonating in many countries and in many fields

Learning Through Dialogue Kenneth Paul Kramer, 2013-04-08 Educational practice today often fails to make the crucial distinction between learning as an accumulation of information and learning as a dialogical interaction that elicits one s personal response to the material Learning Through Dialogue offers an alternative approach to teaching and learning which utilizes Martin Buber's dialogical principles turning toward addressing affirmatively listening attentively and responding responsibly The book first presents Buber's educational theory and method and second presents specific examples of how Buber's dialogical philosophy can be applied in the classroom Rather than imposing one's own views this approach enables teachers and students to develop course content in uniquely appropriate ways If you are a teacher a student an educator at any level or anyone interested in furthering his or her ability to engage more meaningfully with the educational process this book will challenge you with fresh perspectives Martin Buber's Dialogue Kenneth Paul Kramer, 2019-08-21 Martin Buber one of the twentieth century s most distinguished and creative thinkers famously argued that the fundamental fact of human existence is person with person and that practicing genuine dialogue is necessary for anyone who wishes to become authentically human This book seeks to unleash and reassemble the core elements for practicing dialogue turning and addressing and then listening and responding Despite what many say the innermost growth of the self does not come in relation to one s self Rather attaining one s authentic human existence one s innate self realization emerges again and again through genuine dialogue through participatory consciousness We become authentically human in and through our relationships with others Here's the point instead of having dialogues human beings mutually become dialogue with others Individual human beings in dialogue with one another become memorable mutualities found nowhere else opening out into Initiation Thomas Kirsch, Virginia Beane Rutter, Thomas Singer, 2016-11-10 This book builds on the vast clinical the world experience of Joseph L Henderson who became interested in initiatory symbolism when he began his analysis with Jung in 1929 Henderson studied this symbolism in patients dreams fantasies and active imagination and demonstrated the archetype of initiation in both men and women s psychology After Henderson s book was republished in 2005 Kirsch Beane Rutter and Singer brought together this collection of essays to allow a new generation to explore the archetype of initiation Initiation The Living Reality of an Archetype demonstrates how the archetype of initiation is seen clinically today Divided into distinct parts the book explores the archetype of initiation in Dr Henderson's own life as well as suggesting its importance in clinical practice culture aging and death The chapters in this book amplify and extend the archetype of initiation from the earliest historical periods up to the present day The editors argue that initiation symbolism often underlies contemporary phenomena but is rarely recognized Initiation helps to bring a new understanding to these experiences This book will be of interest to psychotherapists with an interest in psychoanalysis and analytical psychology as well as those training at analytic institutes Buber and Education W. John Morgan, Alexandre Guilherme, 2013-09-27 Martin Buber 1878 1965 is considered one of the 20th century's greatest thinkers and his contributions to philosophy theology and education are testimony to this His thought is founded on the idea that people are capable of two kinds of relations namely I Thou and I It emphasising the centrality of dialogue in all spheres of human life For t Dialogically Speaking Kenneth Paul Kramer, 2011-01-01 What makes us authentically human According to Maurice Friedman world renowned Martin Buber scholar translator and biographer it is genuine dialogue When there s a willingness for dialogue Friedman says then one must navigate moment by moment It's a listening process Friedman addresses our humanity in ever unique ways through his dialogue with philosophy literature religion and psychotherapy At least two things make this book new Friedman presents his wide ranging thought directly in five original essays forming an intertextual compass which is then elaborated upon by colleagues familiar with his work Second a special feature of this book is found at the end of each part which invites readers to engage with questions drawn from and pointing toward Friedman's writing The book's intended audience includes teachers scholars and students interested in dialogical approaches to any of the human sciences In a time when we are in danger of losing our human birthright Friedman's interdisciplinary insights point us again to the touch of the other Animal Theologians Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2023 Many people who have thought about God have not thought about animals or about the relationship between the two But among those who have are some of the most celebrated religious thinkers including Michel de Montaigne Thomas Tryon John Wesley John Ruskin Leo Tolstoy Mohandas K Gandhi Albert Schweitzer and Paul Tillich This volume comprises 24 scholarly studies that detail challenges to the dominant anthropocentrism of most religious traditions The editors have brought together Jewish Unitarian Christian transcendentalist Muslim Hindu Dissenting deist and Quaker voices each offering a unique theological perspective that counters the neglect of the nonhuman Animal Theologians is divided into three parts starting with the pioneers who first saw a relationship between animals and divinity those who contributed to the expansion of social sensibility to animals and ending with the work of contemporary theologians The essays in this volume use contextual and historical background to describe what led animal theologians to their beliefs and then pave way for further developments in this expanding field This volume is an act of reclaiming different religious traditions for animals by recovering lost voices Routledge Encyclopaedia of Educational Thinkers Joy A. Palmer Cooper, 2016-05-20 The Routledge Encyclopaedia of Educational Thinkers comprises 128 essays by leading scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting thinkers on education of all time Each of the chronologically arranged entries explores why a particular thinker is significant for those who study education and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the thinker worked Ranging from Confucius and Montessori to Dewey and Edward de Bono the entries form concise accessible summaries of the greatest or most influential educational thinkers of past and present times Each essay includes the following features concise biographical information on the individual an outline of the individual s key achievements and activities an assessment of their impact and influence a list of their major writings suggested further reading Carefully brought together to present a balance of gender and geographical contexts as well as areas of thought and work in the broad field of education this substantial volume provides a unique history and overview of figures who have shaped education and educational thinking throughout the world Combining and building upon two internationally renowned volumes this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing centuries boundaries and disciplines The Encyclopaedia therefore provides a perfect introduction to the huge range and diversity of educational thought Offering an accessible means of understanding the emergence and development of what is currently seen in the classroom this Encyclopaedia is an invaluable reference guide for all students of education including undergraduates and post graduates in education or teacher training and students of related disciplines Interreligious Theology Ephraim Meir, 2015-08-17 This book is the first greater attempt to construct a dialogical theology from a Jewish point of view It contributes to an emerging new theology that promotes the interrelatedness of religions in which encounter openness hospitality and permanent learning are central The monograph is about the self and the other inner and outer own and strange about borders and crossing borders and about the sublime activities of passing and translating Meir analyses and critically discusses the writings of great contemporary Jewish dialogical thinkers and argues that the values of interreligious theology are moored in their thoughts In his view interreligious dialogue supposes attentive listening humility a critical attitude towards oneself and others a good amount of self relativism and humor It is about proximity dialogical reading engagement and interconnectedness The Believer: Encounters with the Beginning, the End, and our Place in the Middle Sarah Krasnostein, 2022-03-01 A New Yorker Best Book of 2022 A Best Book of the Month at The Philadelphia Inquirer Deeply beautiful and never simple James Gleick author of Time Travel A History An unforgettable tour of the human condition that explores our universal need for belief to help us make sense of life death and everything in between For Sarah Krasnostein it begins with a Mennonite choir performing on a subway platform a fleeting moment of witness that sets her on a fascinating journey to discover why people need to believe in absolute truths and what happens when their beliefs crash into her own Some of the people Krasnostein interviews believe in things many people do not ghosts UFOs the literal creation of the universe in six days Some believe in things most people would like to dying with dignity and autonomy facing up to our transgressions with truthfulness living with integrity and compassion By turns devastating and uplifting and captured in snapshot vivid detail these six profiles of a death doula a geologist who believes the world is six thousand years old a lecturer in neurobiology who spends his weekends ghost hunting the fiance of a disappeared pilot and UFO enthusiasts a woman incarcerated for killing her husband after suffering years of domestic violence and Mennonite families in New York will leave you convinced that the most ordinary seeming people are often the most remarkable and that deep and abiding commonalities can be found within the greatest differences Vivid unconventional entertaining and full of wonder The Believer interweaves these stories with compassion and empathy culminating in an unforgettable tour of the human condition that cuts to the core of who we are as people and what we re doing on this earth Has God Only One Blessing? Mary C. Boys, 2000 Are we rivals for God's love Dramatic changes in theological thought about Judaism have not yet filtered down to most Christians This compelling book puts the academic scholarship into an accessible narrative form Foremost the book challenges Christians to re examine their traditional belief that Christianity has fulfilled and therefore replaced Judaism It also details the anti Jewish bias in history literature and liturgy yet does it without reducing such attitudes to simplistic hate An eye opening read Has God Only One Blessing summarizes the Church's shared history with Judaism Church treatment of Jews over time and its role in the Holocaust suggests more sensitive and productive ways for Christians to relate to Jews today shows how encounters with Judaism affect the way Christians think teach and preach about life Both absorbing and enjoyable this book is for o DREs o adult ed classes o catechists o religious educators o pastoral staff o liturgy committees o preachers o church historians o interfaith workers o all serious Christians o and also all serious Jews The Martin Buber -Carl Rogers Dialogue Martin Buber, Professor Kenneth N Cissna, Carl Ransom Rogers, Rob Anderson, Kenneth N. Cissna, 1997-01-01 A corrected and extensively annotated version of the sole meeting between two of the most important figures in twentieth century intellectual life Christianity and Western Thought Alan G. Padgett, Steve Wilkens, 2009-08-28 Colin Brown's Christianity Western Thought Volume 1 From the Ancient World to the Age of Enlightenment was widely embraced as a text in philosophy and theology courses around the world His project was continued with the same spirit energy and design by Steve Wilkens and Alan Padgett in volume 2 which explores the main intellectual streams of the nineteenth century This the third and final volume also by Wilkens and Padgett examines philosophers ideas and movements in the twentieth century and how they have influenced Christian thought
