Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion Ralph L. Piedmont, Andrew Village, 2012-05-23 The twenty third volume of RSSSR includes a landmark collection of papers on Theism and Non Theism in Psychological Science as well as papers on other key areas in the study of religion such as spirituality and social capital Religion and Social Transformations in Cyprus Giorgos Papantoniou, 2012-10-19 By focusing on religion this monograph represents the first extended attempt to explore how the socio cultural infrastructure of Cyprus was affected by the transition from segmented administration by many Cypriot kings to the island wide government by a foreign Ptolemaic correspondent Training the Body David Torevell, Clive Palmer, Paul Rowan, 2022-05-12 This is the first book to examine the body in training in the context of religion sport and wider physical culture offering important insight into the performative social cultural and gendered aspects of somatic discipline and exercise The book presents a series of fascinating thematic and case study led chapters from around the world examining topics including the martial discipline and symbolism of artistic gymnastics religious interpretations of body vulnerability in the context of marathons the religious language of corporeal training in sport and martial arts Drawing on multi disciplinary perspectives from sport religion history and philosophy the book explores the often contested and sometimes over zealous application of training in both sport and religion and the ways in which this can cause harm to athletes or adherents This is fascinating reading for any advanced student or researcher with an interest in the body physical cultural studies the ethics and philosophy of sport the sociology of sport religious studies Asian studies or philosophy

Film, Lacan and the Subject of Religion Steve Nolan, 2009-09-23 In their study of religion and film religious film analysts have tended to privilege religion Uniquely this study treats the two disciplines as genuine equals by regarding both liturgy and film as representational media Steve Nolan argues that in each case subjects identify with a represented other which joins them into a narrative where they become participants in an ideological reality Finding many current approaches to religious film analysis lacking Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion explores the film theory other writers ignore particularly that mix of psychoanalysis Marxism and semiotics often termed Screen theory that attempts to understand how cinematic representation shapes spectator identity Using translations and commentary on Lacan not originally available to Screen theorists Nolan returns to Lacan s contribution to psychoanalytic film theory and offers a sustained application to religious practice examining several priest films and real life case study to expose the way liturgical representation shapes religious identity Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion proposes an interpretive strategy by which religious film analysts can develop the kind of analysis that engages with and critiques both cultural and religious practice

Jesus "The Way, The Truth and The Life" Thd Bish, 2011 Jesus The Way The Truth and The Life will prove that Jesus is the only Way to God the very embodiment of all Truth and the very essence of Life just as He declared of Himself in the fourteenth chapter and sixth verse of the gospel of John by saying I am the way the truth and the life and that no one comes to the Father except through Me This book will show using systematic theology proofs and truth arguments that Jesus is exactly who He says He is confirmed by God the Father the Holy Spirit and by Christ Himself Jesus said in Mark 8 27 of scripture Who do you say I Am This book will make it obvious why you must answer this pointed question just as Peter did in claiming to Jesus that You are the Christ the Son of the Living God Time is getting short and Jesus is on His way back to earth It s not a time to be confused or wrong on issues having eternal consequences Though the book reads as a college textbook it forces you to think and study the word of God The book is most valuable in a curriculum setting or for those interested in Christian apologetics Jesus is compared to a myriad of other secular philosophies both past and present and as a result it is conclusively obvious that Jesus is the way truth and the life and all others are false This book stands on the foundation that a relationship with God thru Christ is by faith alone Sola Fide by grace alone Sola Gratia by Christ alone Solus Christus by scripture alone Sola Scriptura and with glory to God alone Soli Deo Gloria Dr Ronald N Bish ThD received his Doctorate from Freedom Bible College in Systematic Theology and Apologetics and also holds a Master Degree in Mechanical Engineering For further information contact www.ronaldbish.com Interactive Faith Rev. A Hermeneutical Investigation of Super-Primary Meaning in the Dvaita Vedānta of Madhva Ivan D’Souza,2021-08-25 This work is an in depth study on the philosophy of Madhva the Dvaita Ved nta The Dvaita tradition which chronologically comes after Advaita and Vi i dvaita is one of the great Ved ntic schools Madhva was a Hindu philosopher of the 12th century belonging to the Vai ava tradition and emphatically established that Vi u alone is the focal point of entire Vedic writings by employing an unparalleled hermeneutical technique known as parama mukhya v tti the super primary meaning in all his writings This study unearths this singular concept with the help of Madhva s commentaries and related Dvaita literature The book explores Madhva s method of hermeneutics and exegetical patterns It focuses on the first chapter of Brahmas tras and Madhva s application of parama mukhya v tti It further discusses the hermeneutical issues in some commentaries and independent works of Madhva The work suggests steps to apply parama mukhya v tti to different religious texts taking into account many Western continental thinkers who strike a chord with the thinking of Madhva It employs an exegetico interpretative method and approaches Madhva s original writings particularly the notion of parama mukhya v tti through exegesis showing its relevance through interpretation This research will open up wide horizons by providing a new methodology to interpret the sacred texts of any religious traditions It will also contribute to Madhva scholarship by stimulating scholarly exchanges discussions and deliberations Moreover it will facilitate inter religious dialogue and understanding particularly in the multi religious context of India

What is Religion? Aaron W. Hughes,Russell T. McCutcheon,2021 Controversies over how to define the word religion have persisted for decades It is a term of art and of academic study but also one of governance technologies and of networks it is a concept whose diversity is often its own worst enemy Religion is as much a fuzzy set of conceptualizations and generalizations about a range of human activities as it is an authorizing system of persons ideas and practices What is Religion Debating the Academic Study of Religion invites readers to eavesdrop on scholarly debates over the limits of and uses for a word commonly used but infrequently defined in a precise manner This volume takes the temperature of the modern field of Religious Studies by inviting a diverse group of scholars to offer their own substantive contribution that builds on the shared opening prompt Religion is Their essays document the current state of the field and its various sub fields assess the progress that has been made over the past generation and propose new directions for future work Seventeen of the international field s leading scholars show how they work with each other s definition or sometimes the lack of a definition Of interest to students scholars and general readers alike What is Religion will provoke debate and provide insights into the state of the field

Pursuing Eudaimonia John Matthews, 2013-02-21 This book offers an original account of an ancient alternative form of negative reason which stands in antithesis to its modern instrumental form which has dominated thinking about the pursuit of human development since the Enlightenment It advances arguments for the recovery of such reason as a spiritual and therapeutic way of life and demonstrates that it is impossible to fully appreciate the Christian apophatic tradition without investigating the intricacies of its philosophical heritage The aim of this discussion is the retrieval and rediscovery of invaluable insights from ancient philosophy in the universal pursuit of happiness The book s re appropriation of the negative philosophical and theological articulation of the pursuit of eudaimonia offers to redirect those living in the twenty first century towards the significance of the Christian apophatic ascent and in so doing to assist them in uncapping the wellsprings of human passion desire and happiness

The Abrahamic Encounter Mazhar Jalil, Norman Hosansky, Paul D. Numrich, 2016-12-08 In these times of increasingly contentious politics and uncivil discourse in the United States the ongoing encounter of adherents of the Abrahamic faiths in the American heartland offers a model of positive interfaith relations Edited by a Muslim a Jew and a Christian this volume describes the three goals of the Central Ohio Abrahamic encounter Enhancing mutual understanding and relationships disseminating accurate information about the three major Abrahamic traditions Judaism Christianity and Islam and contributing to the general betterment of society Here is a local story that can inform even inspire other communities across the country and around the globe Topics include beliefs scripture and interpretation historical illustrations and legacies contemporary challenges and possibilities and group dynamics especially majority minority relationships among American Christians Jews and Muslims This volume will appeal to the growing audience for interfaith resources The inclusion of several essays by noted religious scholars and leaders chosen for their significance to the Central Ohio Abrahamic encounter sets this volume apart from other publications on local initiatives It is well suited for individual or group study in churches synagogues mosques and interfaith organizations and can be assigned for undergraduate and graduate seminary courses on Abrahamic relations or interfaith relations generally Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 The Appropriation of Religion in Southeast Asia and Beyond Michel Picard,2017-08-11 This volume investigates various processes by which world religions become localized as well as how local traditions in Southeast Asia and Melanesia become universalized In the name of modernity and progress the contemporary Southeast Asian states tend to press their populations to have a religion claiming that their local indigenous practices and traditions do not constitute religion Authors analyze this religionization addressing how local people appropriate religion as a category to define some of their practices as differentiated from others whether they want to have a religion or are constrained to demonstrate that they profess one Thus religion is what is regarded as such by these local actors which might not correspond to what counts as religion for the observer Furthermore local actors do not always concur regarding what their religion is about as religion is a contested issue In consequence each of the case studies in this volume purposes to elucidate what gets identified and legitimized as religion by whom for what purpose and under what political conditions Zen Conquests Alexander Soucy,2022-07-31 At the tail end of the twentieth century a monk transformed a small village temple on the outskirts of Hanoi into a monastery and meditation center called Thi n Vi n S ng Ph c a place where monastics and lay Buddhists could learn and practice Zen meditation In time the original temple was replaced by numerous large buildings to accommodate meditation sessions youth events weddings classes and a variety of other activities designed to keep practitioners engaged Thi n Vi n S ng Ph c s approach to Buddhism as a life commitment for all ages and genders has been very successful attracting more than a thousand Buddhists to its weekly services It joined Thi n ph i Tr c L m a much larger organization started by Th ch Thanh T in southern Vietnam that has expanded to northern Vietnam and internationally In Zen Conquests Alexander Soucy presents not only the first ethnography of Thi n Vi n S ng Ph c and its followers but also a compelling look at how the discourses of Buddhist Modernism were incorporated at a local level into this new space on the outskirts of Hanoi and how and why new constituencies of followers are drawn to Zen Buddhism in contemporary Vietnam Thi n Vi n S ng Ph c s Zen tradition purports to be a continuation of the only Zen Buddhist sect founded in Vietnam the fourteenth century Tr c L m Zen School However the movement can also be seen as the product of Buddhism s globalization born from the D T Suzuki inspired interest in Zen in South Vietnam during the American War Despite its claims to be authentically Vietnamese Zen it more closely resembles Modernist versions of Buddhism practiced by Western converts in North America than anything Vietnamese Soucy maintains that it is only by looking at the processes of globalization that Vietnamese Buddhism both in the context of Vietnam but also in the Vietnamese diaspora can be properly understood He argues convincingly for acknowledging the continued influence of transnational pan Asian and global flows of migration and communication on the development of multiple forms of Buddhism worldwide The Foundation of Hope R. John Elford,2003-01-01 The Foundation of Hope is both a celebration and an analysis of the creation of Liverpool Hope University College in 1996 and of some of its achievements to date during an exciting period in British higher education The central focus is the student experience at Hope University College Contributors also examine the way that teaching and research in theology have developed over the years and the important community regeneration work Hope University College carries out in various areas of Liverpool Encountering the Other Laura Duhan-Kaplan,Harry O. Maier,2020-04-17 How do religious traditions create strangers and neighbors How do they construct otherness Or instead work to overcome it In this exciting collection of interdisciplinary essays scholars and activists from various traditions explore these questions Through legal and media studies they reveal how we see religious others They show that Jewish Christian Islamic and Sikh texts frame others in open ended ways Conflict resolution experts and Hindu teachers they explain draw on a shared positive psychology Jewish mystics and Christian contemplatives use powerful tools of compassionate perception Finally the authors explain how Christian theology can help teach respectful views of difference They are not afraid to discuss how religious groups have alienated one another But together they choose to draw positive lessons about future cooperation
