Encountering Islam on the First Crusade Nicholas Morton,2016-07-14 The First Crusade 1095-9 has often been characterised as a head to head confrontation between the forces of Christianity and Islam For many it is the campaign that created a lasting rupture between these two faiths Nevertheless is such a characterisation borne out by the sources Engagingly written and supported by a wealth of evidence Encountering Islam on the First Crusade offers a major reinterpretation of the crusaders attitudes towards the Arabic and Turkic peoples they encountered on their journey to Jerusalem Nicholas Morton considers how they interpreted the new peoples civilizations and landscapes they encountered sights for which their former lives in Western Christendom had provided little preparation Morton offers a varied picture of cross cultural relations depicting the Near East as an arena in which multiple protagonists were pitted against each other Some were fighting for supremacy others for their religion and many simply for survival Islam Encountering

Globalisation Ali Mohammadi,2012-11-12 One of the greatest dilemmas facing Muslims today is the fact that Muslim culture is often seemingly incompatible with the culture of the modern Western world and the features associated with it technological progress consumerism and new electronic communication all of which have the potential for a homogenizing effect on any culture This book explores many key aspects of the globalisation process discussing how Muslim countries are coping with globalisation as well as considering how the West is responding to Islam Christianity Encountering World

Religions (Encountering Mission) Terry C. Muck,Frances S. Adeney,2009-04-01 The current religious climate poses unique challenges to those engaged in mission Thus the authors of this book propose a new yet very biblical model for interacting with people of other faiths They term this model giftive mission as it is based on the metaphor of free gift We bear the greatest gift possible the gospel message Adopting this perspective not only has the potential for greater missionary success but also enables us to more closely imitate God s gracious activity in the world The core of the book explores eleven practices that characterize giftive mission Each practice is illustrated through the story of a figure from mission history who embodied that practice Further discussion shows how to incorporate these practices in specific mission settings

Encountering Islam Yew-Foong Hui,2013 This volume seeks to introduce and deepen the understanding of Islam and its role in politics as encountered in different national and transnational contexts in Southeast Asia eschewing the neo orientalist approach that has informed public discourse in recent years In Encountering Islam the book lingers beyond the summary moment and reflects on the multiple impressions suppressions and repressions whether coherent or incoherent associated with Islam as a socio political force in public life To this end it is not adequate simply to represent the divergent identities associated with Islam in Southeast Asia whether embedded in state endorsed orthodoxy or Islamic movements that contest such orthodoxy It is also important to examine religious minorities in political contexts where Islam is dominant and Muslim communities in national contexts where they are minorities By situating these religious identities within their larger socio political contexts this volume seeks to provide a more holistic understanding of what is encountered as Islam in Southeast Asia Encountering Religious Pluralism Harold Netland,2001-08-14 Harold Netland traces the emergence of the pluralistic ethos that challenges Christian faith and mission interacting heavily with philosopher John Hick and providing a framework for developing a comprehensive evangelical theology of religions Encountering Buddhism and Islam in

Premodern Central and South Asia Blain Auer,Ingo Strauch,2019-08-19 This volume brings together a variety of historians epigraphists philologists art historians and archaeologists to address the understanding of the encounter between Buddhist and Muslim communities in South and Central Asia during the medieval period The articles collected here provoke a fresh look at the relevant sources The main areas touched by this new research can be divided into five broad categories deconstructing scholarship on Buddhist Muslim interactions cultural and religious exchanges perceptions of the other transmission of knowledge and trade and economics The subjects covered are wide ranging and demonstrate the vast challenges involved in dealing with historical social cultural and economic frameworks that span Central and South Asia of the premodern world We hope that the results show promise for future research produced on Buddhist and Muslim encounters The intended audience is specialists in Asian Studies Buddhist Studies and Islamic Studies

Encountering the Transnational Meena Sharify-Funk, 2016-04-29 When Muslim women from diverse national and cultural contexts meet one another through transnational dialogue and networking what happens to their sense of identity and social agency Addressing this question Meena Sharify Funk encountered women activists and intellectuals in North America the Middle East South Asia and Southeast Asia women whose lives and visions have become linked by the transnational despite their differing circumstances and intellectual backgrounds The resultant work provides a rich and cliché bursting account of women's reflections on a wide range of topics including the status of women in Islam the role of women as interpreters of religious norms the relationship between secular and religious forms of self identification perceptions of Islamic Western relations experiences of marginalization and opportunities for empowerment Giving careful attention both to common threads in Muslim women's experiences and to the unique voices of remarkable women this is a compelling account of conversations that are bringing new energy and dynamism into women's activism in a world of collapsing distances

The Nation, 2007

Islam and Global Dialogue Roger Boase, 2016-05-06 At a time when the world is becoming increasingly interdependent multi cultural and multi religious the concept of religious pluralism is under assault as a result of hatred prejudice and misunderstanding from both religious exclusivists and dogmatic secularists In this important and timely book twenty internationally acclaimed scholars and leading religious thinkers respond to contemporary challenges in different ways Some discuss the idea of a dialogue of civilisations others explore the interfaith principles and ethical resources of their own spiritual traditions All of them reject the notion that any single religion can claim a monopoly of wisdom all are committed to the ideal of a just and peaceful society in which people of different religions and cultures can happily coexist More space is here given to Islam than to Judaism and Christianity because as a result of negative stereotypes it is the most misunderstood of the major world religions HRH Prince Hassan bin Talal of Jordan contributes the Foreword
