Encounters From The Dark Side:

Ethical Encounters Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2020-06-12 The essays on dimensions of theatre ethics at the heart of contributions to this volume demonstrate how individual academics and theatre artists have thought about the ethical implications of theatre and present the concepts and paradigms that have guided and influenced their thinking They raise relevant issues and debate these in clearly defined but not uniform ways ways that have helped them to come to terms with the issues they raise The reader may agree or disagree with individual authors or individual arguments If such agreement or disagreement supports them to form and develop their own opinions and resultant actions this book has served its purpose This volume arises from the 2007 and 2008 TaPRA conferences and all of its essays at one level or another reflect upon what is possible within the environment of theatre Possibility is one form of ethical engagement with the boundaries of philosophy and performance and reminds us of the inherently political aspect of any ethical question So whilst the most obviously ethically oriented papers appear towards the end of the volume in a separate section let us bear in mind that throughout certain limits of representation will always be in question for any understanding of theatre Real Vampires, Night Stalkers and Creatures from the Darkside Brad Steiger, 2009-09-01 A chilling chronicle of the often ignored history of vampirism as it has surfaced repeatedly in news articles historical accounts and first person interviews this shocking account of occultist rituals and the inhuman forces that influence them shines a light on the horrifying truth Revealing that real vampires are not immortal do not have fangs or sleep in coffins and have no fear of sunlight or crucifixes the examination dispels many myths but also confirms the truth behind several traits of real vampires such as the insatiable thirst for blood and the dream of an eternal soul Complete with 30 spine-tingling tales of the hideous wraiths and creatures that lurk in shadow this fascinating collection includes the stories of the Mexican prostitute who mesmerized an entire village convincing them she was an Incan goddess who required human sacrifice for her magic the three teenagers who left a trail across the South as they conducted blood-drinking rituals with animals and the mysterious Lady in Black who draws psychic energy from men who dare approach her as she wanders through city streets and parks Vienna 2019 - Encountering the Other: Within us, between us and in the world Emilija Kiehl, Jacqueline Egli, The XXI International Congress for Analytical Psychology was held in Vienna the birthplace of psychoanalysis It brought together an unprecedented number of participants from all over the world and from different fields of knowledge The theme Encountering the Other Within us between us and in the world a most relevant and urgent topic of the contemporary discourse among clinicians and academics alike was explored in a rich and diverse program of pre-congress workshops master classes plenary and breakout presentations and posters The Proceedings are published as two volumes a printed edition of the plenary presentations and an e-Book with the complete material presented at the Congress To professionals as well as the general public this collection of papers offers an inspiring insight into contemporary Jungian thinking from the classical to the latest research based scientific lens From the Contents Deifying the
