Mastering the Niger David Lambert,2013-11-15 In Mastering the Niger David Lambert recalls Scotsman James MacQueen 1778 1870 and his publication of A New Map of Africa in 1841 to show that Atlantic slavery as a practice of subjugation a source of wealth and a focus of political struggle was entangled with the production circulation and reception of geographical knowledge The British empire banned the slave trade in 1807 and abolished slavery itself in 1833 creating a need for a new British imperial economy Without ever setting foot on the continent MacQueen took on the task of solving the Niger problem that is to successfully map the course of the river and its tributaries and thus breathe life into his scheme for the exploration colonization and commercial exploitation of West Africa Lambert illustrates how MacQueen s geographical research began four decades before the publication of the New Map when he was managing a sugar estate on the West Indian colony of Grenada There MacQueen encountered slaves with firsthand knowledge of West Africa whose accounts would form the basis of his geographical claims Lambert examines the inspirations and foundations for MacQueen s geographical theory as well as its reception arguing that Atlantic slavery and ideas for alternatives to it helped produce geographical knowledge while geographical discourse informed the struggle over slavery

Refractions of Canada in European Literature and Culture Heinz Antor,Gordon Bölling,Annette Kern-Stähler,Klaus Stierstorfer,2012-05-02 Ever since the first exploratory expeditions in the early modern period North America has epitomized to Europeans a promise and the hope for the fulfilment of great expectations be it of more freedom greater wealth social liberation or religious tolerance While numerous features in this dialogic intercontinental relationship will hold true for North America in its entirety the vast northern territories which we know as Canada today began to emerge early on as a specific iconic location in European mind maps and they definitely acquired a distinctive profile after the formation of the USA As a rich source of cultural exchange and an important partner in political and economic cooperation Canada has come to occupy an important position in the cultural discourses of many European nations It is these refractions and images of Canada which this volume thoroughly explores in European literature and culture The contributions include literature philosophy language life writing and the concept of Heimat homeland as well as the cultural impact of the World Wars While there is an emphasis on literary texts other fields of cultural representation are also included Encyclopedia of Exploration, 1800 to 1850 Raymond John Howgego,2004 Published in two parts to date Part 1 to 1800 and Part 2 1800 to 1850 it includes a catalogue of all known expeditions voyages and travels to the year 1850 as well as biographical information on the travellers themselves which places them in their historical context The Hypothetical Species Michael Charles Tobias,Jane Gray Morrison,2019-03-28 This book is a provocative and invigorating real time exploration of the future of human evolution by two of the world s leading interdisciplinary ecologists Michael Charles Tobias and Jane Gray Morrison Steeped in a rich multitude of the sciences and humanities the book enshrines an elegant narrative that is highly empathetic personal scientifically wide ranging and original It focuses on the geo positioning of the human Self and its corresponding species The book s overarching viewpoints and poignant through story examine and powerfully challenge concepts associated historically with assertions of human superiority over all other life forms Ultimately The Hypothetical Species Variables of Human Evolution is a deeply considered treatise on the ecological and psychological state of humanity and her options both within and outside the rubrics of evolutionary research for survival This important work is beautifully presented with nearly 200 diverse illustrations and is introduced with a foreword by famed paleobiologist Dr Melanie DeVore Round About the Earth Joyce E. Chaplin,2013-11-19 Originally published in hardcover in 2012 Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk,2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines Encyclopedia of Biological Invasions Daniel Simberloff, Marcel Rejmanek, 2011-01-02 Addresses all aspects of this subject at a global level including invasions by animals plants fungi and bacteria in succinct alphabetically arranged articles Featuring many cross references suggestions for further reading illustrations an appendix of the world s worst 100 invasive species a glossary and more From the publisher Subject Encyclopedias Allan Mirwis, 1999 This useful two volume set will provide buyers of subject encyclopedias with a substantial amount of valuable information they can use in making their purchasing decisions It will also provide all types of librarians and their patrons with a quick one stop method for locating the appropriate subject encyclopedias for their needs and for locating articles in the 100 encyclopedias Librarians who specialize in bibliographic instruction will also find it to be a useful tool for teaching students how to locate needed information Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Human Evolution Bernard Wood, 2011-03-31 This comprehensive A to Z encyclopedia provides extensive coverage of important scientific terms related to improving our understanding of how we evolved Specifically the 5 000 entries in this two volume set cover evidence and methods used to investigate the relationships among the living great apes evidence about what makes the behavior of modern humans distinctive and evidence about the evolutionary history of that distinctiveness as well as information about modern methods used to trace the recent evolutionary history of modern human populations This text provides a resource for everyone studying the emergence of Homo sapiens Visit the companion site http://www.woodhumanevolution.com/target_blank to browse additional references and updates from this comprehensive encyclopedia
