The a eoconstitutionalizationa of international law is one of the most intensely debated issues in contemporary international legal doctrine The term is used to describe a number of features which distinguish the present international legal order from a oeclassicala international law in particular its shift from bilateralism to community interest and from an inter state system to a global legal order committed to the well being of the individual person The author of this book belongs to the leading participants of the constitutionalization debate He argues that there indeed exists a constitutional law of the international community that is built on and around the Charter of the United Nations In this book he explains why the Charter has a constitutional quality and what legal consequences arise from that characterization
