extensive array of symbols and motifs accompanied by succinct explanations It provides treatment of the most The Encyclopedia of Tibetan Symbols and Motifs, 1999 This study of the sacred art of Tibet is the result of eight years of brush drawing and a lifetime spent researching and reflecting upon the inner and often hidden meanings and origins encapsulated in this complex iconographical tradition Several thousand individual drawings arranged as a series of 170 pages illustrate the many variations in style lineages and individual expression of these objects The text interweaves the origins meanings and functions of these symbols derived from India Tibet and China into a comprehensive tapestry within a Buddhist conceptual framework Homa Variations Richard K. Payne, Michael Witzel, 2016 Throughout human history and across many religious cultures offerings are made into fire The essays collected in Homa Variations provide detailed studies of this practice known in the tantric world as the homa from its inception up to the present Negotiating the Sacred Elizabeth Burns Coleman, Kevin White, 2006-06-01 This cross disciplinary exploration of the role of the sacred blasphemy and sacrilege in a multicultural society brings together philosophers theologians lawyers historians curators anthropologists and sociologists as well as Christian Jewish and Islamic and secular perspectives In bringing together different disciplinary and cultural approaches the book provides a way of broadening our conceptions of what might count as sacred sacrilegious and blasphemous in moral and political terms In addition it provides original research data on blasphemy sacrilege and religious tolerance from a range of disciplines Encyclopedia of Buddhism Damien Keown, Charles S. Prebish, 2013-12-16 Reflects the current state of scholarship in Buddhist Studies its entries being written by specialists in many areas presenting an accurate overview of Buddhist history thought and practices most entries having cross referencing to others and bibliographical references Contain around 1000 pages and 500 000 words totalling around 1200 entries Buddhist Tantra: Methodology and Historiography Pranshu Samdarshi, 2019-01-24 This book analyses our conventional ways of looking at Buddhism in general and Buddhist tantra in particular It investigates how the frameworks and structures that were developed for European and Biblical studies have been deployed to interpret various facets of Buddhism Many such models that still dominate the historical imagination of Buddhist studies have been examined in this book This book also proposes an alternative approach towards the Buddhist studies and advocates incorporating the critical study of tantra texts from the perspective of traditional accounts Buddhist Goddesses of India Miranda Shaw, 2015-08-25 The Indian Buddhist world abounds with goddesses voluptuous tree spirits maternal nurturers potent healers and protectors transcendent wisdom figures cosmic mothers of liberation and dancing female Buddhas Despite their importance in Buddhist thought and practice these female deities have received relatively little scholarly attention and no comprehensive study of the female pantheon has been available Buddhist Goddesses of India is the essential and definitive guide to divinities that as Miranda Shaw writes operate from transcendent planes of bliss and awareness for as long as their presence may benefit living beings Beautifully illustrated the book chronicles the histories legends and artistic portrayals of nineteen goddesses and several related human figures and texts Drawing on a sweeping range of material from devotional poetry and meditation manuals to rituals and artistic images Shaw reveals the character powers and practice traditions of the female divinities Interpretations of intriguing traits such as body color stance hairstyle clothing jewelry hand gestures and handheld objects lend deep insight into the symbolism and roles of each goddess In addition to being a comprehensive reference this book traces the fascinating history of these goddesses as they evolved through the early Mahayana and Tantric movements in India and found a place in the pantheons of Tibet and Nepal Publisher's website As Long as Space Endures Edward A. Arnold, 2009-08-16 The Kalacakra Tantra Kalacakra means wheel of time is a tradition of Buddhist theory and practice whose root text treats a fantastic expanse of knowledge ranging from observations of the cosmos to investigations of meditative states and vital bodily energies In the Tibetan speaking world a public Kalacakra initiation remains the most sought after event in the life of a devout Buddhist The Fourteenth Dalai Lama has long had a strong connection with the Kalacakra Tantra he brought the initiation to the West in 1981 performing it in the United States Switzerland Spain and Australia This volume has been created to celebrate his long involvement with the Kalacakra teachings The twenty five contributors scholars who have made tantric studies their specialty have contributed translations of works by great Indian and Tibetan Kalacakra masters analyses of historical figures methods of practice essays on medicine ritual expertise and ethical discipline The collection also includes practical advice for Western students and practitioners from contemporary Tibetan Kalacakra masters The Dalai Lama and the Nechung Oracle Christopher Bell, 2021 This book is about two immortals whose friendship has spanned nearly five hundred years across the Tibetan plateau and beyond The first immortal is the Dalai Lama the emanation of a bodhisattva an enlightened being who voluntarily takes rebirth in the world to benefit sentient beings The second immortal is a wrathful god named Pehar who has possessed the Nechung Oracle since the sixteenth century This book is the first to examine the relationship between these two monolithic figures that began in the seventeenth century during the reign of the Fifth Dalai Lama 1617-1682 This study is also the first extensive examination of the famed Nechung Oracle and his institution In the seventeenth century the protector deity Pehar and his oracle at Nechung Monastery were state sanctioned by the nascent Tibetan government becoming the head of an expansive pantheon of worldly deities assigned to protect the newly unified country While the Fifth Dalai Lama and his government endorsed Pehar as part of his larger unification project the governments of later Dalai Lamas continued to expand the deity's influence and by extension their own by ritually establishing Pehar at monasteries and temples around Lhasa and across Tibet Pehar's cult at Nechung Monastery came to embody the Dalai Lama's administrative control in a mutually beneficial relationship of protection and prestige the effects of which continue to reverberate within Tibet and among the Tibetan exile community today Material Religion in Modern Britain Timothy Willem Jones, Lucinda Matthews-Jones, 2016-01-26 This volume contributes towards developments in the study of religion that illuminate the plural nature of religious change in modern Britain It makes a critical intervention in British studies of religion by bringing the analytical insights of material culture to bear on religion in the British World

The Origins of Religious Violence Nicholas F. Gier, 2014-08-20 Religiously motivated violence caused by the fusion of state and religion occurred in medieval Tibet and Bhutan and later in imperial Japan but interfaith conflict also followed colonial incursions in India Sri Lanka and Burma Before that time there was a general premodern harmony among the resident religions of the latter countries and only in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries did religiously motivated violence break out While conflict caused by Hindu fundamentalists has been serious and widespread a combination of medieval Tibetan Buddhists and modern Sri Lankan Japanese and Burmese Buddhists has caused the most violence among the Asian religions However the Chinese Taiping Christians have the world record for the number of religious killings by one single sect A theoretical investigation reveals that specific aspects of the Abrahamic religions an insistence on the purity of revelation a deity who intervenes in history but one who still is primarily transcendent may be primary causes of religious conflict Only one factor a mystical monism not favored in Judaism Christianity and Islam was the basis of a distinctively Japanese Buddhist call for individuals to identify totally with the emperor and to wage war on behalf of a divine ruler The Origins of Religious Violence An Asian Perspective uses a methodological heuristic of premodern modern and constructive postmodern forms of thought to analyze causes and offer solutions to religious violence

The Buddhist Swastika and Hitler's Cross T. K. Nakagaki, 2018-09-25 A remarkable cross cultural history that rescues the swastika an ancient Buddhist symbol from its deployment by the forces of hate The swastika has been used for over three thousand years by billions of people in many cultures and religions including Buddhism Jainism and Hinduism as an auspicious symbol of the sun and good fortune However beginning with its hijacking and misappropriation by Nazi Germany it has also been used and continues to be used as a symbol of hate in the Western World Hitler's device is in fact a hooked cross Rev Nakagaki's book explains how and why these symbols got confused and offers a path to peace understanding and reconciliation Please note Photographs in the digital edition of the books are in color Photographs in the print edition are in black and white

Negotiating the Sacred II Elizabeth Burns Coleman, Maria Suzette Fernandes-Dias, 2008-12-01 Blasphemy and other forms of blatant disrespect to religious beliefs have the capacity to create significant civil and even international unrest Consequently the sacrosanctity of religious dogmas and beliefs stringent laws of repression and codes of moral and ethical propriety have compelled artists to live and create with occupational hazards like uncertain audience response self censorship and accusations of deliberate misinterpretation of cultural production looming over their heads Yet in recent years issues surrounding the rights of minority cultures to recognition and respect have raised new questions about the contemporariness of the construct of blasphemy and sacrilege Controversies over the aesthetic representation of the sacred the exhibition of the sacred as art and the public display of sacrilegious or blasphemous works have given rise to heated debates and have invited us to reflect on binaries like artistic and religious sensibilities tolerance and philistinism the sacred and the profane deification and vilification Endeavouring to move beyond simplistic points about the rights to freedom of expression and sacrosanctity this collection explores how differences between conceptions of the sacred can be negotiated It recognises that blasphemy may be justified as a form of political criticism as well as a sincere expression of spirituality But it also recognises that within a pluralistic society blasphemy in the arts can do an enormous amount of harm as it may also impair relations within and between societies This collection evolved out a two day conference called Negotiating the Sacred Blasphemy and Sacrilege in the Arts held at the Centre for Cross Cultural Research at The Australian National University in November 2005 This is the second volume in a series of five conferences and edited collections on the theme Negotiating the Sacred The first conference Negotiating the Sacred Blasphemy and Sacrilege in a Multicultural Society was held at The Australian National University s Centre for Cross Cultural Research in 2004 and published as an edited collection by ANU E Press in 2006 Other conferences in the series have included Religion Medicine and the Body ANU 2006 Tolerance Education and the Curriculum ANU 2007 and Governing the Family Monash University 2008 Together the series represents a major contribution to ongoing debates on the political demands arising from religious pluralism in multicultural societies The Copper-Colored Mountain Jigme Lingpa, 2022-11-01 A translation of Jigme Lingpa s eighteenth century Tibetan Buddhist aspiration prayer for taking rebirth in the pure land Copper Colored Mountain accompanied by a commentary and analysis by the translators While Pure Land Buddhism is generally thought of as an East Asian tradition with an Indian origin the Copper Colored Mountain is in fact the first and only pure land with scriptural origins entirely in the Tibetan tradition It represents Tibetan culture s fascinating intersection of traditional history with liturgical tantric practice The Copper Colored Mountain is understood to be the current abode of Padmasambhava the Indian master credited with first bringing Buddhism to Tibet and founding Tibet s first monastery Samye After leaving Tibet it is said that Padmasambhava set up residence on C mara one of the two islands on either side of the continent of Jambudvipa our world according to Buddhist cosmology After taming the resident ogres of C mara and converting them to Buddhism he then built an octagonal palace where Buddhist practitioners may be transported in visions and dreams or reborn through aspiration prayers This work is a translation and analysis of one such aspiration prayer This prayer was composed by Jigme Lingpa a treasure revealer of the Nyingma tradition in the eighteenth century and remains the most important prayer to this pure land in Tibetan Buddhism Merging academic precision in representing the Tibetan texts and devotion to the principles of tantric Buddhism translators Georgios T Halkias and Christina Partsalaki enable a wider appreciation of the history and impact of this prayer in Tibetan Buddhist literature while elucidating its meaning for Buddhist practitioners Art and Architecture in Ladakh , 2014-05-08 Art and Architecture in Ladakh shows how the region s cultural development has been influenced by its location across the great communications routes linking India with Tibet and Central Asia Edited by Erberto Lo Bue and John Bray the collection contains 17 research papers by experienced international art historians and architectural conservationists as well as emerging scholars from Ladakh itself

Their topics range widely over time from prehistoric rock art to mediaeval Buddhist stupas and wall paintings as well as early modern castle architecture the inter regional trade in silk brocades and the challenges of 21st century conservation Taken together these studies complement each other to provide a detailed view of Ladakh s varied cultural inheritance in the light of the latest research Contributors include Monisha Ahmed Marjo Alafouzo Andr Alexander Chiara Bellini Kristin Blancke John Bray Laurianne Bruneau Andreas Catanese Philip Denwood Quentin Devers Phuntsog Dorjay Hubert Feiglstorfer John Harrison Neil and Kath Howard Gerald Kozicz Erberto Lo Bue Filippo Lunardo Kacho Mumtaz Ali Khan Heinrich Poell Tashi Ldawa Thsangspa and Martin Vernier Bon and Naxi Manuscripts Agnieszka Helman-Ważny, Charles Ramble, 2023-01-30

The present volume offers a dozen studies of manuscripts of the Tibetan Bon and Naxi Dongba traditions across time and space While some of the contributions focus on particular features of manuscripts from either tradition others explicitly bridge the two by considering common codicological and material aspects of selected examples or common themes in the content of the texts This is the first primarily object based study to deal with the cultural history and technology of books from the two traditions It discusses collections of Bon and Naxi manuscripts the concepts and history of both traditions the science and technology of book studies as it relates to these collections the relationship between text and image writing materials and the historical and archaeological context of the manuscripts places of origin The authors are specialists in different fields including philology anthropology art history codicology and archaeometry The contributions shed light on trade routes materials and technologies as well as on reading practices and ritual usage of Bon and Naxi manuscripts
