According to a recent survey of the service members, 27% believe that the military is overrated. When these members talked to the Journal, the editor asked: "Is the military overrated, and the American people are unaware and ignorant of the military?" The response was: "The military is overrated, but the American people are not aware of the military's importance. The American people are not aware of the military's importance, and the American people are not aware of the military's importance. While the military is overrated, the American people are not aware of the military's importance."
