Enchiridion Of Erasmus:

The Enchiridion of Erasmus Desiderius Erasmus,1963      The Enchiridion of Erasmus Raymond Himelick,1964-01-22

A great Christian classic Erasmus Enchiridion is described by translator Raymond Himelick as his first full and in some ways best formulation of the message intended for all Christendom the same message he was to repeat often in more playful and ironic guise in the Praise of Folly and numerous Colloquies Enormously popular when it first appeared in the sixteenth century the Enchiridion reflects the spirit animating the great figure of the Northern Renaissance the humanist on the threshold of the modern age Although his age was no less turbulent and threatened than our own Erasmus found in the Christian faith and in classic philosophy sufficient inspiration for an approach that was calm yet dedicated His philosophy therefore presents a challenge to modern existentialism on the one hand with its emphasis on alienation and anguish and to the extremes of dogmatic rigorism on the other Erasmus Christian humanism has much to say to citizens of the atomic age and the reasonable faith and constructive prescriptions of the Enchiridion were perhaps never as much needed as today
