Enclosure Records For Historians:

Enclosure Records for Historians Steven Hollowell, 2000 A detailed study of the history of the enclosure of open fields for agricultural use either by informal or formal means or by Private or General Act of Parliament Researching Local History Stuart A. Raymond, 2022-09-08 How has the place we live in changed developed and grown over the centuries That is the basic question local historians seek to answer The answer is to be found in the sources of information that previous generations have left us The records of parish county and diocesan administration of the courts of the national government and of private estates all have something to tell us about the history of the locality we are interested in So do old newspapers and other publications All of these sources are readily available but many have been little used Local historians come from a wide diversity of backgrounds But whether you are a student researching a dissertation a family historian interested in the wider background history of your family a teacher a librarian an archivist an academic or are merely interested in the history of your own area this book is for you If you want to research local history you need a detailed account of the myriad sources readily available This book provides a comprehensive overview of those sources and its guidance will enable you to explore and exploit their vast range It poses the questions which local historians ask and identifies the specific sources likely to answer those questions Writing local history John Beckett, 2013-07-19 This fascinating book looks at how local history developed from the antiquarian county studies of the sixteenth century through the growth of professional history in the nineteenth century to the recent past Concentrating on the past sixty years it looks at the opening of archive offices the invigorating influence of family history the impact of adult education and other forms of lifelong learning The author considers the debates generated by academics including the divergence of views over local and regional issues and the importance of standards set by the Victoria County History VCH Also discussed is the fragmentation of the subject The antiquarian tradition included various subject areas that are now separate disciplines among them industrial archaeology name studies family landscape and urban history This is an authoritative account of how local history has come to be one of the most popular and productive intellectual pastimes in our modern society Written by a practitioner who has spent more than twenty years teaching local history to undergraduates and M A students as well as lecturing to local history societies John Beckett is currently Director of the VCH A remarkable book that will be of great interest to students and scholars of local history as well as amateur and professional genealogists Sources for English Local History W. B. Stephens, 1973

Tracing Your House History Gill Blanchard, 2020-01-31 With its practical slant and focus on demystifying unfamiliar property documents this is the perfect introduction to tracing a house history Family Tree Magazine Anyone who wants to find out about the history of their house of their home needs to read this compact practical handbook Whether you live in a manor house or on a planned estate in a laborer's cottage a tied house a Victorian terrace a twentieth century council house or a converted warehouse this is the book for you In a series of concise information filled chapters Gill Blanchard shows you how to trace the history of your house or flat how to gain an insight into the lives of the people who lived in it before you and how to fit it into the wider history of your neighborhood A wealth of historical evidence is available in libraries archives and record offices in books and online and this is the ideal introduction to it Gill Blanchard explores these resources in depth explains their significance and directs the researcher to the most relevant and revealing aspects of them She makes the research process understandable accessible and fun and in the process she demystifies the sometimes obscure language and layout of the documents that researchers will come up against This book is more than a guide to researching the history of your house or a house of interest It is a font of interest if you are seeking to research and understand the social and domestic lives of people and their communities from early times Federation of Family History Societies Maps for Family and Local History (2nd Edition) William Foot, Geraldine Beech, Rose Mitchell, 2004-04-01 Maps for Family and Local History shows how three great land surveys can provide information on ancestral homes as well as fascinating historical snapshots of specific areas Covering 1836 to 1943 the Tithe Valuation Office and National Farm Surveys provide a wealth of information on rural and urban localities on dwellings settlements and landscapes as well as the status of householders The text gives the rationale behind the surveys and covers each in detail Fully updated by map experts from The National Archives this illustrated guide is the perfect companion to researching those maps House Histories for Beginners Colin Style, O-lan Style, 2022-09-15 Popular television programmes highlight the satisfaction that can be gained from investigating the history of houses and there is always plenty of interest in the subject with archives becoming ever more accessible with access to the internet As the subject covers a broad field the authors have set out to include advice on those aspects that usually apply to a project and others that will be of particular use for beginners The reader is guided through every stage of research from the first exploration of the archives to the completion of the task Suggestions are also included on how to present the findings a house history makes a very attractive gift The authors describe how to deduce the age of a property it is very seldom directly recorded when a house was built and characteristics of research on particular types of property such as cottages manor houses inns mills former church properties and farms are discussed In one example research demonstrated that a farm was likely to have been a Domesday manor a fascinating discovery achieved using records accessible to any beginner

Wessex: A Landscape History Hadrian Cook, 2024-04-04 Wessex is famous for its coasts heaths woodlands chalk downland limestone hills and gorges settlements and farmed vales This book provides an account of the physical form development and operation of its landscape as it was shaped by our ancestors Major themes include the development of agriculture settlements industry and transport Essays in Kentish History Margaret Roake, John Whyman, 2013-08-21 First published in 1976 This is a collection of twenty three essays on the history of the English county of Kent in the south east They cover many aspects of local history and they include works on farms in Medieval Kent Farming at Otford Four Kent towns at of the Middle Ages the distribution of wealth in the early fourteenth century Tonbridge in the seventeenth century amongst others An Introduction to the Industrial History of England Abbott Payson Usher,1920 Library owns c 1 2 A Forestry History of Ten Wisconsin Indian Reservations Under the Great Lakes Agency Anthony Godfrey,1997 History of the Housing Crisis Rebecca Searle,2022-11-28 In History of the Housing Crisis Rebecca Searle offers a unique insight into the long history of the housing crisis telling three stories that are central to understanding the contemporary crisis The first explores the growth of owner occupation and how this was fostered by generations of parliamentarians as they wrested to contain the disruptive potential of democratization The rise and fall of council housing is traced in the second story which documents how a rent strike organized by Glasgow women forced the introduction of rent controls and council house building Finally the third story details the surprising legacy of the strikes which was the boost they gave to the housing finance industry Searle charts how successive property booms were fueled by lenders using financial mechanisms to displace risk to extend loans to lower earning households Rising interest rates placed strain on overextended borrowers and as boom turned to bust wider economic turbulence ensued Today we sit upon the largest housing bubble yet seen As interest rates creep up this book offers a timely intervention on how housing policy could better house the people The Local Historian,2003 Commons and Common Fields, Or, The History and Policy of the Laws Relating to Commons and Enclosures in England Sir Thomas Edward Scrutton,1887 Being the Yorke prize essay of the University of Cambridge for the year 1886 T p Forbidden History J. Douglas Kenyon,2005-03-29 Challenges the scientific theories on the establishment of civilization and technology Contains 42 essays by 17 key thinkers in the fields of alternative science and history including Christopher Dunn Frank Joseph Will Hart Rand Flem Ath and Moira Timmes Edited by Atlantis Rising publisher J Douglas Kenyon In Forbidden History writer and editor J Douglas Kenyon has chosen 42 essays that have appeared in the bimonthly journal Atlantis Rising to provide readers with an overview of the core positions of key thinkers in the field of ancient mysteries and alternative history The 17 contributors include among others Rand Flem Ath Frank Joseph Christopher Dunn and Will Hart all of whom challenge the scientific establishment to reexamine its underlying premises in understanding ancient civilizations and open up to the possibility of meaningful debate around alternative theories of humanity s true past Each of the essays builds upon the work of the other contributors Kenyon has carefully crafted his vision and selected writings in six areas Darwinism Under Fire Earth Changes Sudden or Gradual Civilization s Greater Antiquity Ancestors from Space Ancient High Tech and The Search for Lost Origins He explores the most current ideas in the Atlantis debate the origins of the Pyramids and many other controversial themes The book serves as an excellent introduction to hitherto suppressed and alternative accounts of history as contributors raise questions about the origins of civilization and humanity catastrophism and ancient technology The collection also includes several articles that introduce compare contrast and complement the theories of other notable authors in these fields such as Zecharia Sitchin Paul LaViolette John Michell and John Anthony West Teaching Local History W. B. Stephens,1977 Local History in England W. G. Hoskins,David

Hey,2014-01-14 Considered to be the classic introduction to the subject this third edition has been carefully revised and updated to take account of the developments in the subject and includes an extensive newly compiled bibliography and twice the number of illustrations as in previous editions The Agrarian History of England and Wales: Volume 4, 1500-1640 Joan Thirsk,H. P. R. Finberg,1967-04 Volume IV of the Agrarian History 1967 examines farming in Tudor and early Stuart England and Wales Chapters from The Agrarian History of England and Wales: Volume 3, Agricultural Change: Policy and Practice, 1500-1750 Joan Thirsk,1990 Material from The Agrarian History of England and Wales in paperback with new introductions Tracing Your Ancestors' Parish Records Stuart A. Raymond,2015-02-27 Parish records are essential sources for family and local historians and Stuart Raymond s handbook is an invaluable guide to them He explores and explains the fascinating and varied historical and personal information they contain His is the first thoroughgoing survey of these resources to be published for over three decades In a concise easy to follow text he describes where these important records can be found and demonstrates how they can be used Records relating to the poor laws apprentices the church tithes enclosures and charities are all covered The emphasis throughout is on understanding their original purpose and on revealing how relevant they are for researchers today Compelling insights into individual lives and communities in the past can be gleaned from them and they are especially useful when they are combined with other major sources such as the census Your Ancestors Parish Records is an excellent introduction to this key area of family and local history research it is a book that all family and local historians should have on their shelf
