Encounter February 1955:

Transatlantic Intellectual Networks, 1914-1964 Hans Bak, Céline Mansanti, 2019-11-13 The twelve essays in this book by scholars from the U S France Germany the Netherlands and the Czech Republic offer new transnational perspectives in transatlantic historical literary and cultural studies They explore the special role of American and European intellectuals as agents of transatlantic cultural transfer and examine the mechanisms and instruments through which artists writers and intellectuals communicated across oceans and national borders in the half century between 1914 and 1964 Their focus is on transatlantic networks and the instruments of culture through which such networks become operative as sites of cross cultural exchange circulation and interaction magazines caf s publishing houses book fairs agents translators and mediators and last but not least transatlantic personal friendships Contending that the dynamics of transatlantic cultural transfer need to be understood as reciprocal and multi directional they also exemplify the shift within transatlantic intellectual history from a traditional concern with European U S relations to a multidirectional triangular exploration of cultural political and intellectual relations between Europe the United States and Latin America The CIA, the British Left and the Cold War Hugh Wilford, 2013-10-23 Shortly after it was founded in 1947 the CIA launched a secret effort to win the Cold War allegiance of the British left Hugh Wilford traces the story of this campaign from its origins in Washington DC to its impact on Labour Party politicians trade unionists and Bloomsbury intellectuals Architectural Encounters with Essence and Form in Modern China Peter G. Rowe, Seng Kuan, 2002 A study of traditional and modernist attitudes toward architecture in China from the 1840s to the present Built around snatches of discussion overheard in a Beijing design studio this book explores attitudes toward architecture in China since the opening of the Treaty Ports in the 1840s Central to the discussion are the concepts of ti and yong or essence and form Chinese characters that are used to define the proper arrangement of what should be considered modern and essentially Chinese Ti and yong have gone through various transformations for example from Chinese learning for essential principles and Western learning for practical application to socialist essence and cultural form and an almost complete reversal to modern essence and Chinese form The book opens with a discussion of cultural developments in China in response to the forced opening to the West in the mid nineteenth century efforts to reform the Qing dynasty and the Nationalist and Communist regimes It then considers the return of overseas educated Chinese architects and foreign influences on Chinese architecture four architectural orientations toward tradition and modernity in the 1920s and 1930s and the controversy over the use of big roofs and other sinicizing aspects of Chinese architecture in the 1950s The book then moves to the hard economic conditions of the Great Leap Forward and the Cultural Revolution when architecture was almost abandoned and the beginning of reform and opening up to the outside world in the late 1970s and 1980s Finally it looks at the present socialist market economy and Chinese architecture during the still incomplete process of modernization It closes with a prognosis for the future Hollywood's Cold War Tony Shaw, 2007 Published at a time when

American filmmakers are deeply involved in the War on Terror this authoritative and timely book offers the first comprehensive account of Hollywood's propaganda role during the defining ideological conflict of the 20th century the Cold War

Freedom and Rationality F. D'Agostino, Ian Jarvie, 2012-12-06 x philosophy when he inaugurated a debate about the principle of methodological individualism a debate which continues to this day and which has inspired a literature as great as any in contemporary philosophy Few collections of material in the general area of philosophy of social science would be considered complete unless they contained at least one of Watkins's many contributions to the discussion of this issue In 1957 Watkins published the first of a series of three papers 1957b 1958d and 1960a in which he tried to codify and rehabilitate metaphysics within the Popperian philosophy placing it somewhere between the analytic and the empirical He thus signalled the emergence of an important implication of Popper's thought that had not to that point been stressed by Sir Karl himself and which marked off his followers from the antimetaphysical ideas of the regnant logical positivists In 1965 years of work in political philosophy and in the history of philosophy in the seventeenth century were brought to fruition in Watkins's widely cited and admired Hobbes's System of Ideas 1965a second edition 1973d This book is an important contribution not just to our understanding of Hobbes's political thinking but perhaps more importantly to our understanding of the way in which a system of ideas is constituted and applied Watkins built on earlier work in developing an account of Hobbes's ideas in which was revealed and clarified the unity of Hobbes's metaphysical epistemological and political ideas

AfroAsian Encounters Heike Raphael-Hernandez, Shannon Steen, 2006-11 How might we understand yellowface performances by African Americans in 1930s swing adaptations of Gilbert and Sullivan's The Mikado Paul Robeson's support of Asian and Asian American struggles or the absorption of hip hop by Asian American youth culture AfroAsian Encounters is the first anthology to look at the mutual influence of and relationships between members of the African and Asian diasporas in the Americas While these two groups have often been thought of as occupying incommensurate if not opposing cultural and political positions scholars from history literature media and the visual arts here trace their interconnections and interactions as well as how they have been set in opposition by white systems of racial domination AfroAsian Encounters probes beyond popular culture to trace the historical lineage of these coalitions from the post Civil War era through the present From the history of Japanese jazz composers to the current popularity of black Asian buddy films like Rush Hour AfroAsian Encounters is a groundbreaking intervention into studies of race and ethnicity and a crucial look at the shifting meaning of race in America in the twenty first century

A History of Military Encounters with UFOs Robert Allred, 2024-12-30 This book explores the long history of military encounters with UFOs revealing hidden incidents of dogfights nuclear interference and mysterious confrontations with unidentified aerial phenomena Military bodies across the world have encountered experimented with and even had combat with UFOs or as the U S military now define them Unidentifiable Aerial Phenomenon or UAPs These observations and engagements have occurred since ancient times and on all continents Different nations and cultures have had vastly different analyzes of the UFO UAP phenomenon from the Roman Empire to Nazi Germany and the Soviet Union and Communist China to the Western democracies The UFO UAP phenomenon has not diminished and has in fact grown in proportion in recent years and has now assumed the mantle of legitimacy in government circles the media and among the general public What is less well known or even concealed are the encounters that the military have had with UFOs some of which have even proved fatal to the terrestrials concerned There were reported dogfights with UFOs and German aircraft in the First World War and in the Second World War reports of what became known as Foo Fighters became commonplace However it was after the war that UFO sightings increased exponentially amongst which was a dogfight with a Mustang P 51 and a UFO in October 1948 and two years later for two consecutive weekends in 1952 UFOs hovered over Washington D C Attempts were made by the U S Air Force to intercept the strange craft but were outrun by the UFOs UFOs UAPs may have tampered with world nuclear forces including shutting down strategic missiles of the United States and conversely activating Soviet ICBMs almost setting off an unordered by Soviet authorities launching of atomic warheads against the United States UFOs may also have returned fire against American military forces during the Vietnam War sending projectiles back at patrol boats that had been fired by those military river craft at UFOs hours or days before United States Air Force personnel including a Lieutenant Colonel also encountered UFOs on the ground and in the air at Rendlesham USAF RAF base in the UK in 1980 UFOs have played cat and mouse games with the latest fighter bombers of the United States Navy since 2004 and these events have been captured on videotape and are verified to have occurred by the pilots themselves As readers will discover from the mass of evidence presented in this book it is no longer a question of whether UFOs exist or not and that not only are such phenomenon an incontrovertible fact but that the United States has crafted plans on how to resist an alien invasion But is there any need for us humans to be concerned about the alien presence in the skies that surround our planet Yes be very concerned

Austria and America: 20th-Century Cross-Cultural Encounters Joshua Parker, Ralph J. Poole, 2017 Through literature film diplomatic relations and academic exchanges this volume examines key historical points in Austrian American relations of the past century pondering the roots of how and why austrianness was adapted to American culture and how America's cultural lens focused on the two countries exchanges From Freud's early reception to FDR's policy toward Austrian refugees in the Pacific and from film adaptations to film writing literature and Freudianism during the McCarthy era it reviews encounters between Austria and the United States between Austrians and Americans between each's images of the other and the lives of those caught in between Series American Studies in Austria Vol 15 Subject Politics American Studies Austrian Studies Sociology Police Encounters Ilana Feldman, 2015-05-13 Egypt came to govern Gaza as a result of a war a failed effort to maintain Arab Palestine Throughout the twenty years of its administration 1948-1967 Egyptian policing of Gaza concerned itself not only with crime and politics but also with control of social and moral order Through surveillance interrogation and a network of local informants the police extended their reach across the public domain and into private life seeing Palestinians as both security threats and vulnerable subjects who needed protection Security practices produced suspicion and safety simultaneously Police Encounters explores the paradox of Egyptian rule Drawing on a rich and detailed archive of daily police records the book describes an extensive security apparatus guided by intersecting concerns about national interest social propriety and everyday illegality In pursuit of security Egyptian policing established a relatively safe society but also one that blocked independent political activity The repressive aspects of the security society that developed in Gaza under Egyptian rule are beyond dispute But repression does not tell the entire story about its impact on Gaza Policing also provided opportunities for people to make claims of government influence their neighbors and protect their families Richard

Aldington and Lawrence of Arabia Fred D. Crawford, 1998 If you plan to portray a national icon in less than heroic terms you had better be prepared for a fight as Richard Aldington learned even before the publication of his 1955 biography Lawrence of Arabia A Biographical Enquiry Fred D Crawford provides the first examination of all major parties and points of view embroiled in the controversy generated by Aldington's biography of T E Lawrence In two years of research Aldington made major discoveries including the extent to which Lawrence had cooperated with Lowell Thomas Robert Graves and B H Liddell Hart in the creation of the Lawrence legend For this and other reasons Aldington concluded that Lawrence was a charlatan a poseur and a fraud Upon learning of Aldington's antagonism to Lawrence a year before Aldington's book appeared a powerful group including B H Liddell Hart Robert Graves A W Lawrence and other Lawrence partisans worked behind the scenes to suppress and denigrate Aldington's biography These attempts Crawford notes reveal a great deal about how private interests can determine what the public is allowed to read Cold-War Propaganda in the 1950s Gary D.

Rawnsley, 2016-07-27 This volume concerns the origins organisation and method of British American and Soviet propaganda during the 1950s Drawing upon a range of archival material which has only been accessible to researchers in the last few years the authors discuss propaganda's international and domestic dimensions and chart the development of a shared Cold War culture They demonstrate how the structures of propaganda which were organised at this time endured giving shape and meaning to the remaining years of the Cold War The Shield of Achilles W. H. Auden, 2024-05-07 The first critical edition of W H Auden's poetry collection The Shield of Achilles which won the 1956 National Book Award in Poetry this book will include the complete text of Auden's award winning volume The Shield of Achilles accompanied critical commentary by Alan Jacobs a preface to provide historical and publishing context a longer introduction to orient the reader to the poems themselves and detailed notes on words or passages in need of clarification for contemporary readers Jacobs who has edited two previous critical editions of Auden's poetry argues that this was the most important single collection of poems Auden published and also the most coherent of his collections The two poetic sequences Bucolics and Horae Canonicae bookend a remarkable set of lyrics with The Shield of Achilles itself at the heart One of Auden's last long poems it refers to moment in

The Iliad in which Thetis mother of Achilles asks Hephaestus to forge a shield for her son Auden re imagines how the shield of Achilles would look in the modern age when the rules of war and the role of the hero have been rewritten While the volume was widely praised it is now out of print although the title poem is included in larger collections of Auden s poetry A critical edition allows readers to better understand and appreciate one of Auden s most important later poetic works written in what Jacobs describes as a poetic idiom that differs quite significantly from what anyone else at the time was doing it is in a vital sense public poetry and it can be enjoyed understood and profited from This edition is meant to make that enjoyment understanding and profit easier of access

American Encounters with Arabs William A. Rugh, 2005-11-30 For sixty years U S government officials have conducted public diplomacy programs to try to reach Arab public opinion to inform educate and understand Arab attitudes American public affairs officers have met serious challenges in the past but Arab public criticism of the United States has reached unprecedented levels since September 11 2001 Polls show that much of the negative opinion of the United States especially in the Middle East can be traced to dissatisfaction with U S foreign policy Rugh a retired career Foreign Service officer who twice served as ambassador to countries in the region explains how U S government officials have dealt with key problem issues over the years and he recommends ways that public diplomacy can better support and enhance U S national interests in the Middle East This struggle for the hearts and minds of the Arab world so crucial to the success of American efforts in post occupation Iraq is carried out through broadcasting cultural contacts and educational and professional exchanges Rugh describes the difference between public diplomacy and propaganda He points out that public diplomacy uses open means of communication and is truthful Its four main components are explaining U S foreign policy to foreign publics presenting them with a fair and balanced picture of American society culture and institutions promoting mutual understanding and advising U S policy makers on foreign attitudes Public diplomacy supports the traditional diplomatic functions of official business between governments Whereas diplomats from the United States deal with diplomats of foreign governments public affairs officers deal with opinion leaders such as media editors reporters academics student leaders and prominent intellectuals and cultural personalities Rugh provides an up close and personal look at how public affairs officers do their jobs how they used innovation in their efforts to meet the challenges of the past and how they continue to do so in the post September 11 era

German-East Asian Encounters and Entanglements Joanne Miyang Cho, 2020-12-29 This volume surveys transnational encounters and entanglements between Germany and East Asia since 1945 a period that has witnessed unprecedented global connections between the two regions It examines their sociopolitical and cultural connections through a variety of media Since 1945 cultural flow between Germany and East Asia has increasingly become bidirectional spurred by East Asian economies unprecedented growth In exploring their dynamic and evolving relations this volume emphasizes how they have negotiated their differences and have frequently cooperated toward common goals in meeting the challenges of the contemporary world Given their long standing historical differences their post 1945 relations reveal a surprisingly high degree of affinity in many areas To show how they have deeply shaped each other's views this volume presents 12 chapters by scholars from the fields of history sinology sociology literature music and film Topics include cultural topics such as German and Swiss writers on East Asia Enzensberg Muschg and Kreitz Japanese writer on Germany Tezuka and Tawada German commemorative culture in Korea Beethoven in China metal music in Germany and Japan diary films on Japan Wenders as well as sociopolitical topics such as Sino East German diplomacy Germans and Korean democracy and Japanese and Korean communities in Germany Venomous encounters

Peter Hobbins, 2017-02-13 How do we know which snakes are dangerous This seemingly simple question caused constant concern for the white settlers who colonised Australia after 1788 Facing a multitude of serpents in the bush their fields and their homes colonists wanted to know which were the harmful species and what to do when bitten But who could provide this expertise Liberally illustrated with period images Venomous Encounters argues that much of the knowledge about which snakes were deadly was created by observing snakebite in domesticated creatures from dogs to cattle Originally accidental by the middle of the nineteenth century this process became deliberate Doctors naturalists and amateur antidote sellers all caused snakes to bite familiar creatures in order to demonstrate the effects of venom and the often erratic impact of cures In exploring this culture of colonial vivisection Venomous Encounters asks fundamental questions about human animal relationships and the nature of modern medicine Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on the Judiciary
