Encountering Evil Live Options In Theodicy:

Encountering Evil Stephen T. Davis, 2001-01-01 Eight prominent philosophers and theologians confront the problems posed by natural and human evil for theistic belief Each thinker sets out his or her theodicy and its connections to current social and philosophical debates The other contributors then offer critiques of each theodicy to which its author subsequently responds The result is a valuable introduction to philosophical and theological perspectives on contemporary evil and to the nature of discourse in the philosophy of religion

Encountering Evil Stephen T. Davis, John B. Cobb, 1981 Eight prominent philosophers and theologians confront the problems posed by natural and human evil for theistic belief Each thinker sets out his or her theodicy and its connections to current social and philosophical debates Other contributors then offer critiques of each theodicy to which its author subsequently responds

Encountering Evil Gwenn Davis, Claus Westermann, 1981-07-01 Concerned with the serious intellectual and moral questions that evil presents to religious believers Each essay is given a critique by the other contributors John Roth John Hick David Griffen Frederick Sontag and Stephen Davis

Faith, Hope, Love, and Justice Anselm K. Min, 2018-03-28 Faith hope and love traditionally called theological virtues are central to Christianity This book renews faith hope and love in the context of the many contemporary challenges in many unique ways It is an ecumenical collection of papers equally divided between Catholic and Protestant positions that seek to radically renew the classical doctrine of faith hope and love and argues for their essential connection to the praxis of justice It contains eight different approaches each represented by a distinguished theologian and addressing different aspects of the issues and followed by insightful and critical responses It does not merely seek to renew the theological virtues but to also reconstruct them in the demanding context of justice and the contemporary world nor is it simply a treatise on justice but a theoretical and practical reflection on justice as vital expressions of faith in God hope in God and love of God A non dogmatic and non ideological approach it accommodates both conservative and liberal positions and avoids the separation of the theological virtues from the demands of the contemporary world as well as the separation of justice talk from the theological context of faith hope and love It seeks above all to renew not merely repeat the classical doctrine of faith hope and love in the contemporary context of the urgency of justice and to do so ecumenically comprehensively and from a variety of perspectives and aspects

The Doctrine of God John C. Peckham, 2019-09-05 John C Peckham introduces and engages with major questions about God s nature and how God relates to the world Does God change Does God have emotions Can God do anything Does God know the future Does God always attain what God desires And is God entirely good This textbook provides a clear and concise overview of the issues involved in these and other questions exploring prominent contemporary approaches to the main issues relative to how to conceive of the God world relationship within Christian theology In so doing Peckham surveys a range of live options regarding each of the primary questions briefly considering where each falls within the spectrum of the Christian tradition and providing clear and readily understandable explanations of the technical issues involved The result is a stimulating survey of the most prominent options in Christian theology relative to divine attributes and the God world relationship offered in an accessible format for students Designed for classroom use this volume includes the following features study questions for each chapter suggestions for further reading for each chapter glossary The Interface of Science, Theology, and Religion Dennis Ngien, 2019-03-07 In celebration of Alister E McGrath's sixty fifth birthday in 2018 this Festschrift aims to highlight him as a lauded scholar who exemplifies an interface of science theology and religion It comprises works by McGrath's theological allies and colleagues from diverse ecclesial homes including Graham Ward Oliver Crisp Tony Lane Sung Wook Chung Randall Zachman Veli Matti Karkkainen Jonathan Wilson Jeffrey P Greenman Robert Kolb Sister Benedicta Ward Michael Lloyd Bethany Sollereder and Patrick Franklin Critical but appreciative is the posture with which these contributors engage the wide range of McGrath's own scholarly pursuits and publications This volume edited by Dennis Ngien covers these themes that are central to the life and witness of the church atonement Christology Trinity eschatology mission Reformation science nature culture evangelism and theodicy there is much to ponder and reap here Readers will join with the contributors and pay tribute to McGrath who has risen to a life of significance as a scientist turned theologian professor author Christian apologist and churchman Good God Michael Brooks, 2024-02-01 How can Christians believe in an all powerful and loving God when there is so much suffering and evil in the world Good God sets out to answer this question Spheres of Awareness James Lough, Patricia Herron, 2009-09-29 Spheres of Awareness Wilberian Integral Approaches to Literature Philosophy Psychology and Art moves toward building a new and more comprehensive theory of literature philosophy psychology and art The extremely popular work of Ken Wilber unites the best of both western and eastern thought and affirms that the stages of consciousness more refined than that of the reasoning mind do exist These stages culminate in awareness of Spirit or what Buddhism has called Emptiness Spheres of Awareness shows us how applying Wilber's theoretical templates can broaden and deepen our approaches to literature philosophy psychology and art Can You Hear My Pain Now? Michael G. Atheist John W. Loftus, 2012-10-10 For about two decades John W Loftus was a devout evangelical Christian an ordained minister of the Church of Christ and an ardent apologist for Christianity With three degrees in philosophy theology and philosophy of religion he was adept at using rational argumentation to defend the faith But over the years doubts about the credibility of key Christian tenets began to creep into his thinking By the late 1990s he experienced a full blown crisis of faith In this honest appraisal of his journey from believer to atheist the author carefully explains the experiences and the reasoning process that led him to reject religious belief The original edition of this book was published in 2006 and reissued in 2008 Since that time Loftus has received a good deal of critical feedback from Christians and skeptics alike In this revised and expanded edition the author addresses criticisms of the original adds new argumentation and references and refines his presentation For every issue he succinctly summarizes the various points of view and provides references for further reading In conclusion he describes the implications of life without belief in God some liberating some sobering This frank critique of Christian belief from a former insider will interest freethinkers as well as anyone with doubts about the claims of religion

A Grammar of Christian Faith Joe R. Jones, 2002-06-03 A Grammar of Christian Faith is a two volume set that aims to confront the widespread disarray in the language and practices of Christian faith today As a grammar it explains how Christian faith provides special ways of speaking and acting that make sense of human life by giving it meaning practicality and hope It advances the thesis that learning how to speak Christian language in worship and life is crucial to learning how to be a Christian Rather than supposing that Christian language and theology need continual updating in order to be relevant to the world Jones urges the church to recover anew how Christian concepts and understanding are intended to form Christian life in all its rich depths Construing theology as confessional theology in the context of the church Jones understands the church as that liberative and redemptive community called into being by the Gospel of Jesus Christ to witness in word and deed the triune God for the benefit of the world The full range of doctrinal themes that are deemed essential to the witness of the church are explored including clear explanations of why they are essential and how they are to be understood In pursuit of a truthful and beneficial witness of the church the work centers on a trinitarian understanding of God in which God freely and lovingly interacts with the world as Creator Reconciler and Redeemer The work throughout affirms the belief that the gracious triune God is the Ultimate Companion who will redeem all creation Introducing Philosophy of Religion Chad Meister, 2009-02-13 Does God exist What about evil and suffering How does faith relate to science Is there life after death These questions fascinate everyone and lie at the heart of philosophy of religion Chad Meister offers an up to date introduction to the field focussing not only on traditional debates but also on contemporary concepts such as the intelligent creator Key topics such as divine reality and the self and religious experience are discussed in relation to different faiths Introducing Philosophy of Religion offers a lucid overview of contemporary philosophy of religion introduces the key figures in the history of philosophy of religion explores the impact of religious diversity and pluralism examines the main arguments for and against the existence of God and the nature of the divine looks at science and issues of faith and reason explores how the different religions approach the concept of life after death The wealth of textbook features including tables of essential information questions for reflection summaries glossary and recommendations for further reading make the book ideal for student use Along with its accompanying Reader this is the perfect introductory package for undergraduate philosophy of religion courses Visit the book's companion website at www.routledge.com/textbooks/9780415403276 Features include an interactive glossary a timeline powerpoint slides on all the chapters chapter outlines lists of objectives for study

God in Pain: Questions of God about suffering John Henry Moule Chamberlain, 2017-11-04 God in Pain seeks to ask questions of God about the problem of evil and not accept easy answers Why does God allow such horrendous suffering to occur in the world Is He responsible for all the pain that we see This is not a book for the faint hearted but it is a book for those who want to honestly engage with the problem and with God By asking bold questions the book reveals startling answers that show something of the love of God

God Under Fire Zondervan, 2009-12-15 God Never Changes Or does he God has been getting a makeover of late a reinvention that has incited debate and troubled scholars and laypeople alike Modern theological sectors as diverse as radical feminism and the new open theism movement are attacking the classical Christian view of God and vigorously promoting their own images of Divinity God Under Fire refutes the claim that major attributes of the God of historic Christianity are false and outdated This book responds to some increasingly popular alternate theologies and the ways in which they cast classical Christian theism in a negative light Featuring an impressive cast of world class biblical scholars philosophers and apologists God Under Fire begins by addressing the question Should the God of Historic Christianity Be Replaced From there it explores issues as old as time and as new as the inquest into the openness of God How for instance does God risk relate emot and change Does he do these things and if so why These and other questions are investigated with clarity bringing serious scholarship into popular reach Above all this collection of essays focuses on the nature of God as presented in the Scriptures and as Christians have believed for centuries God Under Fire builds a solid and appealing case for the God of classical Christian theism who in recent years as through the centuries has been the God under fire

The Mystery of Death Jean Donovan, 2003 Jean Donovan professor lay minister and crisis worker offers a Christian understanding of one of life s greatest mysteries death In material divided into several cogent and succinct chapters she discourses on the subject and its concomitant issues evil pain suffering acceptance and happiness The result is The Mystery of Death a probing theological account of questions that deeply perplex humankind Where is God in the face of evil And why does God permit human beings to suffer and die Complete with references from the Bible Dante and C S Lewis among others this is a compassionate and scholarly contribution to thanatology Written in precise and careful language this book is recommended for Individual readers searching for the meaning of death Theological seminaries medical and nursing schools Social workers who work with the sick and the bereaved Clergy of all faiths Students of psychology

From Force to Persuasion Andrew M. Davis, 2024-08-01 At the heart of process relational theology in the tradition of Alfred North Whitehead 1861 1947 and Charles Hartshorne 1897 2000 is the rejection of coercive omnipotence and the embrace of divine persuasion as the patient and uncontrolling means by which God works with a truly self creative world According to Whitehead Plato s conviction that God is a persuasive agency and not a coercive agency constitutes one of the greatest intellectual discoveries in the history of religion According to Hartshorne omnipotence is a theological mistake What is behind these claims Why do process relational philosophers and theologians reject divine omnipotence How have they justified a commitment to divine persuasion and what kind of theoretical and practical implications are involved Featuring contributions from key process relational thinkers this book situates a shift from force to persuasion across multiple thresholds of discourse from philosophy and theology to spirituality and politics to pluralism axiology and apocalypse It aims to reawaken attention to the operations of divine persuasion as ever loving and inherently noncoercive but always at risk in an open and relational universe
