Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank, 2014-04-08 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children's literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation locale or country are constructed in translated children's literature with the translation of Australian children's fiction into French serving as a case study Issues examined include the selection of books for translation the relationship between children's books and the national and international publishing industry the packaging of translations and the importance of titles blurbs and covers the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children intertextual references the function of the translation in the target culture didactic and pedagogical aims euphemistic language and explicitation and literariness in translated texts The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback the antipodes the exotic the wild the unknown the void the end of the world the young and innocent nation and the Far West Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban multicultural Aboriginal worldly and inharmonious are seriously under represented The study also shows that French translations are conventional conservative and didactic showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean rural exoticism The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu especially through translated children's literature      Ottomiller's Index to Plays in Collections Denise L. they interact with each other in Arab North Africa throughout the twentieth century and introduces the trope of the encounter as a lens through which to read contemporary world literature comparatively. A focus on the transnational encounter allows for the in depth study of constructions of gender race and national identities both for the self and the other in order to answer the seemingly simple questions: What makes up different encounters in the twentieth century and how can we facilitate a productive and positive encounter between these groups? This book illustrates connections between literary texts that have hitherto been overlooked and establishes an intertextual genealogy of transcultural encounters throughout the twentieth century that coalesce around the themes of desire, family and travel. In its literary analysis, A Century of Encounters aims to facilitate a better understanding of other cultures in general and contribute to constructive cross cultural interactions between the United States, Europe and Arab North Africa in particular. Places and Forms of Encounter in Jewish Literatures, 2020-09-25. In the past years, reflections on Jewish literatures and theoretical and methodological approaches discussed in Comparative Literature have converged. Places and Forms of Encounter in Jewish Literatures Transfer Mediality and Situativity brings together close readings and contextualizations of Jewish literatures with theories discussed in Comparative and World Literature Studies. The contributions are arranged in five chapters capturing central processes, actors and dynamics in the making of literatures, namely: Literary Agents, Literary Figures, Writing Voids, Making of Literatures and Perceiving and Creating Languages. The volume seeks to illuminate the interrelations between literary systems and to highlight Jewish literatures as a prism for encounters on the levels of text, discourse and culture and their transformative force.

Indian Ethos and Western Encounter in Raja Rao's Fiction Dr. Madhulika Singh, 2023-01-29. This book considers the novels and short stories of Raja Rao in terms of the diasporic life of the author. Among the earliest of the second wave Indian diaspora in the west, Raja Rao employs this unique perspective in most of his works. This is the hallmark of his writing. However, we also discuss the varied human and spiritual aspects of his work as reflecting his own life. His experiences as an Indian in a western world. But Raja Rao's writing also counts as postcolonial and postmodern far ahead of any others here or there.

Chiasmatic Encounters Kuisma Korhonen, Arto Haapala, Sara Heinämaa, Kristian Klockars, Pajari Räsänen, 2018-01-02. The concept of chiasm has played a major role in continental philosophy where it has referred to various phenomenological and hermeneutic structures of reversibility, intertwining and encounter. In Chiasmatic Encounters Art Ethics Politics, fourteen international contributors representing various fields of expertise analyze this central concept and its significance for contemporary cultural theory. The authors discuss the work of major philosophers like Merleau-Ponty.

Beauvoir Habermas Levinas Derrida and Deleuze adapting their ideas of chiasmatic relations to cultural analysis As the internal and external horizons of perception and experience are intertwined and reversed various cultural texts like a Vermeer painting a symphony of Sibelius a David Lynch movie or a young girl walking in her summer dress are seen from new and unexpected angles The book also addresses the chiasmatic crossing between ethics and politics between unconditional ethical responsibility and always conditional political choices Representing the cutting edge of contemporary cultural theory and interdisciplinary thinking Chiasmatic Encounters is essential reading for anyone working in continental philosophy aesthetics or political theory     In Search For Community: Encounter Groups And Social Change Kurt W.
