and depending on the circumstances the State This phenomenon of joint labour market regulation is confirmed by a marked desire on the part of employers associations and trade unions to integrate employment related issues into their actions and negotiations On the other hand the incorporation of employment related themes by employers associations and trade unions usually in concertation with government policies is related with greater coordination of bargaining and concertation mechanisms established at European level and within each Member State Today the various national realities appear to be directed to various degrees by these two general tendencies These phenomena active in the field of employment bargaining must therefore be analysed on three counts the first focuses on the development of the coordination mechanisms that structure these negotiations and more specifically raises the issue of co responsibility for the labour market the second deals with the strict content of employment bargaining and examines the question of negotiated flexibility of working conditions and employment the third addresses the autonomy of collective bargaining in Europe This analysis informs our research which is in turn intimately linked to recent changes taking place in national systems of industrial relations Main Economic Indicators - Sources and Methods Labour and Wage Statistics OECD,2005-02-04 This publication provides a detailed description of the sources and methods used by OECD countries to compile labour and wage indicators published in the monthly Main Economic Indicators publication Guía para el análisis del mercado laboral de la salud World Health Organization,2023-11-27 El objetivo de esta guía para el análisis del mercado laboral del sector de la salud AMLSS es facilitar la aplicación de enfoques normalizados de análisis del mercado laboral del sector de la salud con el fin de ayudar a los países a responder a preguntas clave sobre políticas relacionadas con los recursos humanos para la salud Esta guía es un recurso de formación dirigido principalmente a analistas responsables de la planificación, investigadores y formadores La guía para el AMLSS consta de 12 módulos divididos en cuatro partes principales i fundamentos conceptuales y prácticos de un análisis del mercado laboral del sector de la salud ii análisis de elementos fundamentales del mercado laboral del sector sanitario iii análisis de cuestiones generales del mercado laboral del sector de la salud y iv del análisis del mercado laboral del sector de la salud a las políticas La guía para el AMLSS ayudará a los usuarios a i conocer, definir e interpretar los conceptos, las teorías, los principios y las herramientas fundamentales que se necesitan para realizar un AMLSS ii llevar a cabo los procedimientos necesarios para elaborar un AMLSS a nivel nacional iii aplica un enfoque normalizado y siguiendo una serie de pasos clave iv identificar y explicar las causas de fondo de los desajustes del mercado laboral del sector de la salud v determinar medidas políticas que permiten evitar estas deficiencias o mitigar sus efectos y vi evaluar bajo qué condiciones se podrán aplicar las recomendaciones en materia de políticas y analizar si es posible lograrlas
