Encyclopedia Of World Literature In The 20th Century 001:

Encyclopedia of World Literature in the 20th Century, 1967 Encyclopedia of World Literature in the 20th Century, 1967 The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan, 2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women's Studies and Comparative Studies departments This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb the major geographical regions of Africa The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes Soyinka Mahfouz and Gordimer and the visibility of African writers increased They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on 300 writers from 39 countries These writers were selected on the basis on two criteria that there is material on them in an easily available reference work and that there is some information of research value on free Web sites Each writer is from the late 19th or 20th century with the notable exception of Olaudah Equiano an 18th century African whose slave narrative is generally considered the first work of African literature All entries are annotated Existential Dimensions in the Novels of Anita Desai Anita Singh, 2007 Anita Desai b 1937 Indo English novelist Blood on the Stage, 1925-1950 Amnon Kabatchnik, 2010 In this volume Amnon Kabatchnik provides an overview of more than 150 important and memorable theatrical works of crime and detection between 1925 and 1950 Each entry includes a plot synopsis production data and the opinions of well known and respected critics and scholars African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's which is quite different from South Africa's which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 Hungarian Studies, 1988 In the Canon's Mouth Lillian S. Robinson, 1997-11-22 a refreshing thoughtful critical map of this otherwise difficult battleground Yale Review of Books The essays provide a powerful response to current conservative attacks on women's studies, feminist scholarship and academic inquiry that foregrounds race, gender and class. The Minnesota Review In the Canon's Mouth brings together two decades of writing by Lillian Robinson, one of the pioneers of the culture wars. Curriculum reform, changing the canon, multiculturalism, feminism and political correctness: these issues have multiple labels bestowed on different sides of a debate that began in the academy but that has become a matter of civic interest. Most of the well-known books on these issues, including bestsellers by Alan Bloom and Dinesh D'Souza, come from the far right. They claim that feminists and cultural critics such as Lillian Robinson have taken over our universities. Robinson counters that the right is so frightened at losing its stranglehold on the culture that it misrepresents a foothold as hegemony.

Singapore Malay/Muslim Community, 1819-2015 Hussin Mutalib, Rokiah Mentol, Sundusia Rosdi, 2016-06-29 Singapore's Malay Muslim community, constituting about 15 per cent of the total population and constitutionally enshrined as the indigenous people of Singapore, have had its fair share of progress and problems in the history of this country. While different aspects of the vicissitudes of life of the community have been written over the years, there has not been a singularly substantive published compendium specifically about the community in the form of a Bibliography available. This academic initiative fills this obvious literature gap. The scope and coverage of this Bibliography is manifestly comprehensive, encompassing the different sources of information, print or non print, about the many facets of life of the Republic's Malays/Muslims, such as education, economy, politics, culture, history, health, language, religion, arts and more. The result is a Bibliography that is arguably the most expansive, if not exhaustive, treasury collection about the community ever available anywhere. Scholars and researchers in particular, and the public in general, should find this Bibliography a highly valuable, indispensable source of information about the rich and varied life of Singapore's Malay Muslim community, stretching a period of two centuries from the time of Stamford Raffles in 1819 until today. The Editors, Hussin Mutalib, Ph.D., a senior academic with the National University of Singapore, Rokiah Mentol and Sundusia Rosdi, former senior librarians with Singapore's National Library Board, are assisted by professional and experienced librarians.

How to Write Anything John J. Ruszkiewicz, Jay T. Dolmage, 2010-07-08 Click here to find out about the 2009 MLA Updates and the 2010 APA Updates. Designed to be clear and simple, How to Write Anything reimagines how texts work with support for students wherever they are in their writing process. The Guide in Parts 1 and 2 lays out focused advice for writing common genres, while the Reference in Parts 3 through 9 covers the range of writing and research skills that students need as they work across genres and disciplines. Intuitive cross-referencing and a modular chapter organization that's simple to follow make it easy for students to work back and forth between the chapters and still stay focused on their own writing. Now also available in a version with 50 fresh additional readings from a wide range of sources, organized by the genres covered in the guide. The result is everything you need to teach composition in a flexible, highly visual guide, reference and reader.

Books for College Libraries: Language and literature, 1988 The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma'arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void

The A to Z of Belarus Vitali Silitski Jr., Jan Zaprudnik, 2010-04-07 The political map of Eastern Europe changed dramatically in December 1991 when the leaders of Belarus Russia and Ukraine huddled together in a Bielavieza Forest retreat and decided to dissolve the 15 union republics which composed the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR One of those republics was the Belorussian Soviet Socialist Republic BSSR A United Nations member since 1945 Belarus has a rich cultural heritage that is seen as a promising base for the development of a solid national identity and for real independence It is this cultural heritage and sense of history that nourish the ongoing efforts of the nationalist minority as well as the larger democratic opposition to resist the regime of President Alaksandr Luka enka who is bent on restoring ties to Russia Thus Belarus with its burdens of the past and potential for the future finds itself in a struggle that will affect not only its own destiny but also the international structure of Eastern Europe The A to Z of Belarus through its chronology introductory essays appendixes map bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places events and institutions and significant political economic social and cultural aspects traces Belarus history and provides a compass for the direction the country is heading

Poison Raphael Israeli,2002-01-01 This is the story of an amazing manifestation of a modern blood libel against the Jews and Israel involving not only Arabs and Muslims but also the European media and world organizations Based on rich documentation from all angles Israeli Palestinian Arab European American and International Raphael Israeli aims to draw our attention toward another piece in the multi faceted puzzle of the Arab Israeli dispute and of international antisemitism By bringing this Middle Eastern version of the perennial theme of blood libel before their readers the author hopes to instruct people of good will of the dangers inherent in protracted conflicts such as the one opposing Israelis and Arabs which can provoke war misery destruction and violence but also recriminations born out of hallucinations and ill will This is a multi disciplinary book which should interest not only students of antisemitism Judaism and Israel but also psychologists journalists political scientists and scholars of communications the Middle East international relations and the Israeli Arab dispute
