VOLUME I A-L

GENERAL EDITOR
DAVID HORTON

AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE OF ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER STUDIES

This work contains the life stories and photographs of many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander men and women who have made great contributions to their people and their country. The story of Aboriginal Australia could not be told without recognising their achievements. Readers of this work should be aware that in some Aboriginal communities, seeing the names and photographs of dead people may cause sadness and distress, particularly to relatives of those people. Before using this work in such communities, readers should establish what the wishes of senior community members are and take their advice on procedures and safeguards to be adopted.

Australian Sociology David Holmes, Kate Hughes, Roberta Julian, 2014-09-01 Australian Sociology 4e provides a concise and current introduction to the field of Sociology through an analysis of Australian society. In doing so it draws on a diverse range of perspectives as well as a myriad of topics that go to the core of Australian social life. Our ever-changing society presents continuing challenges to sociological analysis. This new edition of Australian Sociology sets out to document these many changes while retaining an organised analysis required of an introductory overview of Australian society.

The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous Sociology Maggie Walter, Tahu Kukutai, Angela Gonzales, Robert Henry, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous Sociology challenges the traditional way that Indigenous Peoples and Societies are understood within the discipline. It does so by bringing together 40 leading and emerging Indigenous scholars from across the CANZUS Countries to provide for the first time an authoritative state of the art survey of Indigenous sociological thinking. These authors demonstrate that the Indigenous sociological voice is a new sociological paradigm and demonstrates a distinctively Indigenous methodological approach.

Indigenous Knowledge Systems and Yurlendj-nganjin David Jones, Darryl Low Choy, 2021-06-29 In a global context understanding and engaging with Indigenous Peoples and understanding their contemporary values is becoming increasingly relevant. This book offers a major insight into Australian Indigenous Peoples' perspectives on the built environment. Enriched with thoughtful Indigenous voices from across Australia, echoed with several pre-eminent non-Indigenous practitioner voices, the book discusses the value of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Australian built environment and landscapes. It provides their perspective of wanting to share, of wanting to be heard and of wishing to journey into our future landscapes and environments sympathetically and sustainably, of wanting to mutually share this journey respectfully to the betterment of humanity and these landscapes. A major resource for all academics, students and practitioners in the built environment sector internationally and not just in Australia, the book embodies issues confronting Indigenous Peoples and their communities and their concerns about the future of their custodial landscapes. The book's national significance has already been identified by the Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA) through its inclusion in their Connection to Country Case Studies.
