Pioneers of Genocide Studies (Clt) Samuel Totten, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2002 New areas of research are not the result of a snap of the finger They are carved out of the marrow of human existence The study of genocide well illustrates this raw fact From the early efforts that emerged in the struggle against Nazism and over the past half century the field has now reached a point where there at least five genocide centers across the globe and well over one hundred Holocaust centers This work emerged out of an earlier effort at an oral history project one that would enable a new generation of scholars researchers and policy makers to assess the major foci of the field efforts to develop ways and means to intervene and prevent future genocides and review the successes and failures of the field The editors of Pioneers of Genocide Studies emphasize that contributors should approach the questions of greatest relevance in a personal way crafting a statement that reveals ones individual voice persuasions literary style scholarly perspectives and relevant details of ones life The book succeeds admirably in the above aims and in so doing epitomizes scholarly autobiographical writing at its best The book also includes the most important works by each author on the issue of genocide As a result the collective portrait enhances the usefulness of the volume for those new to the field Among the contributors are experts in the Armenian Bosnian Cambodian genocides as well as the Holocaust against the Jewish people The contributors are Rouben Adalian M Cherif Bassiouni Israel W Charney Vahakn Dadrian Helen Fein Barbara Harff David Hawk Herbert Hirsch Irving Louis Horowitz Richard Hovannisian Henry Huttenbach Leo Kuper Raphael Lemkin James E Mace Eric Markusen Robert Melson R J Rummel Roger W Smith Gregory H Stanton Ervin Staub Colin Tatz Yves Ternan and the co editors The work has been five years in the making and represents a high watermark in the reflections and self reflections on the comparative study of genocide Samuel Totten is professor of curriculum and instruction in the College of Education and Health Professions at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville He is the editor of First Person Accounts of Genocidal Acts and Century of Genocide Eyewitness Accounts and Critical Views and book review editor for the Journal of Genocide Research Steven Leonard Jacobs is associate professor and Aaron Aronov Chair of Judaic Studies in the department of religious studies at the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa He is the author of Shirot Bialik A New and Annotated Translation of Chaim Nachman Bialiks Epic Poems Raphael Lemkins Thoughts on Nazi Genocide Not Guilty and Contemporary Christian and Contemporary Jewish Religious Responses to the Shoah Genocide and Millennialism in Upper Peru Nicholas Robins, 2002-05-30 Exploring one of the least studied genocides in post conquest South America Robins calls into question many of the central assumptions currently held by genocide scholars Victims of genocide usually lack the organization and weaponry to battle their enemies During the 1780 1782 Great Rebellion in Peru and Upper Peru now Bolivia however the Indian revolutionaries faced the better organized and armed loyalist army Whereas genocidal policies are usually characterized by centralized leadership the Great Rebellion was highly fragmented and confederal in nature undercutting the widely held assumption that only the State is capable of committing genocide The Rebellion is one of the rare cases when the victims of genocide emerged victorious Focusing on the events occurring in the region south of La Paz Robins examines how a native millennial movement evolved into an Indian led attempt at genocide dealing an unprecedented challenge to Spanish rule in the Americas In the eyes of the rebels this revolt fulfilled prophecies of an inevitable divinely assisted and long awaited return of native rule Just like at the dawn of the colonial period this new era was to be born of pachacuti or cataclysm But this time the Spanish interlopers and their culture would be targeted for destruction Hidden Genocides Alexander Laban Hinton, Thomas La Pointe, Douglas Irvin-Erickson, 2013-12-18 Why are some genocides prominently remembered while others are ignored hidden or denied Consider the Turkish campaign denying the Armenian genocide followed by the Armenian movement to recognize the violence Similar movements are building to acknowledge other genocides that have long remained out of sight in the media such as those against the Circassians Greeks Assyrians the indigenous peoples in the Americas and Australia and the violence that was the precursor to and the aftermath of the Holocaust The contributors to this collection look at these cases and others from a variety of perspectives These essays cover the extent to which our biases our ways of knowing our patterns of definition our assumptions about truth and our processes of remembering and forgetting as well as the characteristics of generational transmission the structures of power and state ideology and diaspora have played a role in hiding some events and not others Noteworthy among the collection's coverage is whether the trade in African slaves was a form of genocide and a discussion not only of Hutu brutalizing Tutsi victims in Rwanda but of the execution of moderate Hutus as well Hidden Genocides is a significant contribution in terms of both descriptive narratives and interpretations to the emerging subfield of critical genocide studies Contributors Daniel Feierstein Donna Lee Frieze Krista Hegburg Alexander Laban Hinton Adam Jones A Dirk Moses Chris M Nunpa Walter Richmond Hannibal Travis and Elisa von Joeden Forgy Judaica Reference Sources Charles Cutter, 2004-02-28 A recipient of the Outstanding Reference Award from the Association of Jewish Librarians in its earlier edition this updated edition of Judaica Reference Sources maintains its editorial excellence while revising and expanding coverage for the new century Virtually every aspect of Jewish life knowledge history culture religion and contemporary issues is covered in this annotated bibliographic guide A critical collection development tool for college university public school and synagogue libraries Judaica Reference Sources provides entries for over 1 000 reference works as well as a selective list of related Web sites in English French German Yiddish and Hebrew Works published since 1970 are emphasized Unique in providing expert guidance to Judaica material for the librarian the layperson the student and the researcher this reference guide is a versatile tool that will fulfill your every need for Judaica material Essentials of Holocaust Education Samuel Totten, Stephen Feinberg, 2016-03-17 Essentials of Holocaust Education Fundamental Issues and Approaches is a comprehensive guide for pre and in service educators preparing to teach about this watershed event in human history An original collection of essays by Holocaust scholars teacher educators and classroom teachers it covers a full range of issues relating to Holocaust education with the goal of helping teachers to help students gain a deep and thorough understanding of why and how the Holocaust was perpetrated Both conceptual and pragmatic it delineates key
