Indian Short Story: A Critical Evaluation Dipak Giri, 2024-10-03 As a literary genre Indian short story next to poetry is the most popular and accepted form of literature for its variety and nuance of Indian experience Evolving over time it has gained wide currency among people Even after its recourse to traditional rules of the craft Indian short story amazingly presents itself an original and distinctive form of art Developed out of contemporary native literature and western storytelling technique Indian short story presents an amalgamation of two different literary traditions which has become unique and distinctive in course of time and long been

Christian Atheism Slavoj Žižek, 2024-04-04 If we want to be true atheists do we have to begin with a religious edifice and undermine it from within Slavoj Žižek has long been a commentator on and critic of Christian theology His preoccupation with Badiou's concept of the event alongside the Pauline thought of the New Testament has led to a decidedly theological turn in his thinking Drawing on traditions and subjects as broad as Buddhist thought dialectical materialism political subjectivity quantum physics AI and chatbots this book articulates Žižek's idea of a religious life for the first time Christian Atheism is a unique insight into Žižek's theological project and the first book length exploration of his religious thinking In his own words to become a true dialectical materialist one should go through the Christian experience Crucial to his whole conception of experience is not some kind of spiritual revelation but rather the logic of materialistic thought This affirmation of Christian theology whilst simultaneously deconstructing it is a familiar i ekian move but one that holds deep seated political philosophical and in the end personal import for him Here is i ek s most extensive treatment of theology and religion to date
