Ian Whitmarsh,David S. Jones,2010-04-16 How race as a category reinforced by new discoveries in genetics is used as a basis for practice and policy in law science and medicine The post civil rights era perspective of many scientists and scholars was that race was nothing more than a social construction Recently however the relevance of race as a social legal and medical category has been reinvigorated by science especially by discoveries in genetics Although in 2000 the Human Genome Project reported that humans shared 99.9 percent of their genetic code scientists soon began to argue that the degree of variation was actually greater than this and that this variation maps naturally onto conventional categories of race In the context of this rejuvenated biology of race the contributors to What's the Use of Race? investigate whether race can be a category of analysis without reinforcing it as a basis for discrimination Can policies that aim to alleviate inequality inadvertently increase it by reifying race differences The essays focus on contemporary questions at the cutting edge of genetics and governance examining them from the perspectives of law science and medicine The book follows the use of race in three domains of governance ruling knowing and caring Contributors first examine the use of race and genetics in the courtroom law enforcement and scientific oversight then explore the ways that race becomes implicitly or explicitly part of the genomic science that attempts to address human diversity and finally investigate how race is used to understand and act on inequities in health and disease Answering these questions is essential for setting policies for biology and citizenship in the twenty first century

Cómo sanar las heridas del rechazo (Healing the Wounds of Rejection) Joyce Meyer, 2025-09-09 An intimate vulnerable and compassionate conversation about the pain of rejection filled with practical biblical guidance to heal and move on with personal stories from beloved Bible teacher Joyce Meyer Ginger Stache and dozens of other women who have risen from the ashes of loss In this era of epidemic loneliness widely beloved Bible teacher Joyce Meyer and her partner in ministry Ginger Stache offer a vulnerable intimate and compassionate conversation about the shame and the pain of rejection and the pathway to healing We live in a time of overwhelming loneliness and disconnection At least one in four Americans today are living in estrangement from a family member and over 50% of us experience periods of disconnection from close relatives No matter who we are the sting of rejection touches us As a child you may have experienced bullying or even a parent or sibling who failed to acknowledge your value and love you as you needed to be loved As we grow older the rejections we experience pile upon one another a boss who offers constant criticism a spouse who walks away and leaves us devastated a friend who ditches us when life gets tough Rejection is a common denominator of the human experience and many of us develop into people who view the world through the lens of rejection as our pain causes us to burrow further into isolation disappointment and sadness Here through Joyce's personal story of abuse and abandonment and Ginger's journey of shock and betrayal in marriage you will find community in the fact that you are not alone as well as hope for the dawning of new possibilities In this book Joyce Meyer and Ginger Stache are determined to banish the stigma of rejection by leading readers to the healing balm of God's unconditional love Through facing our pain head on learning to embrace the truth of our absolute acceptance in Christ and understanding how others may react to us and to the world out of their own lens of rejection we can grow in confidence develop healthy relationships and find lasting acceptance This book also contains study questions with each chapter perfect for group study or individual reflection
