From Aldersgate to Azusa Street Henry H. Knight, 2010-08-11 Historians have noted the connections between the Wesleyan Methodist movement that began in the eighteenth century the emergence of African American Methodist traditions and an interdenominational Holiness movement in the nineteenth century and the birth of Pentecostalism in the twentieth century This volume written by historians theologians and pastors builds on that earlier work The contributors present a diverse array of key figures denominational leaders and mavericks institutional loyalists and come outers clergy and laity who embodied these movements The authors show that in spite of their differing historical and cultural contexts these movements constitute a distinct theological family whose confident and expectant faith in the transforming power of God has significant implications for the renewal of the contemporary church and its faithfulness to God's mission in the world today Contributors Corky Alexander Estrela Alexander Kimberly Ervin Alexander Leslie D Callahan Barry L Callen Douglas R Cullum Dennis C Dickerson D William Faupel Philip Hamner David Aaron Johnson J C Kelley Henry H Knight III William C Kostlevy Diane K Leclerc Joshua J McMullen Rodney McNeall Stephen W Rankin Harold E Raser Douglas M Strong Matthew K Thompson Wallace Thornton Jr L F Thuston Arlene Sanchez Walsh Steven J Land Laura Guy John H Wigger American

Evangelicalism Darren Dochuk, Thomas S. Kidd, Kurt W. Peterson, 2014-10-15 No living scholar has shaped the study of American religious history more profoundly than George M Marsden His work spans U S intellectual cultural and religious history from the seventeenth through the twenty first centuries This collection of essays uses the career of George M Marsden and the remarkable breadth of his scholarship to measure current trends in the historical study of American evangelical Protestantism and to encourage fresh scholarly investigation of this faith tradition as it has developed between the eighteenth century and the present Moving through five sections each centered around one of Marsden's major books and the time period it represents the volume explores different methodologies and approaches to the history of evangelicalism and American religion Besides assessing Marsden's illustrious works on their own terms this collection's contributors isolate several key themes as deserving of fresh rigorous and extensive examination Through their close investigation of these particular themes they expand the range of characters and communities issues and ideas and contingencies that can and should be accounted for in our historical texts Marsden's timeless scholarship thus serves as a launchpad for new directions in our rendering of the American religious past St. Andrew's Cross Hubert Carleton, 1908

The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Philip Alexander Bruce, William Glover Stanard, 1915 The Oxford Handbook of Methodist Studies William J. Abraham, James E. Kirby, 2009-09-25 With the decision to provide of a scholarly edition of the Works of John Wesley in the 1950s Methodist Studies emerged as a fresh academic venture Building on the foundation laid by Frank Baker Albert Outler and other pioneers of the discipline this handbook provides an overview of the best current scholarship in the field The forty two included essays are representative of the voices of a new generation of international scholars summarising and expanding on topical research and considering where their work may lead Methodist Studies in the future Thematically ordered the handbook provides new insights into the founders history structures and theology of Methodism and into ongoing developments in the practice and experience of the contemporary movement Key themes explored include worship forms mission ecumenism and engagement with contemporary ethical and political debate History of Lewis Township, Clay County, Indiana ,1916 Perfecting Perfection Robert Webster,2016-07-28 Henry D Rack is one of the most profound historians of the Methodist movement in modern times He has spent a lifetime researching and writing about the rise and significance of John Wesley and his Methodist followers in the eighteenth century and has also uncovered the historical significance of the Methodist Church in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Collected in Perfecting Perfection are thirteen essays honouring the life and scholarship of Dr Rack from a host of international scholars in the field The topics range from Wesley s view of grace in the eighteenth century to the dynamic intersection of the Methodist and Tractarian movements in the nineteenth century Ultimately the collection of essays offered here in honour of Dr Rack will be engaging and provocative to those considering Methodist Studies in the present and future generations The Center of a Great Empire Andrew Robert Lee Cayton,Stuart Dale Hobbs,2005 A forested borderland dominated by American Indians in 1780 Ohio was a landscape of farms and towns inhabited by people from all over the world in 1830 The Center of a Great Empire The Ohio Country in the Early Republic chronicles this dramatic and all encompassing change Editors Andrew R L Cayton and Stuart D Hobbs have assembled a focused collection of articles by established and rising scholars that address the conquest of Native Americans the emergence of a democratic political culture the origins of capitalism the formation of public culture the growth of evangelical Protestantism the ambiguous status of African Americans and social life in a place that most contemporaries saw as on the cutting edge of human history Indeed to understand what was happening in the Ohio country in the decades after the American Revolution is to go a long way toward understanding what was happening in the United States and the Atlantic world as a whole For The Center of a Great Empire distinguished historians of the American nation in its first decades question conventional wisdom Downplaying the frontier character of Ohio they offer new answers and open new paths of inquiry through investigations of race education politics religion family commerce colonialism and conquest As it underscores key themes in the history of the United States The Center of a Great Empire pursues issues that have fascinated people for two centuries Andrew R L Cayton distinguished professor of history at Miami University in Oxford Ohio is the author of several books including Ohio The History of a People and with Fred Anderson The Dominion of War Liberty and Empire in North America 1500 2000 Stuart D Hobbs is program director for History in the Heartland a professional development program for middle and high school teachers of history Hobbs is the author of The End of the American Avant Garde The Christian Advocate ,1916 Williams' Cincinnati (Hamilton County, Ohio) City Directory ,1874 The Family Record ,1897 Annals of

Tazewell County, Virginia from 1800 to 1922 John Newton Harman, 1922 Excerpt from Annals of Tazewell County Virginia From 1800 to 1922 Vol 1 of 2 Part 1 Containing Records of Courts Etc From 1800 to 1852 Part 2 Containing a Republication of Bickley's History of the Settlement and Indian Wars of Tazewell County Published 1852 During several years we have been gathering information for the purpose of publishing a Genealogy of the Harman family of Southwest Virginia and of related families In pursuance of this purpose we made inspection of records of the Land Office and the Public Library at Richmond of the County Court Records of Frederick Shenandoah Rockingham Augusta Montgomery Wythe Smythe Washington Giles Russell and Tazewell Counties Later it occurred to us that a similar genealogy of other pioneer families of Tazewell County would be as interesting to their descendants as that of the Harmans and related families is to us This led us to undertake the publication of the annals of Tazewell County from 1800 to 1922 We now present to the reader Volume One of the annals of Tazewell County from 1800 to 1852 which contains extracts from the court records during that period of general public interest and which are of special interest to the descendants of the pioneer families of the county John Wesley's Preachers John Lenton, 2009-07-01 This book is about those preachers whom John Wesley called his Sons in the Gospel their lives their importance in the Methodist movement and their wider significance It is about those who entered in Wesley's lifetime they had begun their work by 1791 Because of their unity and dedication they had more effect than either of the Wesley brothers in the creation of the worldwide Methodist Church This study analyses their lives and achievements It provides new statistical information and brings to life the calling travels and everyday experience of individual preachers

History of Frederick County, Maryland Thomas John Chew Williams, Folger McKinsey, 1910 Virginia; Overwharton Parish Register, 1720 to 1760 William Fletcher Boogher, 1899 Missouri Marriages Before 1840, 1982 This amazing compilation contains the records of 16 000 marriages from fifty one Missouri counties formed before 1840 The majority of the marriage records in this work were copied from the original marriage books on file in various county courthouses Others were copied from previously published compilations some were copied from both sources All Missouri counties with marriage records prior to 1840 are covered except St Louis County and City which have been adequately covered elsewhere The marriages listed here are arranged in alphabetical sequence by the surname of the groom A bride's index at the back of the book contains the names of all 16 000 women mentioned in the marriage records History of Western Maryland J. Thomas Scharf, 2020-09-08 The preparation of History of Western Maryland one of the most voluminous works on the history of that part of the United States imposed a vast responsibility and an immense amount of labor In the compilation of this history no authority of importance has been overlooked The author has carefully examined every source of information open to him and has availed himself of every fact that could throw new light upon or impart additional interest to the subject under consideration Besides consulting the most reliable records and authorities over fifteen thousand communications were addressed to persons supposed to be in possession of facts or information calculated to add value to the work Recourse has not only been had to the valuable libraries of Baltimore Annapolis Frederick and Hagerstown but the author and his agents have visited personally the entire territory embraced in the six counties of Western Maryland spending much time in each district examining ancient newspapers musty manuscripts family church and society records conversing with the aged inhabitants and collecting from them orally many interesting facts never before published and which otherwise in all probability would soon have been lost altogether In addition to the material partly used in the preparation of his Chronicles and History of Baltimore City and County and History of Maryland the author has consulted an immense number of pamphlets consisting of county and town documents reports of societies associations corporations and historical discourses and in short everything of a fugitive character that might in any way illustrate the history of Western Maryland Sketches of the rise progress and present condition of the various religious denominations professions political parties and charitable and benevolent institutions societies and orders form a conspicuous feature of the work Manufacturing commercial and agricultural interests have also a prominent place An account of the county school system is also given and a history of the various institutions of learning of which Western Maryland has every reason to be proud Many of the facts recorded both statistical and historical may seem trivial or tediously minute to the general reader and yet such facts have a local interest and sometimes a real importance Considerable space has also been given to biographies of leading and representative men living and dead who have borne an active part in the various enterprises of life and who have become closely identified with the history of Frederick Washington Montgomery Allegany Carroll and Garrett Counties The achievements of the living must not be forgotten nor must the memories of those who have passed away be allowed to perish It is the imperative duty of the historian to chronicle their public and private efforts to advance the great interests of society Their deeds are to be recorded for the benefit of those who follow them they in fact form part of the history of their communities and their successful lives add to the glory of the Commonwealth A distinguishing feature of the work is its statistics of the various districts into which the six counties of Western Maryland are divided In them the reader is brought into close relation with every part of Western Maryland This is volume five out of six covering Washington County contd and Hagerstown

Lineage Book of the Charter Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution Daughters of the American Revolution, 1932

Henry Foxall's Journals, 1816-1817 Jane Donovan, 2022-08-09 This book introduces four journals that Henry Foxall 1758 1823 kept during a trip to the British Isles in 1816 1817 It provides unique primary source material extensively annotated for clarity and context Foxall s journals offer an eyewitness account of Methodist embourgeoisement and institutionalization as they were occurring They also provide some insight into the developing differences between American and British Methodism The journals contain information on recent technological innovations of the British Industrial Revolution and recount Foxall s interactions with a number of prominent persons both in British Methodism and outside it Because of Foxall s close relationship with Francis Asbury his status as an insider at the highest levels of American Methodism and his clear understanding of the British Methodism in which he was raised converted and first licensed as a local preacher his perspective is well informed and unique      Linage Book of the Charter Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution (revised) Daughters of the American Revolution, 1932 Includes inclusive Errata for the Linage book
