Emblematics in Hungary Éva Knapp, Gábor Tüskés, 2012-10-25 The main aim of the work is to present emblematics in Hungary in its European context and to show the reciprocal influence between that phenomenon and mainstream literature The description of the theoretical and historical development in Hungary is supplemented by a series of case studies examining the effect of emblematics upon various literary genres The final chapter analyzes the link between literary emblematics and the visual arts by looking at a specific example As in most European countries emblematics in Hungary is part of a complex labyrinth of literary modes of thought and expression A relative poverty of theoretical writing went hand in hand with a considerable range of emblematic practice The emblem proved to be a transitional form between the period when signs and motifs were regarded as having specific and fixed meanings and the modern period when we have developed a different and shifting concept of language and meaning At the same time as emblems began to penetrate the more popular levels of national culture and literature they also became more specialized Hungarian emblematics used for the most part existing pictorial and textual combinations of pictures and texts They employed the emblem notably in genres and texts of the genus demonstrativum which referred to matters which were topical at the time

Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature Poul Houe, Sven Hakon Rossel, 1997 Documentary literature became an international phenomenon on the cultural and political scene in the 1960s and 1970s From the American New Journalism in works by such writers as Norman Mailer and Tom Wolfe to the German Industriereportagen by Günther Wallraff and others documentarism presented a variety of controversial interplays between facts and fiction labeled as fact-fiction fables of fact or the like Scandinavian literature made important and unique contributions to this international movement and Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is the first comprehensive volume ever published on the historical significance and future implications of these Nordic dimensions of documentarism and their international context The volume is centered on Swedish documentary literature in the 1960s and 1970s and on such major writers as Per Olov Enquist Sven Lindqvist Sara Lidman and Per Olov Sundman but the powerful voices of Danish writer Thorkild Hansen and Norwegian novelist Dag Solstad are also heard in its critical concert The diversity of Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is further enhanced by surveys and analyses of the historical background for more recent works and activities and by theoretical inquiries into the epistemological status of documentarism its theoretical narrative and theatrical devices its predominant genres and links to other modes of mass communication and its political affiliations and implications For readers already familiar with its subject matter Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature offers an opportunity to revisit and recontextualize a crucial moment in their recent cultural past For readers who have yet to be exposed to documentary works of fiction the volume presents a timely theoretical historical and critical introduction to the key problematics and potentials of their novel field of interest Whether viewed as part of the past or part of the present documentarism remains an intellectual challenge which this volume is aimed at addressing Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is edited by two Scandinavian scholars living abroad and its essays are written by senior and junior scholars and critics from Scandinavia Europe and America an interview with Per Olov Enquist and an autobiographical piece by Sven Lindqvist complete the volume German Romanticism and Science Jocelyn Holland,2009-04-30 Situated at the intersection of literature and science Holland's study draws upon a diverse corpus of literary and scientific texts which testify to a cultural fascination with procreation around 1800 Through readings which range from Goethe's writing on metamorphosis to Novalis's aphorisms and novels and Ritter's Fragments from the Estate of a Young Physicist Holland proposes that each author contributes to a scientifically informed poetics of procreation Rather than subscribing to a single biological theory such as epigenesis or preformation these authors take their inspiration from a wide inventory of procreative motifs and imagery polytektonDesign 1990-1997 Mikesch W.
