The Rogers Family History Robert Page, 2012-11-22 This is the family tree of the Rogers family of Northam Southampton showing over thirty generations but remembering that at 30 generations there is 1 000 000 000 grandparents making it look like everyone in the UK is interrelated in some small way Register of Kentucky State Historical Society Kentucky Historical Society, 1921 The Boone Family Hazel Atterbury Spraker, 1974 George Boone IV 1690 1753 a Quaker emigrated from England to Abington Philadelphia County Pennsylvania married Deborah Howell in 1713 and moved to Berks County Pennsylvania Descendants lived in Pennsylvania Ohio Kentucky Tennessee Texas New Mexico Colorado California and elsewhere Boy 11963 John Cameron, 2021-04-08 Truth telling and truth recovery have seldom been as heart breaking or necessary as in this powerful story of human vulnerability and failure and the ultimate triumph of the human spirit JOE DUFFY At only five months old John Cameron was abandoned in a Dublin orphanage and fostered out as a child labourer by age three In 1944 when he turned eight he was incarcerated in Artane Industrial School where he became boy 11963 Now in his mid eighties John Cameron tells his shocking but inspirational story for the first time As a child reduced to a number he survived savage assaults sexual abuse and the tragic deaths of children around him Along with other forgotten boys he battled for his life against the heartless adversity of the church and the Irish state As a young man a much loved schoolteacher devoted to his growing family John was haunted by his unknown past and embarked on a lifelong quest to unravel the truth about his origins Buried in a labyrinth of lies he finally uncovered a story of forbidden love and passion that scandalised rural Ireland and made national headlines in the 1930s Boy 11963 is a unique account of overcoming almost insurmountable obstacles to find out who you truly are Journal of the Executive Proceedings of the Senate of the United States of America United States. Congress. Senate, 1966 Journal of the Executive Proceedings of the Senate of the United States United States. Congress Senate, 1952 Land Causes, Accomack County, Virginia, 1727-1826 Stratton Nottingham, 1999 The land causes or chancery suits for dower division of lands and ejectment proceedings for the period 1727 1826 give in full the declaration of the plaintiff the answer of the defendants the verdict of the jury and depositions which in many cases give the dates of birth marriage and death of the parties concerned in the suit Land is traced from the original patent to about 1825 showing the various owners and their descendants through several generations The records include those of the district court as well as the county court and name about 4 000 individuals The abstracts in most cases are the special verdicts of the juries which sum up and give in concrete form the declarations and answers to the various suits Other than wills and administrations these land records are among the very few surviving Accomack County records that document family origins and descents From publisher description Miscellanea Genealogica Et Heraldica, 1890 The Cambridge History of Early Modern English Literature David Loewenstein, Janel M. Mueller, 2002 This 2003 book is a full scale history of early modern English literature offering perspectives on English literature produced in Britain between the Reformation and the Restoration While providing the general coverage and specific information expected of a major history its twenty six chapters address recent methodological and interpretive developments in English literary studies The book has five sections Modes and Means of Literary Production Circulation and Reception The Tudor Era from the Reformation to Elizabeth I The Era of Elizabeth and James VI The Earlier Stuart Era and The Civil War and Commonwealth Era While England is the principal focus literary production in Scotland Ireland and Wales is treated as are other subjects less frequently examined in previous histories including women s writings and the literature of the English Reformation and Revolution This history is an essential resource for specialists and students King George Roy

Beagley,2023-03-03 Devotees of E F Benson s books on the people of Tilling will not be disappointed in this sequel From cricket matches Christmas lunches and Roman villas the lives of the residents of Tilling are laid bare once again with all their small village craziness Not only Tilling but also the residents of Risenholme and friends from London all come to Tilling to play a part in pre war village Britain Once again Elizabeth Mapp tries to prove to the world that she is right and Tilling is wrong in their love for Lucia All the past characters are here including Mr and Mrs Wyse Quaint Irene Diva the Padre as well as Janet and Foljambe and there is a new character to invade the peaceful and tranquil lives of the residents whose identity confounds and confuses them Women's Writing in English Patricia Demers,2005-12-15

In this introduction to the diversity and scope of the writing by women in England from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the restoration of the monarchy in 1660 Patricia Demers discusses the creative realities of women writers accomplishments and the cultural conditions under which they wrote There were deep suspicions and restrictions surrounding the education of women during this period and thus the contributions of women to literature and to the print industry itself are largely unknown This wide ranging examination of the genres of early modern women s writing embraces translation from Latin Greek and French in the fields of theological discourse romance and classical tragedy original meditations and prayers letters and diaries poetry closet drama advice manuals and prophecies and polemics A close study of six major authors Mary Sidney Aemilia Lanyer Elizabeth Tanfield Cary Lady Mary Wroth Margaret Cavendish and Katherine Philips explores their work as poets dramatists and romantic fiction writers Demers invites readers to savour the subtlety and daring with which these women authors made writing an expressly social craft Flesh and Spirit Rachel Adcock,Sara Read,Anna Ziomek,2016-05-16

This anthology makes accessible to readers ten little known and under studied works by seventeenth century women edited from manuscript and print that explore the relationship between spiritual and physical health in the period Providing a detailed and engaging introduction to the issues confronted when studying women s writing from this era the anthology also examines female interpretations of illness exploring beliefs that toothache and miscarriage could be God s punishments but also paradoxically that such terrible suffering could be understood as proof that a believer was eternally beloved The extracts in the anthology explore how illness was an important part of women s religious conversion often confirming religious belief but also how women could advise others about their physical and spiritual health in manuscript and print The anthology includes a thorough introduction to the period s medical and religious beliefs as well as an introduction to contemporary ideas about women s physical and spiritual make up Each of the ten extracts also has its own preface highlighting relevant contexts and further reading and is fully annotated The Oxford History of Poetry in English ,2024-08-08 The Oxford History of Poetry in English OHOPE is designed to offer a fresh multi voiced and comprehensive analysis of poetry from Anglo Saxon culture through contemporary British Irish American and Global culture including English Scottish and Welsh poetry Anglo American colonial and post colonial poetry and poetry in Canada Australia New Zealand the Caribbean India Africa Asia and other international locales OHOPE both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge research employing a global team of expert contributors for each of the fourteen volumes By taking as its purview the full seventeenth century 1603 1700 this volume re draws the existing literary historical map and expands upon recent rethinking of the canon Placing the revolutionary years at the centre of a century of poetic transformation and putting the Restoration back into the seventeenth century the volume registers the transformative effects on poetic forms of a century of social political and religious upheaval It considers the achievements of a number of women poets not yet fully integrated into traditional literary histories It assimilates the vibrant literature of the English Revolution to what came before and after registering its long term impact It traces the development of print culture and of the literary marketplace alongside the continued circulation of poetry in manuscript It places John Milton Andrew Marvell Margaret Cavendish and Katherine Philips and other mid century poets into the full century of specifically literary development It traces continuity and change imitation and innovation in the full century trajectory of such poetic genres as sonnet elegy satire georgic epigram ode devotional lyric and epic The volume s attention to poetic form builds on the current upswing in historicist formalism allowing a close focus on poetry as an intensely aesthetic and social literary mode Designed for maximum classroom utility the organization is both thematic and in the authors section chronological After a comprehensive Introduction organizational sections focus on Transitions Materiality Production and Circulation Poetics and Form Genres and Poets Report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs United States.
