Meyer, 2013-11-30 From the beginning of the twentieth century to World War II farm wife May Lyford Davis kept a daily chronicle that today offers a window into a way of life that has all but disappeared May and her husband Elmo lived through two decades of prosperity the Great Depression and two World Wars in their Midwestern farming community Like many women of her time Davis kept diaries that captured the everyday events of the family farm she also kept meticulous farming accounts In doing so she left an extraordinary record that reflects not only her own experiences but also the history of early twentieth century American agriculture May and Elmo's story engagingly told by Carrie A Meyer showcases the large scale evolution of agriculture from horses to automobiles and tractors a surprisingly vibrant family and community life and the business of commercial farming Details such as what items were bought and sold what was planted and harvested the temperature and rainfall births and deaths and the direction of the wind are gathered to reveal a rich picture of a world shared by many small farmers With sustainable and small scale farming again on the rise in the United States Days on the Family Farm resonates with both the profound and mundane aspects of rural life past and present in the Midwest The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1991 FORT VERENA, May 24, 1915, 04:00 Trilogy of the Great War Francesco Nicolini, 2016-09-02 These memories handwritten by Elmo Cermaria Nonno Peppe for his grandson Checco Francesco Nicolini tell of when as a young man of 20 he found himself hurled into the inferno of the First World War In those days you could cry your heart out for a bread roll denied then miraculously regained thanks to the compassion of a German soldier the hated enemy These recollections are terse without a trace of rhetoric and devoid of recriminations Nonno Peppe tells the facts just as he experienced them first hand without expressing any condemnation of those responsible for them even though an awareness of the large scale massacre he witnessed transpires from his account When Nonno Peppe delivered the manuscript to his grandson on his wedding day he asked him to make a promise Let the President of the Republic know what we did for Italy A hundred years ago whole generations of young Italian men were stripped of human honor and dignity Only a few of these young men would live on and become our grandfathers and only a few of us would be fortunate enough to become grandchildren of the Great War and bear witness to their ordeal Big
