Eloquent Edge The 15 Maine Women Writers:

The Eloquent Edge Kathleen Ellis, Margery Wilson, 1989 Science and Other Poems Alison Hawthorne Deming, 1994-03-01 I greatly admire Alison Deming's lucid and precise language her stunning metaphors her passion her wild and generous spirit her humor her formal cunning I am taken as all readers will be by the knowledge she displays and how she puts this knowledge to a poetic use but I am equally taken I am more taken by the wisdom that lies behind the knowledge I am amazed and delighted by her authority and tenacity She is of this world she lives in it and for better or worse it is the world she settles for and she understands that even if she must rage a little and sometimes more than a little she is one of its citizens Like every original poet she appears to have sprung full blown out of Zeus head I want to say but Aphrodite is here as well as Athena the ocean as well as the mountain I congratulate her on this fine book Gerald Stern Alison Hawthorne Deming brings to her first collection of verse the kinds of scrupulous observation and clear eyed analysis that characterize scientific inquiry as well as a poet's eye for the telling moment Science and Other Poems establishes astonishing parallels between the mute inexorable processes of the physical universe and the dark mysteries of the human heart parallels so clearly wrought and convincing that we wonder why we had not recognized them before Caffe Trieste lays bare the unexamined terror and sorrow that underlie the proliferation of faux fifties kitsch then strips the veil of spacious grace from the decade and reveals it as it was for those who lived it bombs spread like bacteria on culture plates when the cost of a family staying together might be Stelanz and high voltage erasures They're just American all shine and no pain In the chilling Alliance Ohio a mother and daughter suddenly find themselves stranded in a world of predators a poisonous world charged with sexual threat where every smile every gesture drips with sly menace Yet moments of dislocation can also be cause for rejoicing as when a speaker after surprising a bat in the house is moved to rapture by the sight of the night sky Every page of Science and Other Poems is alive with startling juxtapositions eerie parallels abrupt shifts of tone and image after image of crystalline perfection as in this dazzling evocation of soft shelled crabs their finely stippled bodies that give to the touch translucent as Japanese lanterns These poems imbue everything from the microscopic to the stellar with wonder Each instant of illumination like poetry itself brings the world alive with a faithfulness deeper than seeing Regionalism and the Reading Class Wendy Griswold, 2008-09-15 Globalization and the Internet are smothering cultural regionalism that sense of place that flourished in simpler times These two villains are also prime suspects in the death of reading Or so alarming reports about our homogenous and dumbed down culture would have it but as Regionalism and the Reading Class shows neither of these claims stands up under scrutiny quite the contrary Wendy Griswold draws on cases from Italy Norway and the United States to show that fans of books form their own reading class with a distinctive demographic profile separate from the general public This reading class is modest in size but intense in its literary practices Paradoxically these educated and mobile elites work hard to put down local roots by among other strategies exploring regional writing Ultimately due to the technological economic and political advantages they wield cosmopolitan readers are able to celebrate perpetuate and reinvigorate local culture Griswold's study will appeal to students of cultural sociology and the history of the book and her findings will be welcome news to anyone worried about the future of reading or the eclipse of place Where Divinity Begins Deborah DeNicola, 1994 Where Divinity Begins is stunning sexy jazzy somber and steeply Gregorian by turns The poems view the world through an eye that magnifies and transforms like a prism The voice blooms deep within a woman's psyche and speaks of the human soul its myths arts passions and ordinary objects But most of all the poems sing and music here becomes thought prayer and the food that sustains us carries us on our journeys Betsy Sholl International Directory of Little Magazines & Small Presses Lenard V.
