Littmann, 2024-05-06 Songs for a Revolution Eckhard John, David Robb, 2020 Makes available twenty two protest songs of the period up to and including the 1848 Revolution in Germany along with a reception history of the songs through their revival after 1945 The socially volatile period of the Vorm rz 1830 1848 and the 1848 Revolution in Germany produced a wealth of political protest song Songs for a Revolution makes available twenty two prominent protest songs from that time both lyrics in German and English and melodies It also chronicles the songs reception suppressed after the revolution they fell into obscurity despite intermittent revivals by the workers movement and later in the Weimar Republic until they were appropriated as democratic cultural heritage by the folk and political song movements of East and West Germany after 1945
The songs reflect the new oppositional political consciousness that emerged during the post 1830 period of restoration and led to the revolution The book makes use of broadsides songbooks newspaper reports and manuscripts to document the songs transmission and shed light on the milieus in which they circulated It also demonstrates how the appropriation of these songs by the German Liedermacher and folk scene shaped today s cultural memory of the 1848 period It illuminates the functioning of political ideology in these reception processes which in turn have given rise to myths that have influenced the
