El Colonialismo Interno En La Narrativa Chicana El Barrio El Antibarrío Y El Exterior:

Literatura Chicana, 1965-1995 Manuel de Jesús Hernández-Gutiérrez, David William Foster, 1997 A collection of essays stories poems plays and novels representing the breadth of Chicano literature from 1965 to 1995 The anthology highlights major themes of identity feminism revisionism homoeroticism and internationalism the political foundations of writers such as Gloria Anzaldúa Lorna Dee Cervantes Luis Valdez Gary Soto and Sergio Elizondo The selections are offered in Spanish English and Spanglish text without translation and feature annotations of colloquial and regional uses of Spanish Lacks an index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR El colonialismo interno en la narrativa chicana Manuel de Jesús Hernández-Gutiérrez, 1994 Richly informed by contemporary sociological theory Manuel de Jesus Hernandez El colonialismo interno en la narrativa chicana distinguishes between the assimilationist and the internal colonialism models of Mexican American society and culture The author applies the internal colonialism model for the first time to the representation of Chicanos found in their narrative literature Among the categories of narrative discussed are the espacio pochista the migrante and the indigenista The book is a signal advance in the sociology of Chicano narrative and its application to significant Chicano works of art Chicano/Latino Homoerotic Identities David W. Foster, 2014-07-16 This collection which grew out of a research conference held at Arizona State University in November 1997 examines varieties of Chicano Latino homoerotic identities It includes essays by a group of scholars who are engaged in defining the parameters of these identities and who are concerned with how those identities interact with the dominant ones articulated by a hegemonic Anglo society in the United States The Latinx Urban Condition Crescencio Lopez-Gonzalez, 2020-01-17 The Latinx Urban Condition brings together interdisciplinary cultural theory and U S Latinx urban literature into conversation focusing on the realities and urban experiences of Latinx living in major cities in the United States from the 1960s to the present The manuscript focuses on analyzing the works of Latinx authors who write about the city in which they were raised and how growing up in these environments shaped their lives their communities and their future Their fictional work helps us understand how the human and cultural tapestry of the Latinx community is inextricably connected to the spatial transformations taking place in many cities across the country most notably within the cities the authors write about in their narratives This is particularly true when the city is represented through a fictional narrative which is full of detailed information about the realities of structural inequality in education residential segregation urban cultural identity discrimination experiences of exile oppression urban desires integration and disillusionment The main purpose is to analyze the symbolic realities lived by the characters in order to understand how Latino families and communities are experiencing displacement under instituted neoliberal policies a process known as development and progress or gentrification Culture and Power: Challenging Discourses M. José Coperías Aguilar, 2000 A Luis Leal Reader Luis Leal, 2007-09-11 Since his first publication in 1942 Luis Leal has likely done more than any other writer or scholar to foster a critical appreciation of

Mexican Chicano and Latin American literature and culture This volume bringing together a representative selection of Leal's writings from the past sixty years is at once a wide ranging introduction to the most influential scholar of Latino literature and a critical history of the field as it emerged and developed through the twentieth century Instrumental in establishing Mexican literary studies in the United States Leal's writings on the topic are especially instructive ranging from essays on the significance of symbolism culture and history in early Chicano literature to studies of the more recent use of magical realism and of individual New Mexican Tejano and Mexican authors such as Juan Rulfo Carlos Fuentes Jos Montoya and Mariano Azuela Clearly and cogently written these writings bring to bear an encyclopedic knowledge a deep understanding of history and politics and an unparalleled command of the aesthetics of storytelling from folklore to theory This collection affords readers the opportunity to consider or reconsider Latino literature under the deft guidance of its greatest reader

Mexican Literature David William Foster, 2010-07-22 Mexico has a rich literary heritage that extends back over centuries to the Aztec and Mayan civilizations This major reference work surveys more than five hundred years of Mexican literature from a sociocultural perspective More than merely a catalog of names and titles it examines in detail the literary phenomena that constitute Mexico's most significant and original contributions to literature Recognizing that no one scholar can authoritatively cover so much territory David William Foster has assembled a group of specialists some of them younger scholars who write from emerging trends in Latin American and Mexican literary scholarship The topics they discuss include pre Columbian indigenous writing Joanna O Connell Colonial literature Lee H Dowling Romanticism Margarita Vargas nineteenth century prose fiction Mario Mart n Flores Modernism Bart L Lewis major twentieth century genres narrative Lanin A Gyurko poetry Adriana Garc a theater Kirsten F Nigro the essay Martin S Stabb literary criticism Daniel Altamiranda and literary journals Luis Pe a Each essay offers detailed analysis of significant issues and major texts and includes an annotated bibliography of important critical sources and reference works

Narratives of Resistance Ana María Manzanás Calvo, Jesús Benito Sánchez, 1999 The articles included in this collection cover a wide range of literatures and topics but most of them address the ways in which ethnic writers create themselves in opposition and resistance to the mainstream These narratives of opposition and resistance do not equate protest narratives but represent a consciously subversive effort There is agency and creativity in the confrontation for the majority of these narratives are not only demystifying an old world and order but creating a new one there narratives are not reproducing as much as producing and forging culture and literature The articles we present resist not only the politics of traditional canon formation but the politics of cultural nationalism as well they challenge the margins as well as the center With this revisionist agenda the aim of this collection is to invite readers to further their rethinking of American and Caribbean literatures

The Portrayal of the Chicano Experience in the Novels of Alejandro Morales Juan Antonio Sánchez, 1999

Chicano Representation and the Strategies of Modernism Ramon Garcia, 1997

Transnational Cervantes William Childers, 2014-05-01 This ambitious work aims to utterly change the way Don Quixote and Cervantes other works are read particularly the posthumous The Trial of Persiles and Sigismunda William Childers sets out to free Cervantes work from its context within the histories of the European national literatures Instead he examines early modern Spanish cultural production as an antecedent to contemporary postcolonial literature especially Latin American fiction of the past half century In order to construct his new context for reading Cervantes Childers proceeds in three distinct phases First Cervantes relation to the Western literary canon is reconfigured detaching him from the realist novel and associating him instead with magic realism Second Childers provides an innovative reading of The Trial of Persiles and Sigismunda as a transnational romance exploring cultural boundaries and the hybridization of identities Finally Childers explores traces of and similarities to Cervantes in contemporary fiction Theoretically eclectic and methodologically innovative Transnational Cervantes opens up many avenues for research and debate aiming to bring Cervantes writings forward into the brave new world of our postcolonial age

New Strangers in Paradise Gilbert H. Muller, 2014-07-11 New Strangers in Paradise offers the first in depth account of the ways in which contemporary American fiction has been shaped by the successive generations of immigrants to reach U S shores Gilbert Muller reveals how the intersections of peoples regions and competing cultural histories have remade the American cultural landscape in the aftermath of World War II Muller focuses on the literature of Holocaust survivors Chicanos Latinos African Caribbeans and Asian Americans In the quest for a new identity each of these groups seeks the American dream and rewrites the story of what it means to be an American New Strangers in Paradise explores the psychology of uprooted peoples and the relations of culture and power addressing issues of race and ethnicity multiculturalism and pluralism and national and international conflicts Examining the groups of immigrants in the cultural and historical context both of America and of the lands from which they originated Muller argues that this fourth wave of immigration has led to a creative flowering in modern fiction The book offers a fresh perspective on the writings of Vladimir Nabokov Saul Bellow William Styron Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Oscar Hijuelos Jamaica Kincaid Bharati Mukherjee Rudolfo Anaya and many others A glimpse of Chicano literature Manuel Villar Raso, 2007 Chicana Testimonio and Autobiography Elizabeth Flores, 1999 Estudios Chicanos and the Politics of Community Cordelia Candelaria, 1989

Tradición, identidad, mito y metáfora Mariángela Rodríguez, 2005 Esta investigación basada en estudios antropológicos de campo constituye una importante contribución teórica que ilustra cómo los mexicanos en Estados Unidos han logrado sobrevivir décadas de lucha por sus derechos civiles El pueblo mexicano se halla siempre en una constante lucha es decir en contra de la explotación de la fuerza del trabajo de la energía y la sabiduría que almacena en su hogar y su lucha perenne contra la expropiación de sus valores This investigation based on Anthropological field studies constitutes an important theoretical contribution that illustrates how Mexicans in the United States have survived decades of struggle for their civil rights Mexicans are in a constant fight against the exploitation of the work force of the energy and the wisdom stored in their homes and its regular battle against the expropriation of their values
