Vásquez, Ellen Riojas Clark, 2014-02-19 Generating Transworld Pedagogy Reimagining La Clase M gica lays the foundation for addressing one of the greatest challenges in the 21st century meeting the educational needs of a diverse society living in a complex technology driven world It extends bilingual and bicultural transformative critical pedagogy by appropriating the use of mobile devices and digital tools within an after school setting Four theoretical concepts anchor this collection the dialectic method concepts of culture a bilingual bicultural critical pedagogy and the notion of the sacred sciences Generating Transworld Pedagogy showcases the intersection of learners linguistic cultural and historical knowledge as critical tools for learning and for navigating the broader society The volume serves as an ideal framework for preparing teacher educators and teacher candidates for a world in motion It provides a deeper understanding of the conditions needed to create the ideal learning and teaching opportunities for bilingual learners Special highlights include a comprehensive resource for integrating linguistic and cultural diversity within a technological and global perspective for 21st century teachers and learners a resource for launching the model in new sociocultural contexts an exemplar of the innovative uses of mobile technology and digital literacies within the learning setting and a model for engaging in socially designed community based research that can extend to an international scale Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre Jay

Beck, Vicente Rodríguez Ortega, 2021-06-15 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today A Life in

Linguistics Gabriela Alboiu, Daniela Isac, Alexandru Nicolae, 2022-01-01 Alexandra Cornilescu is an internationally renowned linguist whose pioneering ideas have been influential in developing generative grammar in Romania Europe and beyond The weightiness of her contributions to the field is matched only by her talent for disseminating them Ever since 1970 when she started teaching at the University of Bucharest she has continuously played a tireless and inspirational role in the creation of several generations of linguists which the academic world has come to admiringly refer to as The Bucharest School As the initiator of the AICED conference held annually in the English Department at the University of Bucharest she has turned it into one of the leading platforms of generative linguistics in Europe She has published extensively on Romanian and English linguistics and is also the founder and past editor of the journal Bucharest Working Papers in Linguistics On the occasion of her 75th birthday her friends students and colleagues celebrate Alexandra Cornilescu's work with this collection of essays on various topics of current theoretical interest Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis Garc a Berlanga and Luis Bu uel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Se or Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura Jos Luis Borau V ctor Erice and others After Franco s death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armend riz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almod var Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amen bar s Thesis Jos Luis Garc s The Grandfather and Almod var s Talk to Her and Volver In Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80 s and 90 s and into the present day Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema In addition to identifying Film Music Analysis Frank Lehman,2024-05-31 Since the establishment of film music studies there has been a steady growth of serious analytical work on the film music repertoire Film Music Analysis Studying the Score offers the first collection of essays dedicated to the close investigation of musical structure and meaning in film music Showcasing scholarship from a diverse and distinguished group of music theorists and musicologists this book presents the many ways to inspect the inner workings of film music in a manner that is exciting and accessible to anyone curious about this music regardless of their background in film or music theory Each chapter takes as its focus one music theoretical parameter and explores how that concept can be used to analyze and interpret film music Covering theoretical concepts that range from familiar categories such as leitmotif and pitch structure to more cutting edge ideas such as timbral associativity topic theory and metrical states the book provides a toolkit with which to explore this captivatingly varied repertoire With example analyses drawn from classic and contemporary films Film Music Analysis Studying the Score is a valuable teaching tool and an indispensable addition to the library of any lover of film and music Reality in Movement Maarten van Delden,2021-03-15 In the last couple of decades there has been a surge of interest in Octavio Paz s life and work and a number of important books have been published on Paz However most of these books are of a biographical nature or they examine Paz s role in the various intellectual initiatives he headed in Mexico specifically the journals he founded Reality in Movement looks at a wide range of topics of interest in Paz s career including his engagement with the subversive adversary strain in Western culture his meditations on questions of cultural identity and intercultural contact his dialogue with both leftist and conservative ideological traditions his interest in feminism and psychoanalysis and his theory of poetry It concludes with a chapter on Octavio Paz as a literary character a kind of reception study Offering a complex and nuanced portrait of Paz as a writer and thinker as well as an understanding of the era in which he lived Reality in Movement will appeal to students of Octavio Paz and of Mexican literature more generally and to readers with an interest in the many significant literary cultural political and historical topics Paz wrote about over the course of his long career Re-reading Pío Baroja and English Literature

Katharine Murphy,2004 This volume investigates a broad range of structural connections between P o Baroja s early fiction and the novels of his contemporaries in England and Ireland with prominence given to Joseph Conrad Thomas Hardy E M Forster and James Joyce Starting from the premise that Spain has been neglected in studies which assess the evolution of the European novel at the turn of the twentieth century and challenging the insular concept of the Generation of 1898 the author reassesses the relationship between Baroja and English literature Particular emphasis is given to renderings of consciousness the role and identity of the artist European landscapes and questions of form genre and representation in the novels under scrutiny The book produces new readings of Baroja in the context of early twentieth century English fiction Spanish cinema 1973-2010 Maria M. Delgado,Robin Fiddian,2019-01-04 This collection offers a new lens through which to examine Spain s cinema production following the isolation imposed by the Franco regime The seventeen key films analysed in the volume span a period of 35 years that have been crucial in the development of Spain Spanish democracy and Spanish cinema They encompass different genres horror thriller melodrama social realism documentary both popular Los abrazos rotos Broken Embraces Vicky Cristina Barcelona and more select art house fare En la ciudad de Sylvia In the City of Sylvia El esp ritu de la colmena Spirit of the Beehive and are made in English as both first and second language Basque Castilian Catalan and French Offering an expanded understanding of national cinemas the volume explores key works by Guillermo del Toro and Lucrecia Martel alongside an examination of the ways in which established auteurs Almod var Jos Garci Carlos Saura and younger generations of filmmakers Cesc Gay Amen bar Bolla n have harnessed cinematic language towards a commentary on the nation state The result is a bold new study of the ways in which film has created new prisms that have determined how Spain is positioned in the global marketplace Spanish Spaces Ann Davies,2012-04-13 A pioneering study that fuses cultural geography and contemporary Spanish culture asking what it means to think of space and place in specifically Spanish terms It examines how themes of memory and forgetting nationalism and terrorism crime and detection gender tourism and immigration are explored in contemporary Spanish film and literature 69 More Short Spanish Stories for Intermediate Learners
