

A detailed still life illustration of a dining table set for fondue. In the center is a large, dark brown ceramic fondue pot filled with a thick, creamy white sauce. Two metal fondue forks are resting in the pot, each holding a piece of bread. To the left of the pot is a dark bowl filled with a green salad of lettuce and sliced cucumbers. In the foreground, a woven basket is overflowing with thick slices of crusty bread. To the right of the pot, there are three small glass jars containing different colored condiments: a dark one, a reddish one, and a yellowish one. The table is covered with a red and white checkered tablecloth. In the background, a vase with dried flowers and a framed picture are visible on a shelf.
