Hill, 2012-10-25 The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions IFLA is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users It is the global voice of the information profession The series IFLA Publications deals with many of the means through which libraries information centres and information professionals worldwide can formulate their goals exert their influence as a group protect their interests and find solutions to global problems Mining Memory Mary Beth

Tierney-Tello, 2017-01-23 Every major Peruvian author of the twentieth century has written a narrative focused on childhood or coming of age Mining Memory argues that Peruvian narratives of the twentieth century re imagine childhood not only to document personal pasts but also to focus on national identity as a dynamic and incomplete process Mining Memory shows how 20th century narratives and films reimagine the self and the nation by representing child and adolescent protagonists and their evolution using the remembrance of childhood as part of a nation making project The book demonstrates how in the context of Peru fictions focusing on childhood become vehicles for the national reimagining and collective remembering central to much of Latin American literature The figure of the child as emblem of both a collective memory and an always deferred utopian project holds special promise for twentieth century Peruvian writers as they write from a national context rife with cultural racial and political conflict The book intervenes in debates internal to Peruvian cultural studies as well as wider conversations in Latin American Studies and post colonial studies Mining Memory provides a new understanding to both the Latin American and Anglo American traditions regarding the representations of national subjectivities through the voices of the child and adolescent Such a representational strategy performs a very particular kind of hybridity and temporal balancing act capable of addressing the very issues of cultural memory and fractured identities so relevant to multi cultural post colonial cultural contexts Tony Cragg Tony Cragg, Catherine Grenier, Centre Georges Pompidou, Centre de création industrielle, 1996 R v l e la fin des ann es 70 l oeuvre de Tony Cragg s est affirm e comme profond ment singuli re habit e la fois par le sentiment du temps pr sent et la m moire des origines par la conqu te du monde apparent et la fascination pour les structures invisibles Arch ologie de la vie moderne ses sculptures puisent leurs images et leurs mat riaux aux sources de la vie quotidienne et leur mode d laboration aux domaines les plus larges incluant l artisanat l industrie et la peinture
