Food Tourism Around The World Development Management And Markets:

Food Tourism Around The World C. Michael Hall, Liz Sharples, Richard Mitchell, Niki Macionis, Brock Cambourne, 2004-02-18 Food and wine are vital components of the tourism experience and are increasingly being seen as prime travel motivators in their own right Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets offers a unique insight into this phenomenon looking at the interrelationship between food the tourism product and the tourist experience Using international case studies and examples from Europe North America Australasia and Singapore Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets discusses the development range and repercussions of the food tourism phenomenon The multi national contributor team analyses such issues as the food tourism product food tourism and consumer behaviour cookery schools educational vacations food as an attraction in destination marketing Ideal for both students and practioners the book represents the most comprehensive and wide ranging treatment yet of this recent development in tourism Food Tourism Around the World ,2014 Food Tourism Around the World C.M. Hall, L. Sharples, R. [et.al.] (Eds.) Mitchell, 2003 Food Tourism and Regional Development C. Michael Hall, Stefan Gössling, 2016-05-26 Food tourism is a topic of increasing importance for many destinations Seen as a means to potentially attract tourists and differentiate destinations and attractions by means of the association with particular products and cuisines food is also regarded as an opportunity to generate added value from tourism through local agricultural systems and supply chains and the local food system From a regional development perspective this book goes beyond culinary tourism to also look at some of the ways in which the interrelationships between food and tourism contribute to the economic environmental and social wellbeing of destinations communities and producers It examines the way in which tourism and food can mutually add value for each other from the fork to the plate and beyond Looking at products e g cheese craft beer noodles wine attractions restaurants and events and diverse regional examples e g Champagne Hong Kong Jamaica Margaret River southern Sweden and Tuscany the title highlights how clustering networking and the cultural economy of food and tourism and foodscapes adds value for regions Despite the attention given to food wine and culinary tourism no book has previously directly focused on the contribution of food and tourism in regional development This international collection has contributors and examples from almost every continent and provides a comprehensive account of the various intersections between food tourism and regional development This timely and significant volume will inform future food and tourism development as well as regional development more widely and will be valuable reading for a range of disciplines including tourism development studies food and culinary studies regional studies geography and environmental studies Foodies and Food Tourism Donald Getz, Richard Robinson, Tommy Andersson, Sanja Vujicic, 2014-09-30 Foodies and Food Tourism supplies comprehensive new evidence and theory based overview of the phenomenon of food tourism and how it is being or should be developed and marketed and understood Food Tourism Around the World: Development, Management &

Markets (PB) Hall, 2006-11-01 Handbook on Food Tourism Eerang Park, Sangkyun Kim, 2024-03-14 This Handbook on Food Tourism provides an overview of the past present and future of research traditions perspectives and concerns about the food tourism phenomenon Taking a multidisciplinary approach it contributes to the historical and anthropological understanding of the nexus between food society and tourism that underpins the divergent business and marketing efforts in tourism today OECD Studies on Tourism Food and the Tourism Experience The OECD-Korea Workshop OECD, 2012-02-22 This publication provides an understanding of the role of food tourism in local economic development and its potential for country branding It also presents several innovative case studies in the food tourism sector and the experience industry

The Future of Food Tourism Ian Yeoman, Una McMahon-Beattie, Kevin Fields, Julia N. Albrecht, Kevin Meethan, 2015-07-06 This book presents a systematic and pattern based explanation of food tourism focusing on how and why change could occur and what the implications could be In the future will food tourism involve food grown in the laboratory or a more authentic experience associated with place and history The book s approach to the future has focused on explanation the contributors look for the causes trends and theoretical concepts that explain change thus attempting to justify and explore the future Scenarios are used to explore alternative futures and the book examines the implications for the future of food tourism and highlights future research avenues This book is primarily aimed at postgraduate students and researchers in the field of tourism studies Innovation and Tourism Destination Development Henrik Halkier, Marek Kozak, Bo Svensson, 2017-10-02 Tourism is a central part of regional development strategies in many localities around Europe not just in traditional coastal or mountain resorts but also in areas without a strong track record with regard to visitor economy In a globalising world destinations can no longer take their traditional visitors for granted and escape growing competitive pressures because increasingly experienced specialised and demanding travellers now have a vastly greater number of potential destinations to choose from Both well established and emerging tourist destinations are therefore under pressure to be innovative to increase their attractiveness in the globalising visitor economy This book focuses on the role played by tourist destinations conceived as multi layered and functional governance structures in stimulating or complicating the development of new tourist experiences The complex relationship between firm level and territorial development dynamics is of course by no means confined to tourism development and the book will therefore be of a more general relevance for research into innovation and spatial development dynamics This book was published as a special issue of European Planning Studies
