In Pursuit of Love Vincent J. Genovesi, 1996 While retaining the basic structure of the original book this new edition has been thoroughly updated in light of some official Catholic documents and other theological writings dealing with sexual morality that have appeared since 1986 The Catechism of the Catholic Church Pope John Paul II's encyclicals Veritatis splendor and Evangelium vitae and the 1986 and 1992 statements of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith on pastoral care of homosexuals and the issue of discrimination against them are among the more recent magisterial publications considered in this text This edition also contains several new sections the misuses of sex adultery pornography prostitution sexual violence four rationales for viewing a committed love relationship as the only appropriate context for sexual intercourse marriage as a sacrament and marital sexuality and love as embodiments of commitment intimacy and passion and public policy and the civil rights of homosexuals This edition also includes an expanded discussion of topics such as sexism sexually transmitted diseases especially HIV AIDS and the moral questions raised by new family planning methods Norplant Depo Provera RU 486 postcoital hormonal interventions against pregnancy the start of human life and abortion Vincent J Genovesi SJ received his PhD in Christian ethics from Emory University He is a professor at St Joseph's University in Philadelphia His articles have appeared in such journals as The Thomist The Way America and Review for Religious

Philemon's Problem James Tunstead Burtchaell, 1998 Philemon was a wealthy Christian whose slave Onesimus went off in search of freedom met and listened to Paul and joined the church But instead of being given a new life of his own Onesimus was sent back by Paul to an aggrieved master with no protection but his mentor's brief Letter to Philemon Paul never asked Philemon to free his slave Instead he admonished him to take Onesimus back only now as his brother in Christ This left both master and bondsman with a problem how could one man own another and both be brothers in Christ In this unique work James Tunstead Burtchaell uses the ancient story of Philemon and Onesimus as a compelling entry into modern theological reflection on the unbelievable reach of the grace and forgiveness of the Father whose Son died without disciples rose to reconcile and transform them and then scattered them around the world as men and women who were now also able to love those who loved them not and transform them too According to Burtchaell in order for the faith of Philemon and Onesimus to cope with Paul's imperative they required an inspired imagination to take in the notion that the Father loves sinners i.e. all of us and he neither would nor could do otherwise For Philemon and Onesimus to undertake such a relentless love themselves would require frighteningly new convictions new commitments and new celebrations
