study of how post 1990 German literature reconfigures the legacy of National Socialism and the Holocaust In five sections Historisation Perpetrators Hitler Youth Memories War Memories and Victim Perspective a number of key literary works such as Bernhard Schlink's Der Vorleser Martin Walser's Ein springender Brunnen Gunter Grass's Im Krebsgang and W G Sebald's Austerlitz are analysed The literary texts are situated within the wider context of contemporary German debates on the issue from the exhibition Crimes of the German Wehrmacht 1941 1945 to the Walser Bubis affair and the ensuing debate about representations of German suffering One of the central concerns of this book is the literary configuration of German experience and the narrative strategies employed by the writers to validate it against or set it in context with a perspective of victim experience

New German Literature Julian Preece, Frank Finlay, Ruth J. Owen, 2007 Twenty five essays by scholars from the UK Ireland Germany and Australia explore two aspects of new German language literature The first dozen studies focus on the variety and depth of the dialogue in the sense of reciprocal influences between literature photography film painting architecture and music The remaining essays alight on Life Writing in most of its forms diaries memoirs autobiographies and autobiographical fiction and examine its centrality in recent years in German literature not least because of the shadow which World War Two continues to cast over national life

Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood Heather Snell, Lorna Hutchison, 2013-11-07 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped contested forgotten recovered and re-circulated sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film poetry literature and architecture from Canada the United States Japan Germany Britain India and Spain These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation identity and perception childhood is invisible and tangible exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children's literature and culture readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies

Tabu und Tabubruch in Literatur und Film Michael Braun, 2007

Memory Traces Silke Arnold-de Simine, 2005 This essay collection examines the dynamics of memory organization and the way it varies among different media and modes of discourse in post unification Germany German unification has put the post war period into a historical perspective Such a rupture raises questions concerning the appropriate commemoration preservation and reinterpretation of the past The processes of reorientation after unification influenced the self perception of literary authors as well as the social role position and status of German literature. They also affected the way writers viewed the competition in which they found themselves pitted against visual and electronic media as rival windows on the past. In the context of several debates on German literature during the 1990s the discussion revolved not only around the adequate aesthetic representation of the historical and cultural heritage but even more so around the role of literature itself in that process. The contributions look at different discourses that were and still are concerned with reinterpreting and creating new collective symbols and narrative patterns in relation to Germany's past. The volume focuses on the effects of the characteristic discourses of the press, literature and its different genres, film, the internet and memorials on the depiction and performance of memories.

The Novel in German since 1990 Stuart Taberner, 2011-09-01 Diversity is one of the defining characteristics of contemporary German language literature not just in terms of the variety of authors writing in German today but also in relation to theme, form, technique and style. However, common themes emerge: the Nazi past, transnationalism, globalisation, migration, religion and ethnicity, gender and sexuality and identity. This book presents the novel in German since 1990 through a set of close readings both of international bestsellers including Daniel Kehlmann's Measuring the World and W. G. Sebald's Austerlitz and of less familiar but important texts such as Yad Kara's Selam Berlin. Each novel discussed in the volume has been chosen on account of its aesthetic quality, its impact and its representativeness; the authors featured among them Nobel Prize winners Günter Grass, Elfriede Jelinek and Herta and Paul Amirson demonstrate the energy and quality of contemporary writing in German.

Monika Maron in Perspective, 2016-08-29 In diesem Band werden zum ersten Mal die Ansichten von 12 Forschern zum Œuvre der Berliner Autorin Monika Maron (1941) zusammengebracht. Die Beiträge entstanden im Rahmen eines internationalen Symposiums anlässlich des 60. Geburtstages der Autorin, das Ende März 2011 an der Universität Gent stattgefunden hat. Junge wie etablierte Wissenschaftler haben Einzelanalysen und Übersichtsartikel verfasst, die zusammen das gesamte Œuvre von Flugasche bis Pawels Briefe umspannen und zugleich einen Ausblick auf die Zukunft ermöglichen. Die gemeinsame dialogische Ausrichtung der präsentierten Einblicke äußert sich darin, dass jeweils mit eigener Akzentsetzung die Grenzen des Textes nach außen hin überschritten werden. Dabei werden nicht nur die vielfältigen Wechselwirkungen zwischen Text und Zeit, sondern auch die bisher viel weniger thematisierte Bedeutung anderer Texte sowie die diversen Arten der Rezeption untersucht. Methodologisch reichen die Ansätze von der traditionellen Hermeneutik über historische Fragestellungen, Diskursanalyse und Rezeptionstheorie bis hin zu Überlegungen zur Ethik der Ästhetik. Eine umfangreiche Bibliographie in der eine möglichst umfassende Übersicht über Verbreitung und Rezeption von Marons Werken geboten wird, schließt den Band ab. Monika Maron in Perspective dokumentiert so in den Beiträgen wie in der Bibliographie den heutigen Stand der Forschung und liefert zudem zahlreiche Impulse zu einer weiteren Auseinandersetzung mit dem Werk.

Contemporary Germany and the Nazi Legacy C. Pearce, 2007-11-09 This book examines a range of public debates on the Nazi legacy in Germany since Schröder's SPD-Green coalition came to power in 1998. A central theme is the dialectic of normality whereby references to Nazi past impact upon present normality The book is a valuable resource for students of contemporary German politics history and culture

German Culture, Politics, and Literature Into the Twenty-first Century Stuart Taberner, Paul Cooke, 2006 This volume features sixteen thought provoking essays by renowned international experts on German society culture and politics that together provide a comprehensive study of Germany's postunification process of normalization Essays ranging across a variety of disciplines including politics foreign policy economics literature architecture and film examine how since 1990 the often contested concept of normalization has become crucial to Germany's self understanding Despite the apparent emergence of a new Germany the essays demonstrate that normalization is still in question and that perennial concerns notably the Nazi past and the legacy of the GDR remain central to political and cultural discourses and affect the country's efforts to deal with the new challenges of globalization and the instability and polarization it brings This is the first major study in English or German of the impact of the normalization debate across the range of cultural political economic intellectual and historical discourses Contributors Stephen Brockmann Jeremy Leaman Sebastian Harnisch and Kerry Longhurst Lothar Probst Simon Ward Anna Saunders Annette Seidel Arpacı Chris Homewood Andrew Plowman Helmut Schmitz Karoline Von Oppen William Collins Donahue Katharine Sch del Stuart Taberner Paul Cooke Stuart Taberner is Professor of Contemporary German Literature Culture and Society and Paul Cooke is Senior Lecturer in German Studies both at the University of Leeds

German Culture and the Uncomfortable Past Helmut Schmitz, 2017-07-05

Beginning with the question of the role of the past in the shaping of a contemporary identity this volume spans three generations of German and Austrian writers and explores changes and shifts in the aesthetics of Vergangenheitsbewältigung coming to terms with the past The purpose of the book is to assess contemporary German literary representations of National Socialism in a wider context of these current debates The contributors address questions arising from a shift over the last decade triggered by a generation change questions of personal and national identity in Germany and Austria and the aesthetics of memory One of the central questions that emerges in relation to the Hitler youth generation is that of biography as examined through Günter Grass and Martin Walser's conflicting views on the subject of National Socialism Other themes explored here are the conflict between the post war generations and the contributions of that conflict to West German mentality and the growing historical distance and its influence on the aesthetics of representation
