RJ Alexander

For And Against The Moon Blues Yells And Chuckles:

The Order in Which We Do Things Tom Wayman, 2014-03-24 Tom Wayman's poetry has been published around the world to great acclaim. Wayman is one of Canada's most prolific and public poets and his writing since the 1960s has been by turns angry, engaged, hopeful, tender, and hilarious. His voice and persona are his alone but simultaneously ours too. His recurring themes: work, mortality, love, lust, friendship, the natural world, make his work a poetry of human inevitabilities, a poetry that exults in the inevitability of seeing poetry in the everyday. Wayman's craft is poesis from the Ancient Greek to making a change, making a difference, making a ruckus, making the most of our time. His working life has always been inextricable from his writing; one of his poems offers an honest and candid consideration of the ideological underpinnings, practical realities, and subtle beauties of a life lived on job sites and picket lines in union halls, classrooms, and book-stuffed offices and on the page itself. The Order in Which We Do Things is a collection of more than thirty of Wayman's best poems, selected and introduced by Owen Percy. Percy's introduction explores the genesis of Wayman's print persona and contextualizes his politically engaged conversational voice within the pantheon of its various publics. In his afterword, Work and Silence, Wayman reflects on his more than forty years in print as a work poet and underlines poetry's sustained power to engage readers, invite solidarity, and stoke the fires of critical resistance to the order in which we do things.

Syllables of Recorded Time Lyn Harrington, 1981-08-01 Syllables of Recorded Time is a lively look at the development over the last six decades of a national authors' association with all its problems and foibles. Personalities such as Bliss Carman, Nellie McClung, Stephen Leacock, B.K. Sandwell, W.A. Deacon, Mazo de la Roche, John Murray Gibbon, Helen Chreighton, Watson Kirkconnell, Charles G.D. Roberts, and Duncan Campbell Scott figure prominently in the amusing anecdotes of the early days, and Hugh MacLennan, Pierre Berton, Dorothy Livesay, and Arthur Hailey in the later years. Syllables of Recorded Time highlights the discussions and legalities regarding issues of copyright, contracts, women's role, cultural domination by Britain and the U.S.A., government funding, and markets for writers. It tells why there was a spinoff of specialized interests including the Canadian Writers Foundation, the League of Poets, the Governor General's Awards, the Canadian Copyright Institute, the Canadian Society of Children's Authors, Illustrators, and Performers, and the Writers Union of Canada. Harrington vividly portrays all facets of the organization in this valuable resource book.

Skills Mania Bob Davis, 2000 In Skills Mania Bob Davis argues passionately that the emphasis in the secondary school classroom must shift from a technocratic skills based approach to teaching and discussion that focuses on real substantive issues He also calls for a new emphasis on the teaching of history a practice that has been sadly lacking in recent years Two central qualities warm up this book first the story is told through the author's own teaching and second the author presents us with an original and frank point of view This is a stirring engaged and practical book A Native Heritage Leslie Monkman, 1981-12-15 Disparity and division in religion technology and ideology have characterized relations between English Canadian and Indian cultures through out Canada's history From the earliest declaration of white territorial ownership to the current debate on aboriginal rights red man and white man have had opposing principles and perspectives The most common solutions imposed on these conflicts by white men have relegated the Indian to the fringes of white society and consciousness This survey of English Canadian literature is the first comprehensive examination of a tradition in which white writers turn to the Indian and his culture for standards and models by which they can measure their own values and goals for patterns of cultural destruction transformation and survival and for sources of native heroes and indigenous myths Leslie Monkman examines images of the Indian as they appear in works ranging from Robert Rogers Ponteach or The Savages of America 1766 to Robertson Davies Pontiac and the Green Man 1977 demonstrating how English Canadian writers have illuminated their own world through reference to Indian culture The Indian has been seen as an antagonist as a superior alternative as a member of a vanishing and lamented race and as a hero and the source of the new myths Although white Indian tension often lies in apparently irreconcilable opposites Monkman finds in the literature surveyed complementary images reflecting a common humanity This is an important contribution to a hitherto unexplored area of Canadian literature in English which should give rise to further elaboration of this major theme International Books in Print, 1979 Best Poems of 1974 Borestone Mountain Poetry Awards, Robert Thomas Moore, 1975-12 Exiles & Pioneers Tom Farley, 1976 The Fiddlehead Kent Thompson, 1974 I'll be Right Back Tom Wayman, 1997 Tom Wayman's first collection of poems to be published in this country since 1980 I'll Be Right Back reflects the author's characteristic concern with love and death the workplace and the marketplace the city and the country Best Poems of ..., 1974 Best Poems Borestone Mountain Poetry Awards Staff, Robert Thomas Moore, 1974-12 Twenty-first-century Canadian Writers Christian Riegel, 2007 Dedicated for nearly thirty years to making literature and its creators more accessible and intriguing to researchers the series presents signed authoritative biographical and critical essays on writers from all eras and genres Rigorously meeting the standards of librarians and instructors signed entries are written by academic experts in the field and include illustrations and extensive bibliographies Contemporary Poets Thomas Riggs, 1995 This reference work combines bibliographical biographical and critical information on 900 living poets writing in the English language Entries are arranged alphabetically and this edition includes 120 new entrants including Wendy Cope Benjamin Zephaniah and Rachel McAlpine
