Love, Money, and Parenting Matthias Doepke, Fabrizio Zilibotti, 2020-11-03 Doepke and Zilibotti investigate how economic forces shape how parents raise their children They show that in countries with increasing economic inequality such as the United States parents push harder to ensure their children have a path to security and success Economics has transformed the hands off parenting of the 1960s and 70s into a frantic overscheduled activity Growing inequality has also resulted in an increasing parenting gap between richer and poorer families raising the disturbing prospect of diminished social mobility and fewer opportunities for children from disadvantaged backgrounds The authors discuss how investments in early childhood development and the design of education systems factor into the parenting equation and how economics can help shape policies that will contribute to the ideal of equal opportunity for all From publisher description Love, Money, Sex and Death in the 21st Century Louis Shalako, Canadian science fiction author Louis Shalako speculates in the near term on everything from geo engineering euthanasia virtual currency neuro enhancement and sex with robots Love Money Sex and Death in the 21st Century A series of mind blowing essays concerning ten ethical and moral dilemmas facing not just modern science but all of humanity The 21st Century is sure going to be interesting A non fiction hypertext illustrated

Why I Love Money Pricely Francis, 2011-08 this will appear on the web Why I Love Money runs boldly brazenly and assertively against the grain of conventional and religious wisdom on money and wealth Religious belief the author asserts has conditioned the Faithful to be poor by the negative and aggressive assaults on money wealth and the wealthy from the pulpit The author demonstrates that money can buy life health respect happiness fulfillment freedom salvation and a host of other intangible benefits Wealth is good Poverty is evil God is Life and Abundance and as long as people religious or not are hostile to the idea of wealth they will remain poor Why I Love Money reveals in brazen and biting frankness why the author loves money with much apology to the apostle Paul of course

The Non-religion of the Future: A Sociological Study

Jean-Marie Guyau, 2015-01-09 Example in this ebook I Sociality the basis of religion Its definition I We shall meet in the course of this work many different definitions that have at one time or another been given to religion Some were assigned from the point of view of physics others from that of metaphysics others from that of morals almost none from that of sociology And yet upon closer scrutiny the notion of a social bond between man and the powers superior to him but resembling him is precisely the point in which all religious conceptions are at one Man becomes truly religious in our judgment only when above the human society in which he lives he superimposes in his scheme of the world another society more powerful and more cultured a universal and so to speak a cosmic society The sphere of sociality which is one of the characteristics of humanity must be enlarged till it reaches to the stars Sociality is the firm foundation of the religious sentiment and a religious being might be defined as a being disposed to be sociable not only with all living creatures with whom experience makes him acquainted but also with the creatures of thought with whom he peoples the world That religion consists essentially in the establishment of a bond at first mythical and subsequently mystic in the first instance between man and the forces of the universe then between man and the universe itself and ultimately between man and the elements of the universe is distinctly the outcome of every study of religion but what we wish especially here to consider is the precise way in which this bond has been conceived Well it may appear more clearly at the close of this inquiry the religious bond has been conceived ex analogia societatis human the relations amicable and inimical of men to each other were employed first for the explanation of physical phenomena and natural forces then for the metaphysical explanation of the world of its creation conservation and government in short sociological laws were universalized and the state of war or peace which existed among men families tribes and nations was conceived as existing also among the volitions which were fancied to exist beneath or beyond the forces of nature A mythic or mystic sociology conceived as containing the secret of all things lies at the basis of all religions Religion is not simply the expression of an anthropomorphism animals and fantastic beings of various sorts have played no inconsiderable r le in different cults it is an imaginative extension a universalization of all the good or evil relations which exist among conscious beings of war and peace friendship and enmity obedience and rebellion protection and authority submission fear respect devotion love religion is a universal sociomorphism Social relations with animals with the dead intellectual and social relations with good and evil genii with the forces of nature are nothing more nor less than various forms of this universal sociology in which religion has sought to find the reason of things of physical phenomena such as thunder storm sickness death as well as of metaphysical relations the origin and destiny of things and of moral relations virtue vice law and sanction To be continue in this ebook
