Reading Contemporary Black British and African American Women Writers Jean Wyatt, Sheldon George, 2020-01-28 Contemporary African American and Black British Women Writers Narrative Race Ethics brings together British and American scholars to explore how in texts by contemporary black women writers in the U S and Britain formal narrative techniques express new understandings of race or stimulate ethical thinking about race in a reader Taken together the essays also demonstrate that black women writers from both sides of the Atlantic borrow formal structures and literary techniques from one another to describe the workings of structural racism in the daily lives of black subjects and to provoke readers to think anew about race Narratology has only recently begun to use race as a category of narrative theory This collection seeks both to show the ethical effects of narrative form on individual readers and to foster reconceptualizations of narrative theory that account for the workings of race within literature and culture

Into a Light Both Brilliant and Unseen Malin Pereira, 2010-12-01 Malin Pereira s collection of eight interviews with leading contemporary African American poets offers an in depth look at the cultural and aesthetic perspectives of the post Black Arts Movement generation This volume includes unpublished interviews Pereira conducted with Wanda Coleman Yusef Komunyakaa Thylas Moss Harryette Mullen Cornelius Eady and Elizabeth Alexander as well as conversations with Rita Dove and Cyrus Cassells previously in print Largely published since 1980 each of these poets has at least four books Their influence on new generations of poets has been wide reaching The work of this group says Pereira is a departure from the previous generation s proscriptive manifestos in favor of more inclusive voices perspectives and techniques Although these poets reject a rigid adherence to a specific black aesthetic their work just as effectively probes racism stereotyping and racial politics Unlike Amiri Baraka s claim in Home that he becomes blacker and blacker positioning race as a defining essence these poets imagine a plurality of ideas about the relationship between blackness and black poetry They question the idea of an established literary canon defining black literature For these poets Pereira says the idea of home is found both in black poetry circles and in the wider transnational community of literature A Sarah Mills Hodge Foundation Publication
