The Economics of Crisis Eliot Janeway, 1968 National Defense Resources Conference Industrial College of the Armed Forces (U.S.), 1969 Israel's Wars of Attrition Avi Kober, 2009-09-11 This book analyzes the way Israel has coped with nine wars of attrition from the 1950s to the recent Second Lebanon War 2006 questioning the belief that Western democracy cannot sustain prolonged wars of attrition Challenging Israel with attrition has been compatible with the Arab way of war which emphasizes staying power and with the belief that democracies cannot tolerate wars of attrition either economically or psychologically Israel for its part developed a self image of incapacity to sustain prolonged wars committing itself to a traditional offensive approach to blitzkrieg whenever possible The book offers an account of nine wars of attrition that Israel was involved in over almost 60 years from Palestinian infiltration and fedayeen activities against Israel in the early 1950s through to the Second Lebanon War in 2006 The author uses these cases to challenge the myth that Israel cannot afford to become involved in a draining war of attrition Focusing on central aspects typical of Western democracies engaged in wars of attrition operational effectiveness the societal staying power the economic burden of the war moral dilemmas and conflict management problems the book challenges the myth that Israel cannot afford to become involved in a draining war of attrition while at the same time highlighting the fact that in its wars of attrition Israel has not always succeeded in avoiding undesired escalation This book will be of much interest to students of strategic studies Israeli history Middle Eastern politics and security studies in general Avi Kober is a member of the Department of Political Studies at Bar Ilan University Israel and is a Senior Research associate with the BESA Center for Strategic Studies National Security Seminar: Outlines and Reading Lists Joint Chiefs of Staff, Remembering the 1980 Turkish Military Coup d'État Elifcan Karacan, 2015-11-20 In her research studies Elifcan Karacan shows the relation between trauma violence and memory with a specific focus on the events considering the 1980 Military Coup d'État in Turkey Based on collective memory theories and cultural trauma theories the author focuses on the reconstruction of the past in present times and memory practices such as commemorations anniversaries construction of memory places museums This book seeks for an understanding of collective memory within individual narrations and mnemonic practices by using narrative interviews and biographical case reconstruction methods The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics Todd Landman, Neil Robinson, 2009-06-30 Editors Landman and Robinson have compiled an excellent tour d'horizon of comparative politics Distinguished contributors explore theoretical and methodological issues as well as examine the critical substantive domains that animate today's comparativists Graduate students and academics will want to keep this volume on their book shelf Professor Mark Irving Lichbach University of Maryland The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics is a major new resource for scholars of comparative politics and of political science more generally The Handbook covers the field with admirable thoroughness but does not sacrifice depth for breadth The chapters are written by notable scholars who provide rich discussions of their topics and help

Javed Maswood, 2017-07-24 This book takes issue with the likening of contemporary globalization to nineteenth century trade interdependence in which the defining feature of contemporary globalization is the spread of global production networks which were notably absent in the past Maswood demonstrates that the emergence of global production networks GPNs was not a result of economic and trade liberalization but instead due to neo protectionist developments in the 1980s that acted as a catalyst to transform Japan's nationally based production networks into the now ubiquitous GPNs Through this case study of Japan the author lays out a case for reconsidering the origins of globalization and explores some of the consequences that are likely to flow from progressive evolutionary transition towards a global economy Financial Regulation in Africa Iwa Salami, 2016-04-15 In the wake of the global financial crisis there has been a worldwide search for alternative investment opportunities away from advanced markets The African continent is now one of the fastest growing economic regions in the world and represents a viable destination for foreign direct and portfolio
