Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents Cheryl A. Kuba, 2013-05-13 Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents proposes an entirely unique approach to the field of gerontology giving dependent care receivers a voice Caregivers will be made aware of what care receivers truly want during life's final chapters Exploring issues of housing spirituality personal care and death Cheryl Kuba has created a testament to the dependent elderly This book draws on numerous interviews with aging people and discusses common caregiver mistakes and interpretations what a caregiver should expect when an aging parent moves in and how to care for an aging parent from afar Kuba also delves into such phenomena as guilt role reversal changing family dynamics financial stress and caring for oneself while caring for another The 22.4 million elderly people being cared for in the United States comprises the fastest growing segment of the population making this reference on the opinions and concerns of care receivers invaluable

You and Me: The Neuroscience of Identity Susan Greenfield, 2016-10-18 What is it that makes you distinct from me Identity is a term much used but hard to define For that very reason it has long been a topic of fascination for philosophers but has been regarded with aversion by neuroscientists until now Susan Greenfield takes us on a journey in search of a biological interpretation of this most elusive of concepts guiding us through the social and psychiatric perspectives and ultimately to the heart of the physical brain Greenfield argues that as the brain adapts exquisitely to environment the cultural challenges of the twenty first century with its screen based technologies mean that we are facing unprecedented changes to identity itself

The Loss of Small White Clouds Morgan Batch, 2023-08-09 This volume seeks to instigate a discussion about dementia in theatre The discussions in this book borrow from the literature on dementia's representation in other artforms while reflecting on theatre's unique capacity to incorporate multiple artforms in a live context hypermediacy The author examines constructions of diegesis and the use of various performance tools including physical theatre puppetry and postdramatic performance She discusses stage representations of interior experiences of dementia selfhood in dementia the demarcation of those with dementia from those without endings erasure and the pursuit of catharsis placelessness and disruptions of traditional dramatic constructions of time and ultimately performances creatively led by people with dementia The book traces patterns of narrativisation on the stage including common dramaturgical forms settings and character relationships as well as examples that transcend mainstream representation This book is important reading for theatre and performance students scholars and practitioners as well as cultural studies writers engaged in research about narratives of dementia

Beyond the Great Forgetting Patrick Gruener,2022-08-29 Drawing on a selection of carefully curated autobiographical and fictional portrayals of the dementia experience this book gives voice to some of the most pressing ethical issues that commonly arise in the context of a dementing disorder and calls attention to various forms of narrative resistance in contemporary American literature on early onset Alzheimer s disease AD Based on the premise that the current public discourse on AD is largely dominated by an anxiety and fear promoting conception of the illness this multilayered inquiry strives to look beyond the widespread horrors of forgetting and loss in AD and in doing so attempts to give a better more accurate and more balanced impression of what it means to be living with such a diagnosis Current Law Index ,2006

Understanding the Grief and Loss Experiences of Carers Kerry Jones,Joanna Horne,2024-11-01 This book draws on recent research and cutting edge ideas about bereavement and carers experiences across the life course to explore carers experience of loss and discuss their specific needs prior and or following the death of those they care for Whether care provided is related to a long term or life limiting condition many carers experience a multitude of losses including indefinite loss characterised by the loss of a taken for granted future and an inability to plan for the future Carers may also experience anticipatory grief as multiple losses such as companionship personal freedom and control manifest While many carers are dedicated and committed to their role they are subject to burnout and disenfranchised grief When the role of caregiver ends as a result of the death of those cared for this can represent a major change and a period of significant adjustment for carers leading to a range of emotions experienced This book presents and discusses research findings practitioner perspectives and a wealth of personal accounts to illuminate this vital but neglected area and extend our understanding of loss for carers across the life course This interdisciplinary and interprofessional volume brings together authors from a wide range of backgrounds including carers themselves It is an important contribution to the burgeoning literature around the role and experiences of carers and will interest academics students and practitioners in health and social care counselling and psychology with an interest in loss and bereavement

Reconsidering Dementia Narratives Rebecca Bitenc, 2019-07-05
 Reconsidering Dementia Narratives explores the role of narrative in developing new ways of understanding interacting with and caring for people with dementia It asks how the stories we tell about dementia in fiction life writing and film both reflect and shape the way we think about this important condition Highlighting the need to attend to embodied and relational aspects of identity in dementia the study further outlines ways in which narratives may contribute to dementia care while disputing the idea that the modes of empathy fostered by narrative necessarily bring about more humane care practices This cross medial analysis represents an interdisciplinary approach to dementia narratives which range across auto biography graphic narrative novel film documentary and collaborative storytelling practices The book aims to clarify the limits and affordances of narrative and narrative studies in relation to an ethically driven medical humanities agenda through the use of case studies Answering the key question of whether dementia narratives align with or run counter to the dominant discourse of dementia as loss of self this innovative book will be of interest to anyone interested in dementia studies ageing studies narrative studies in health care and critical medical humanities

Dementia from the Inside Jennifer Bute, Louise Morse, 2018-11-15 Many assume that living with dementia is one long term steady decline Jennifer s insightful book debunks that myth Jeremy Hughes Chief Executive Alzheimer s Society Jennifer Bute was a highly qualified senior doctor in a large clinical practice whose patients included those with dementia Then she began to notice symptoms in herself She was finally given a diagnosis of Young Onset Dementia in 2009 After resigning as a GP she resolved to explore what could be done to slow the progress of dementia The aim of this practical book is to help people who are living with dementia and to give hope to those who are with them on the dementia journey Jennifer believes that her dementia is an opportunity as well as a challenge Her important insights are that the person inside remains and can be reached even when masked by the condition and that spirituality rises as cognition becomes limited The observant physician shines through in Dr Bute s book while her practical advice reveals the resourcefulness of an inventor Alzheimer s disease has surely met one of its toughest ever adversaries Peter Garrard Professor of Neurology University of London

Never Giving Up & Never Wanting To Barry Tutor,2012-10 Like most I knew about Alzheimer s disease It causes old people to forget When my relationship with this disease began it highlighted how little I knew Following my widowed mother s Alzheimer s diagnosis I researched this disease to gain insight about my new role as her caregiver and decision maker What I learned and experienced during her affliction still left me somewhat unprepared for what was yet to come Sixteen months following my mother s diagnosis my dear wife and best friend was diagnosed with early onset Alzheimer s Though now I was familiar with this silent killer my wife s diagnosis set into motion many changes and challenges in our lives Someone is diagnosed with Alzheimer s every sixty eight seconds Currently Alzheimer s is the only disease in the top ten causes of death that is on the increase and has no means of prevention and no possible cure Given these facts support for those afflicted relies on increasing levels of caregiving as the disease progresses Let me explain something about this old folk s disease Alzheimer s affects more than just parents and grandparents It is also the disease of siblings spouses and children Alzheimer s forces many families to decide between home versus institutional care An estimated fifteen million caregivers provide some level of care to the Alzheimer s victims still living at home No matter what level of care you are providing the importance of preparation is paramount Arming yourself with knowledge begins that preparation process I was unprepared for the roller coaster ride my life became as the sole caregiver for two Alzheimer s victims To meet their varied challenges I adapted and developed multiple techniques for targeted personalized care If only I knew then what I know now By sharing my knowledge and experience I hope to better prepare you for your caregiving journey

Writing South Carolina Aida Rogers,Steven Lynn,2017-03-01 Young South Carolinians offer their perspectives on and visions for the future of the state All of you who contributed to this book write much better than I did in high school That remarkable observation was made by Pat Conroy in the foreword to the first collection of student writing generated by the South Carolina High School Writing Contest and it embodies the contest s goals to encourage young people to write to think deeply and creatively to express themselves and thereby to recognize and cultivate their abilities This second volume of Writing South Carolina features the insightful and inspiring entries of each of the twenty nine winners and finalists high school juniors and seniors who were challenged to share using any genre their ideas for making South Carolina a better place to live Through essays poems and stories students used their imaginations to celebrate South Carolina and to envision a state that might be improved by addressing civic and social ills such as domestic violence racism drugs poverty and educational inequality Despite being raised in the age of texts and tweets these young writers offer their unique perspectives often revealing thought provoking troubling and exhilarating in language that is uniquely their own and often eloquent and passionate Marjory Wentworth who provides a foreword to this collection is South Carolina s poet laureate and has served as a judge for the competition with Pat Conroy Wellbeing in Dementia Tessa Perrin,Hazel May,Elizabeth
