The Health Gap Jennifer Kitts, Janet Hatcher Roberts, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 1996
Women and AIDS tropical diseases women and the work environment barriers to quality health care for women and the health of adolescents and older women are some of the issues addressed in this book The Health Gap identifies and addresses key gaps in gender and health research identifies new and emerging themes in women's health and sets priorities for future action Gender, Health and Healing Gill Bendelow, Mick Carpenter, Caroline Vautier, Simon Williams, 2012-09-10
What do we mean by gender and how does this relate to health How is biology best understood What does a focus on the division of labour bring to our understanding of health work Is gender equity in health possible How have developments such as the resurgence of emotions and the new genetics affected these and other social relations at the turn of the century These are just some of the questions addressed in Gender Health and Healing in which a whole range of issues are brought together and connected to emerging concerns in contemporary life such as the new genetics and transformations in biomedical knowledge and practices It offers a challenging assessment of gender relations and embodied practices across the public private divide using health and healing as paradigmatic examples This thought provoking volume lies at the intersection of gender studies the sociology of health and healing health policy the critical analysis of scientific knowledge and the current debates around the body health and emotions Bringing together new and leading scholars in the field it provides a unique critical overview of contemporary debates in health care for an interdisciplinary readership Studying Intimate Matters Barbara Ann Barrett, Christian Groes-Green, 2011 Introduction Intimate studies and ethnographic sensitivity Christian Groes Green Barbara Ann Barrett Running against the wind studying reproductive norms and behaviour in Islamic Northern Nigeria Chimaraoke O Izugbara Caroline Kabiru Alex C Ezeh How to avoid gender bias in gender focused health research methodological reflections and policy suggestions Doris Muhwezi Kakuru Intimate ethnography trust building transgression and sexual cultures among Mocambican youth Christian Groes Green Sex tourism on Kenya's coast methodological challenges and options Rose Kisia Omondi Let's talk about sex comparing notes from qualitative research on men relationships and sex in South Africa and Rwanda Bjarke Oxlund Intimate matters as a taboo or a burning issue experiences from qualitative data collection in urban Uganda and Tanzania Margrethe Silberschmidt Researching teenage pregnancy in a post apartheid South African township Nolwazi Mkhwanazi Times and spaces for women's intimate talks reproductive health matters in Mankunka and Kabuyu Southern Zambia Victoria Phiri Dilemmas of justification in the qualitative study of intimate matters examples from Namibia Britt Pinkowski Tersb l Research ethics and dilemmas of qualitative research a study among secondary school students in Rakai District Uganda Aloysius Lwanga Bukonya
Informal and Formal Social Protection Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Melese Getu, Stephen Devereux, 2013 Addressing several themes in the social protection literature this book makes an original and important contribution to the rapidly growing body of literature on social protection in sub Saharan Africa Some of the themes are relatively neglected or under researched while some others are not usually conceptualised as social protection These themes are organized around the major issues informal social protection urban social protection social protection and physical security social protection in unstable contexts climate change pastoralism and gender Back cover Gender, Development and Health Caroline Sweetman,2001 Articles included here focus on understandings of reproductive health integrating gender issues into infectious disease prevention the impact of HIV AIDS on women working with communities to promote health and on the monitoring and evaluation of health projects from a gender perspective Global Health Governance Obijiofor Aginam,2005-01-01 Drawing from a wide range of disciplines Global Health Governance offers a holistic approach to global health governance involving a multiplicity of actors nation states international organizations civil society organizations and private actors Obstetrics, Gynaecology and Women's Health Vivienne O'Connor,Gabor Kovacs,2003-10-07 An essential textbook for students of obstetrics and gynaecology as well as women s health more generally Responding to the Human Rights Deficit Paschal Mihyo,Karin Arts,2021-10-25 Despite the existence of a wide range of human rights instruments and procedures human rights violations still abound The authors of this book address this so called human rights deficit and the possible responses to it from various disciplinary angles and mostly in the context of development They explore the reasons for the continuation of economic social and or political exclusion and human rights violations at large They also present keys for redressing the human rights deficit The role of law and questions of universality inclusion and exclusion are central themes in this book The need to take up civil and political rights and economic social and cultural rights on equal footing is recognized by several of the authors and so is that of bridging the public private divide Specific contributions address among others the importance of human rights training and education the role of NGO s in a globalizing world minorities gender and women s rights accountability of multinational corporations and the problem of human trafficking Vascular Dysfunction Beyond Pathological Pregnancies. An International Effort Addressed to Fill the Gaps in Latin America, Volume II Carlos Alonso Escudero,Fernanda Regina Giachini,Carlos Galaviz-Hernandez,Alicia E. Damiano,2022-10-11 Gaps and Actions in Health Improvement from Hong Kong and Beyond Ben Yuk Fai Fong,William Chi Wai Wong,2023-09-13 This book provides a timely review on what has been accomplished and what remains amiss following the World Health Organization s 1978 Health for All campaign by identifying enduring gaps in health care within a global context The WHO declaration of Health for All by the Year 2000 mapped out a road towards primary health care for all people and demarcated it as essential for human progress in terms of economic development and social justice However 45 years have gone by and most societies and countries have yet achieved health for all despite so much having changed in technology disease patterns and population demographics In promoting community health and improving service delivery the book advocates the development and implementation of All For Health strategies to steer stakeholders in the right direction towards universal health care The book covers the gaps and actions in health improvements the All For Health strategies and the Health in All Policies HiAP reviewing and discussing issues through both Asian and international examples Contributors include both academics and practitioners from diverse professional backgrounds including medicine nursing pharmacy allied health dietetics social sciences life sciences education business administration law and public policy Essential to scholars in public health and related disciplines this book is also useful to policymakers community and public health practitioners and health care executives and interns Global Impacts ,1997 Mind the Gaps: Cases in Gynaecology, Sexual and Reproductive Health E-Book Shreelata T Datta,Usha Kumar,2021-06-22 This book aims to address some common problems which are seen regularly in gynaecology sexual and reproductive health but are often not considered in great detail It is designed to provide direction on subjects which are peripheral to a specialty but have a significant impact on patients lives nonetheless and require expertise and intervention These include cases on contraception and sexual health in transgender individuals female genital mutilation cervical screening in pregnancy perimenopause domestic violence contact tracing and contraception We hope it is helpful to hospital doctors GPs nurses allied health care professionals and students alike Mind the Gaps will help readers deal effectively with clinical and ethical dilemmas they may face in their practice reducing the likelihood that problems are overlooked and ultimately improving outcomes for patients Case based The Liminal Chrysalis: Imagining Reproduction and Parenting Futures Beyond the Binary A.J. Lowik,H. Kori Doty,2021-12-24 The Liminal Chrysalis Imagining Reproduction and Parenting Futures Beyond the Binary is an edited collection that works to identify and deconstruct many of the countless binaries that operate within the realms of parenting and reproduction Weaving poetry speculative fiction and autobiography with interviews critical analysis and research the authors take as their starting place that there is magical potential and possibility in the ambiguous disorienting spaces of the in between and the beyond The collection challenges the constructedness of binaries connected to sex gender sexuality and parenting roles as well as the cis hetero repro trans and amatonormativities which pervasively circulate and inform how we think about parenting and reproductive life The collection amplifies the voices of non binary authors among others and tells stories of menstruation pregnancy abortion assisted reproductive technologies fertility preservation parenthood and activism in the face of violent binaries and reproductive injustices New Books on Women and Feminism ,1997 International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch,1997 Feminism & Bioethics : Beyond Reproduction Susan M. Wolf Faculty Associate at the Center for Biomedical Ethics and Associate Professor of Law and Medicine University of Minnesota Law School,1996-03-21 Bioethics has paid surprisingly little attention to the special problems faced by women and to feminist analyses of current health care issues other than reproduction Feminism Bioethics Beyond Reproduction aims to counterbalance this one sided approach A breakthrough volume of original essays authored by leading figures in bioethics and feminist theory it moves beyond reproduction and nursing taking bioethics into new territory The book starts with an investigation of the relationship between feminism and bioethics and introduces different approaches to the problem Chapters stress the importance of liberal feminism which prefers feminist over feminine analysis integrate the experience of women of color draw from the women s self help movement and apply feminist standpoint theory In the second part of the book contributors view various bioethical problems from a feminist perspective euthanasia AIDS the definition of health doctor patient communication the Human Genome Project the conduct of biomedical research and health care reform They examine the pros and cons of the application of gender and feminism to bioethics This provocative volume is bound to change and broaden the way bioethicists students patients and the public consider bioethical issues Social Work and HIV Bill

Ryan,William S. Rowe,1998 This book brings together essays by front line workers and researchers from across the country The essayists describe their own successes and failures in dealing with the effects of HIV in rural communities and upon urban Aboriginal street youth haemophiliacs the gay male community women injection drug users and families with children
