

1. Introduction: The purpose of this study is to investigate the impact of social media on the purchasing behavior of young adults in the United States.

2. Background: Social media has become a dominant force in the digital landscape, influencing various aspects of daily life, including consumer behavior.

3. Research Objectives: The study aims to explore the following objectives:

- 3.1. To identify the most influential social media platforms for product discovery and purchase decisions.
- 3.2. To analyze the factors that drive young adults to purchase products recommended by social media influencers.
- 3.3. To examine the role of social media in brand loyalty and repeat purchases.

4. Methodology: The research employs a quantitative approach, utilizing a survey of 500 young adults aged 18-25. Data is collected through an online questionnaire, focusing on their usage of social media, frequency of purchases, and perceived influence of social media on their buying decisions.

5. Data Analysis: The collected data is analyzed using statistical methods, including regression analysis, to determine the relationship between social media usage and purchasing behavior.

6. Expected Results: The study anticipates finding that social media significantly influences the purchasing decisions of young adults, with specific platforms and influencers playing a crucial role.

7. Conclusion: The findings of this study will provide valuable insights into the marketing strategies for brands targeting young adults, highlighting the importance of social media in their purchasing journey.
