Jesus as Teacher Pheme Perkins, 1990-07-27 This depiction of Jesus as a charismatic teacher and prophet compares him with other philosophers and visionaries of his time and analyzes his usage of parables and proverbs

The Gospel behind the Gospels Ronald A. Piper, 2014-04-09 The Gospel Behind the Gospels portrays all the major areas of current discussion and debate regarding the early source of Jesus sayings known as Q Sixteen gospel scholars have advanced the debate about this source's nature history and significance Contributors discuss Q's existence its relationship to Mark's gospel and to the Gospel of Thomas its genre its redactional history with special reference to the Son of Man and to wisdom and prophetic traditions its social history with respect to family structures and the Cynics a feminist analysis of Q its significance for the historical Jesus and for Jesus parables The volume sheds important light on Jesus and Christian origins as well as upon Q itself and it is significant for the diversity of major North American European and Japanese scholarship which is represented

Ancient Education and Early Christianity Matthew Ryan Hauge, Andrew W. Pitts, 2016-02-11 What was the relationship of ancient education to early Christianity This volume provides an in depth look at different approaches currently employed by scholars who draw upon educational settings in the ancient world to inform their historical research in Christian origins The book is divided into two sections one consisting of essays on education in the ancient world and one consisting of exegetical studies dealing with various passages where motifs emerging from ancient educational culture provide illumination The chapters summarize the state of the discussion on ancient education in classical and biblical studies examine obstacles to arriving at a comprehensive theory of early Christianity's relationship to ancient education compare different approaches and compile the diverse methodologies into one comparative study Several educational motifs are integrated in order to demonstrate the exegetical insights that they may yield when utilized in New Testament historical investigation and interpretation

The Content and the Setting of the Gospel Tradition Mark Harding, Alanna Nobbs, 2010-10-22 Editors Mark Harding and Alanna Nobbs have here brought together the internationally recognized scholarly excellence of Macquarie University faculty and associates to provide a major contribution to the study of the content and environment of the New Testament Gospels Few books in current New Testament scholarship seriously tackle its social setting and textual tradition beyond a chapter or two The Content and Setting of the Gospel Tradition integrates the texts with the literary social and historical context in which they were written

The Biblical Tour of Hell Matthew Ryan Hauge, 2013-08-15 It is difficult to underestimate the significance of the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus in Luke 16 19 31 within the biblical tradition Although hell occupies a prominent position in popular Christian rhetoric today it plays a relatively minor role in the Christian canon The most important biblical texts that explicitly describe the fate of the dead are in the Synoptic Gospels Yet among these passages only the Lukan tradition is intent on explicitly describing the abode of the dead it is the only biblical tour of hell Hauge examines the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus in Luke 16 19 31 uniquely the only parable that is set within a supernatural context The parables characteristically feature concrete realities of first century Mediterranean life but the majority of Luke 16 19 31 is narrated from the perspective of the tormented dead This volume demonstrates that the distinctive features of the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus are the result of a strategic imitation creative transformation and Christian transvaluation of the descent of Odysseus into the house of Hades in Odyssey Book 11 the literary model par excellence of postmortem revelation in antiquity

Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 2009-10-09 Here Anthony Thiselton brings together his encyclopedic knowledge of hermeneutics and his nearly four decades of teaching on the subject to provide an ideal textbook which takes the reader through the time honoured interpretation techniques of the past and on to modern times

Children of the Calling Eric Nelson Newberg, Lois E. Olena, 2014-12-23 This volume of essays dedicated to Stan and Ruth Burgess has been written by their colleagues and students to honor them as they retire after many years of distinguished service to Evangel University Southwest Missouri State University and Regent University Several meanings can be subsumed under the title Children of the Calling Stan and Ruth grew up in India children of Pentecostal missionaries who felt they had divine callings They were influenced not only by the religious callings of their parents but also by the cultural milieu of India Though they did not personally take on board the specific missionary calling of their parents they charted life maps that benefitted from the cross cultural proficiencies developed in their childhoods in India which to a large extent colored the influence they would have on their children academic colleagues and students some of whom have submitted essays for this Festschrift The diversity of subjects in this volume attests to the breadth of the scholarly work of Stan and Ruth Burgess The first section narrates the major highlights of Stan and Ruth's academic biographies the second presents pioneering studies of biblical studies and church history and the third offers application based research and personal reminiscences

Matthew within Judaism Anders Runesson, Daniel M. Gurtner, 2020-07-17 In this collection of essays leading New Testament scholars reassess the reciprocal relationship between Matthew and Second Temple Judaism Some contributions focus on the relationship of the Matthean Jesus to Torah temple and synagogue while others explore theological issues of Jewish and gentile ethnicity and universalism within and behind the text

A Wandering Galilean: Essays in Honour of Seán Freyne Zuleika Rodgers, Margaret Daly-Denton, Anne Fitzpatrick-McKinley, 2009-10-26 Starting his career as a scholar of the New Testament Seán Freyne's work became synonymous with the study of Galilee in the Greek and Roman periods His search for a deeper and more nuanced understanding of Judaism in the Greek and Roman periods and the development of the early Christian movement has led him to interface with scholars in many related disciplines In order to do justice to the breadth of Seán Freyne's interests this volume includes contributions from scholars in the fields of Archaeology Ancient History Classics Hebrew Bible Early Judaism Rabbinic Judaism Early Christianity New Testament and Medieval Judaism The resulting volume demonstrates not only the honoree's interdisciplinary interests but also the interconnectedness of these disciplines John the Baptist and the Jewish Setting of Matthew Brian C. Dennert, 2015-09-11 Although recent discussions on Matthew have emphasized the document's setting within Judaism these studies have not analyzed how the Jewish figure of John the Baptist functions within this setting Brian Dennert steps into this gap arguing that Matthew presents Jesus to be the continuation and culmination of John's ministry in order to strengthen the claims of Matthew's group and to vilify the opponents of his group By doing this he encourages Jews yet to align with Matthew's group particularly those who esteem the Baptist and to gravitate away from its opponents The author examines texts roughly contemporaneous with Matthew which reveal respect given to John the Baptist at the time of Matthew's composition The examination of Matthew shows that the first Evangelist more closely connects the Baptist to Jesus while highlighting his rejection by Jewish authorities "The Poor, the Crippled, the Blind, and the Lame" Louise A. Gosbell, 2018-08-03 The New Testament gospels feature numerous social exchanges between Jesus and people with various physical and sensory disabilities Despite this traditional biblical scholarship has not seen these people as agents in their own right but existing only to highlight the actions of Jesus as a miracle worker In this study Louise A Gosbell uses disability as a lens through which to explore a number of these passages anew Using the cultural model of disability as the theoretical basis she explores the way that the gospel writers as with other writers of the ancient world used the language of disability as a means of understanding organising and interpreting the experiences of humanity Her investigation highlights the ways in which the gospel writers reinforce and reflect as well as subvert culturally driven constructions of disability in the ancient world An Annotated Guide to Biblical Resources for Ministry David R. Bauer, 2011-04-01 An Annotated Guide to Biblical Resources for Ministry evaluates over 2 000 books that were chosen because of their usefulness for the theological interpretation of the Bible within the context of the faith of the church significance in the history of interpretation and representation of evangelical scholarship This is one of those rare bibliographic guides that every student of religion seminarian and minister will want to have on his or her bookshelf The focus of this guide is on biblical studies It contains entries on 2 200 books written by 1 300 scholars Annotations describe and evaluate books that are highly recommended Virtually every topic in biblical studies is noted commentaries on each book of the Bible biblical histories theologies and ethics books on the canon archaeology early Judaism and interpretive methods and technical books such as grammars concordances Bible dictionaries and atlases The great strength of this guide is not only that it provides the reader with a wealth of information but also that the format it follows is eminently reader friendly The Guide is invaluable for assisting the student seminarian or minister in building a personal library I highly recommend it Jack Dean Kingsbury Professor Emeritus of Biblical Theology Union Theological Seminary in Virginia Readings from the Edges Jean-Pierre Ruiz, 2011 Weaving together a range of border themes migration postcolonialism living in exile and the immigrant experience these readings bring fresh new insights to scholars clergy and others with backgrounds in contemporary theology and biblical study Narrative Hermeneutics, History, and Rhetoric, 2024-12-23 David P Moessner has pioneered the study of early Christian narrative both through the investigation of the principles and methods of good storytelling outlined by ancient authors and through the demonstration that Christians especially the author of Luke Acts used these principles and methods in crafting their own stories The contributors to this volume recognize Moessner's enormously valuable research and warm collegiality with twenty one essays on narrative hermeneutics characterization genre intertextuality and reception history Several focus fittingly on Luke and Acts while others press the implications of Moessner's work for comprehension of the wider world of Jewish Christian and Greco Roman storytelling New Testament Theology and the Greek Language Stanley E. Porter, 2022-10-20 Offers a unique language based critique of New Testament theology and reconceptualizes it using categories of modern linguistics

Reading the New Testament in the Manifold Contexts of a Globalized World Eve-Marie Becker, Jens Herzer, Angela Standhartinger, Florian Wilk, 2022-12-12 This volume gathers the perspectives of teachers in higher education from all over the world on the topic of New Testament scholarship The goal is to understand and describe the contexts and conditions under which New Testament research is carried out throughout the world This endeavor should serve as a catalyst for new initiatives and the development of questions that determine the future directions of New Testament scholarship At the same time it is intended to raise awareness of the global dimensions of New Testament scholarship especially in relation to its impact on socio political debates The occasion for these reflections are not least the present questions that have been posed with the corona pandemic and have received a focus on the system relevance of churches which is openly questioned by the media The church and theology must face this challenge Towards that end it is important to gather impulses and suggestions for the discipline from a variety of contexts in which different dimensions of context related New Testament research come to the fore The Luke Commentary Collection Darrell L. Bock, David E. Garland, Walter L. Liefeld, David W. Pao, 2016-12-20 This Luke commentary bundle features volumes from the NIV Application Commentary Series Zondervan Exegetical Commentary Series and Expositor's Bible Commentary Series authored by Darrell L Bock David E Garland Walter L Liefeld and David W Pao The diverse features from each of the volumes gives you all the tools you need to master the book of Luke

Rhetorics in the New Millennium James D. Hester, 2010-06-10 Some of the most renowned modern practitioners of New Testament rhetorical criticism including Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza Wilhelm Wuellner and the editors themselves provide new rhetorical readings of New Testament texts Organized into three distinct sections Rhetorics in the New Millennium provides a cutting edge approach to this thorny issue in biblical studies The first section is a collection of three essays that are primarily theoretical in nature and concerned with examining general theories of rhetoric The second section is a series of specific studies each using a different accepted theoretical model to analyze a given text The final section presents valuable appendices which summarize information about the content of certain theoretical models of criticism

Finally a bibliography listing a wide variety of rhetorical critical studies and reference works is included Life of Christ
Robert Geis, 2013-03-08 Life of Christ bridges the gap between commentaries and devotional accounts of Christ's ministry Applying the requisite analytical tools it addresses the question is His life worth studying The Resurrection event would confirm it is as would the Gospel miracle accounts neither of which Geis argues skeptical response disproves Salvation history necessitates the reality of Mary's virginity which the author develops lexically and theologically Jesus teachings and parables bring out a Christ Whose moral precepts are rooted in His Divinity and not in western philosophic nostrums Geis discussion of Christ on marriage and His commandment of love sharpens this observation with lexical application He also addresses the inconsistent objectives and circular reasoning of various exegetical schools which have no place in a study of the Gospels
