Hear Us O Lord from Heaven. Thy Dwelling Place [u.a.] Malcom Lowry,1984      Hear Us O Lord from Heaven Thy Dwelling Place Malcolm Lowry,2012-11-06 Seven stories and novellas by the author of Under the Volcano a master of twentieth century fiction For fans of the novel Under the Volcano this collection of stories many of them published for the first time posthumously provides great insight into the author s genius The stories range from heartfelt tragedy to exuberant triumph In the novella Through the Panama a burned out alcoholic writer tries to make sense of the literature that has kept him afloat while the pulse of his life grows harder to distinguish In The Forest Path to Spring a couple that has survived hell finds new life in the seclusion of a vast forest And in The Bravest Boat a young boy sends a message across the ocean to an unknown recipient Together these stories reveal a writer who traveled widely observed keenly and maintained an engrossing literary style that still reverberates today      Hear Us O Lord from Heaven Thy Dwelling Place Malcolm Lowry,1991 Hear Us O Lord From Heaven Thy Dwelling Place is a collection of stories fictional reminiscences and novels in miniature Lunar Caustic in contrast is a visionary account of the time that the author spent in a mental hospital      Swinging the Maelstrom Malcolm Lowry,2013-11-28 Swinging the Maelstrom is the story of a musician enduring existence in the Bellevue psychiatric hospital in New York Written during his happiest and most fruitful years this novella reveals the deep healing influence that the idyllic retreat at Dollarton had on Lowry This long overdue scholarly edition will allow scholars to engage in a genetic study of the text and reconstruct step by step the creative process that developed from a rather pessimistic and misanthropic vision of the world as a madhouse The Last Address 1936 via the apocalyptic metaphors of a world on the brink of Armageddon The Last Address 1939 to a world that in spite of all its troubles leaves room for self irony and humanistic concern Swinging the Maelstrom 1942 1944 This book is published in English      The Other Shore Michael Jackson,2013 In this book ethnographer and poet Michael Jackson addresses the interplay between modes of writing modes of understanding and modes of being in the world Drawing on literary anthropological and autobiographical sources he explores writing as a technics akin to ritual oral storytelling magic and meditation that enables us to reach beyond the limits of everyday life and forge virtual relationships and imagined communities Although Maurice Blanchot wrote of the impossibility of writing the passion and paradox of literature lies in its attempt to achieve the impossible a leap of faith that calls to mind the mystic s dark night of the soul unrequited love nostalgic or utopian longing and the ethnographer s attempt to know the world from the standpoint of others to put himself or herself in their place Every writer whether of ethnography poetry or fiction imagines that his or her own experiences echo the experiences of others and that despite the need for isolation and silence his or her work consummates a relationship with them      The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh,1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada's motto and a good description of this volume's range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada

Bluecoat, Liverpool Bryan Biggs, John Belchem, 2020 An integral part of Liverpool's cultural life for three centuries Bluecoat is a unique and much loved institution in the city This book tells its fascinating story as it evolved from charity school to the UK's first contemporary arts centre It sheds light on the port's eighteenth century religious and mercantile environment including transatlantic slavery and educational philanthropy in which it grew and how such echoes continue to resonate in the work of artists with whom Bluecoat works. The predominant focus is on an inclusive building for the arts started by the bohemian Sandon Studios Society in 1907 which hosted significant exhibitions that included Picasso, Matisse and many leading modern British artists. Bluecoat Society of Arts emerged in 1927 as the building's custodians paving the way for an arts centre that overcame financial woes and wartime bombs to play a prominent role in the culture of Liverpool and the UK with artists and communities at its heart. Described as where village hall meets the avant garde, Bluecoat's rich story encompasses an eclectic cast of characters such as Stravinsky, Yoko Ono, Simon Rattle, Captain Beefheart, Sun Ra and the inspirational Fanny Calder as the authors trace Bluecoat's key strands including visual art, music, performance, the building's own creative community and its distinctive Queen Anne architecture harmoniously refreshed in the twenty-first century.

Pick up The New York Public Library Literature Companion to check the dates of Marcel Proust's Remembrance of Things Past or to find out how James Joyce's Ulysses changed US obscenity laws and you may find yourself hours later absorbed in the imaginary worlds of Camelot and The Matrix or sidetracked by the fascinating history of The New Yorker. Designed to satisfy the curious browser as well as the serious researcher, this exciting new resource offers the most up-to-date information on literature available in English from around the world from the invention of writing to the age of the computer. Interwoven throughout the more than 2,500 succinct and insightful entries on Creators, Works of Literature and Literary Facts and Resources are the fascinating facts and quirky biographical details that make literature come alive. Readers will discover, for instance, that Walt Whitman was fired from his government job after his personal copy of Leaves of Grass was discovered in his desk by the Secretary of the Interior who was scandalized by it; that James Baldwin remembered listening to blues singer Bessie Smith playing her till I fell asleep when he was writing his first book; and that a publisher turned down the serialization rights to Gone with the Wind saying "Who needs the Civil War now who cares?" Looking for information about book burning or how many Nobel laureates have come from Japan? You'll find it here. Trying to remember the name of that movie based on a favorite book? Read the Variations section; you'll be amazed at the pervasive presence of great literature in today's entertainment. From Aristophanes to Allende, from Bergson to Bloom, the biographical entries will inform readers about the men and women who have shaped and are shaping the literary world. Look into Works of Literature to discover the significance of Beowulf, The Fountainhead, Doctor Zhivago and nearly 1,000 other titles. Check the Dictionary of Literature to find out what the critics and theorists are talking about. And if you wish to delve even deeper, Websites for Literature and Literary Factbooks and Handbooks are just two of the bibliographies that will point readers in the right direction. Unique in scope and design and easy to use, The New York Public Library Literature Companion will be at home on every reader's shelf. Whether you are immersed in Stephen King or King

Reading Matters Joseph Tabbi, Michael Wutz, 2018-05-31 The convergence of twentieth century narrative and technology is one of the most important developments in current literary study A decade after the founding of the Society for Literature and Science and the appearance of such influential books as Kathleen Woodward's Culture of Information and William Paulson's The Noise of Culture Joseph Tabbi and Michael Wutz have edited a landmark volume to summarize this still emerging field Twelve original essays and the editors introductory overview show how these theoretical concerns can contribute to the practical study of narrative Reading Matters covers the range of contemporary literature from the canonical novels of high modernism and postmodernism through subjects new to the academic agenda such as cyberpunk and hypertext fiction In an age that has proclaimed the death of the novel many times over the contributors argue persuasively for the continued vitality of literary narrative By responding in ingenious ways to the capabilities of other media they assert the novel has enlarged and redefined its territory of representation and its range of techniques and play while maintaining its viability in the new media assemblage

Malcolm Lowry: His Art and Early Life M. C. Bradbrook, 1974-07-18 This 1975 book corrects and amplifies the record of Malcolm Lowry's early life recording for the first time one of its crucial incidents Lowry was an alcoholic and wanderer who turned a failed life into a success of a different order and which has been recognised only after his death Like Lowry Professor Bradbrook was born in Wirral and writes of the scenes of early life with sympathetic understanding She also knew the Cambridge of the 1930s when Lowry read English there Bradbrook considers the critical point of knowledge of Lowry's life and the ways in which it is absorbed in his writings This enquiry broadens out into a discussion of the art itself and will serve as an excellent introduction of Lowry's life

Maritime Poetics Caroline Wiedmer, 2021-04-16 In the past fifty years port cities around the world have experienced considerable changes to their morphologies and their identities The increasing intensification of global networks and logistics and the resulting pressure on human societies and earthly environments have been characteristic of the rise of a planetary age This volume engages with contemporary artistic practices and critical poetics that trace an alternate construction of the imaginaries and aspirations of our present societies at the crossroads of sea and land taking into account complex pasts and interconnected histories transnational flux as well as material and immaterial borders      Self-Optimization in Modernist Culture ,2025-06-19 Our contemporary society is obsessed with the idea of self optimization a concept that implies the need to constantly work on improving oneself and one s appearance The roots of postmodern self optimization however lie in the cultural industries that emerged in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries With its equally profound and transient interest in new forms of expression new ways of life and new technologies modernism thoroughly and critically embraced the idea of the self as something that can be created and recreated either in accordance with or in contradiction to social norms This book explores strategies of self optimization developed in modernist literature and culture In doing so it offers a panoramic view of an often overlooked aspect of European and North American modernity that anticipates our current postmodern crisis of the self      A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches,Michael Cox,2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication      Twentieth Century Fiction George Woodcock,1983-04-01      October Ferry to Gabriola Malcolm Lowry,2012-11-06 DIVDIVParadise proves fleeting in this engrossing tale of a married couple who tries to chase away the past by immersing themselves in nature divDIV Edited by Malcolm Lowry s widow and released more than a decade after his death October Ferry to Gabriola is the sentimental story of two individuals striving for sanity inspiration hope and purpose in the deep seclusion of the British Columbian forest Once the couple finds a new home in the woods their new off the grid life together becomes their last attempt at finding stability Illuminating and joyful October Ferry to Gabriola is a striking ode to the struggle for hope amid the purity of the wilderness a story made all the more poignant by Lowry s untimely death before publication div div      Commonwealth Literature NA NA,2016-01-03      Literary Trips Victoria Brooks,2000 Slices of on the road literary history and detail rich travel romps with famous writers Sheila F Buckmaster senior editor National Geographic Traveler      Translocated Modernisms Emily Ballantyne,Marta Dvořák,Dean Irvine,2016-10-04 Translocated Modernisms is a collection of ten chapters partitioned into sections and framed by an introduction by the editors and a coda by Kit Dobson which is interested in those who thronged to the vibrant streets caf s and salons of Montparnasse those who stayed such as Brion Gysin and Mavis Gallant those who returned home such as Morley Callaghan John Glassco David Silverberg and Sheila Watson and those who galvanized local cultural practices by appropriating and translating them from elsewhere While for some Paris becomes a permanent home for others it is simply a temporary excursion which can last for months or for many years The collection opens up the Lost Generation to include multiple generations and broadens its ambit to encompass modernist writers placed under erasure by dominant narratives of Anglo American modernism Instead of limiting the category to a single group based on a collective identity this volume considers lost generations as a particular type of modernist identity attributable to multiple and disparate collectivities These lost generations include those excluded from canonical narrativizations of expatriate modernisms among which we spy the glimmer of other modernists living in the shadows of luminaries long recognized in the Anglo American tradition Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space Richard J. Lane, Miguel Mota, 2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry's spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book's three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry's life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry's writing Published in English
