Hearing Everyones Voice Educating Young Children For Peace And Democratic Community:

Hearing Everyone's Voice Susan Hopkins,1999      Towards a Global Community Jack Campbell,Nick Baikaloff,Colin Power,2006-07-01 This book is the outcome of a global study undertaken on behalf of the World Education Fellowship WEF in collaboration with UNESCO It provides education policy makers with evidence to support programs that address the major challenges faced by education systems in the next decade It contains case studies and it expands on the work done by UNESCO s International Commission on Education for the 21st Century the Delors Report      Children's Song-makers as Messengers of Hope Peter J. Baird,2001      California Preschool Curriculum Framework: History-Social Science. Science California. Child Development Division,California. Department of Education,2010 Volume 1 presents strategies and information to enrich learning and development opportunities for all of California s preschool children Volumes 2 and 3 give guidance to teachers about strategies for arranging the learning environment selecting materials and planning adult led and child initiated learning experiences that optimize children s development learning and overall well being      The Young Child Margaret B. Puckett,Janet K. Black,2001 Updated information on the growth and development in early childhood      A World of Difference Carol Copple,2003 How do we work with young children and their families in ways that are truly responsive to their differences and effective in combating bias Over the years NAEYC has played a leading role in addressing this question and publishing significant works in the area of anti bias culturally responsive education This collection of readings from Young Children NAEYC books and other respected publications reflect the strong continuing current of thoughtful work on teaching young children in a diverse society Collectively they provide the current knowledge base as well as thought provoking discussion on a wide range of issues culture language religion inclusion socio economic status and more with emphasis on building respect and understanding Useful both as an independent resource or as collected readings to accompany other course materials Publisher website      From Conflict to Peace Building Paul Connolly,2007

Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education JoAnn Phillion,Ming Fang He,F. Michael Connelly,2005-03-23 Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education provides compelling stories that raise questions advance understandings and promote insight into the challenges and hopes of teaching for diversity and democracy The works contained are compelling for the stories they tell and as such there is value in their presence That the thoughtful reader can glean important lessons with respect to multicultural education and the value of narrative inquiry as academic disciplines is intellectual icing on the cake Francisco Rios University of Wyoming This work is a very exciting important and badly needed piece of scholarship offered by some of the most leading edge professors in the field The diversity and diverse viewpoints it presents are unparalleled in the field of education Cheryl J Craig University of Houston The narratives in this book allow readers to put a human face to an issue related to multicultural education A reflective reader will begin to see himself herself in the narratives of the text Edmundo F Litton Loyola Marymount University The inclusion of chapters that deal with classroom realities elevate the text for education teacher candidates above those existing volumes that tend to deal with multi inter cultural issues in the abstract One of the strengths of this volume is that it will resonate with new and experienced classroom practitioners Jon G Bradley McGill University Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education explores the untapped potential that narrative and experiential approaches have for understanding multicultural issues in education The research featured in the book reflects an exciting new way of thinking about human experience The studies focus on the lives of students teachers parents and communities highlighting experiences seldom discussed in the literature The authors are diverse and their inquiries are far ranging in terms of content ethnic groups studied and geographic locations They also bring their personal experience to the inquiries actively participate in the lives of the people with whom they work care deeply about the concerns of their participants and search for ways to act upon these concerns Most importantly the work emphasizes the understanding of experience and transforming this understanding into social and educational significance

Key Features Addresses new ways to explore multicultural issues in education rather than relying on theoretical generalizations the book focuses explicitly on individual and group experiences Emphasizes the transformation of experience into education especially through the study of complex multicultural issues Challenges readers assumptions of multicultural issues by offering numerous narrative accounts and research studies for work with various ethnic groups Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education is designed for use in courses in multicultural education and qualitative research especially in departments of education anthropology and sociology Professional educators researchers and consultants will also find this a valuable introduction to narrative research and a welcome addition to the literature

Inclusion, Diversity, and Intercultural Dialogue in Young People's Philosophical Inquiry Ching-Ching Lin, Lavina Sequeira, 2017-07-20 The ever shifting cultural and linguistic landscapes in contemporary societies create new urgency for an intersectional thematic study of diversity philosophy and education As educators how do we transform the vision of cultural and linguistic diversity into a wealth of resources for learning How do we actively engage cultural and linguistic diversities in philosophical inquiry with young people How do we translate the philosophical notion of cultural and linguistic diversity into pedagogical practices The chapters in this book respond to the task of teaching philosophy in the context of increased mobility in the new global reality By complicating the situated and fluid nature of contemporary classrooms this book challenges the normalizing tendency often associated with philosophy education Each chapter offers a unique perspective in understanding the profound embeddedness of philosophy education in broader sociocultural contexts and prioritizes diversity in the classroom community of inquiry By carefully incorporating a broad range of theoretical perspectives and empirical research this book provides a rich resource for school teachers and educators who wish to engage diverse learners in philosophical inquiry In doing so it reaffirms the value of philosophy education as a proactive approach to democratic education
