

The background of the image is a photograph of a natural rock formation with a heart-shaped opening. Through this opening, a serene landscape is visible, featuring a calm lake, distant mountains, and a soft, hazy sky. The text "Hearts Courageous" is overlaid on the image in a white, elegant script font with a thin black outline. The word "Hearts" is positioned in the upper half, and "Courageous" is in the lower half, both centered horizontally and partially framed by the heart-shaped rock opening.

Hearts Courageous:

Women on the Front Lines Michal Ann Goll, 2011-07-28 History is filled with women who have dramatically changed the world Their sacrifices passion and fire still inspire us today These pages highlight the lives of nine such women ordinary women women who struggled with choices and the convictions of their hearts Today women still face the same choices issues and dilemmas Each day brings an opportunity to impact the lives around you the chance to change the history of your generation As you read about these women and the choices they made may you too be inspired to heed the call to courage and step up to the front lines of faith hope and love The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg, 2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous But what about women who have written non fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters
