

A woman with curly hair is shown from the chest up, looking down with a somber expression. The image has a greenish tint. Overlaid on the left side of the image is a quote in white text.

I knew he never loved me like he loved her, but I wanted him anyway.
I knew his love for me was conditional, but I wanted him anyway. I knew I was second choice, but I wanted him anyway.

The central question of this book is this what is God's relation to humanity Augustine said that our hearts were restless until they rest in God But how do we find God to rest in him This book is my attempt at an answer It is the cry of a soul steeped in Jesus Christ longing for its all beautiful God Shall our God be as great as we can imagine Shall our love of God have any taint of fear How do we get Jesus Christ into our hearts to be like him Can a human being be brought into the world by its God and be irrevocably lost How can the humanity of Jesus be shared by each person if that humanity is even possibly at eternal enmity with its maker Is there anything that could justify believing in the failure of God even a theory of inspiration How so if it meant that God could not be God Such questions are explored here This book has no agenda nor must it when it runs into doubts conform to any creed Its aim is simply this to find and love and rest in our God The Atlantic Monthly ,1907
