Head And Heart Affection Cognition Volition As Tribune Consciousness:

Head and Heart Andrew Tallon, 1997 Tallon philosophy Marquette U proposes a theory of a triune consciousness formed by the heart and mind and composed of an equal partnership of reason will and affection He defines affection in terms of intentionality and argues that in its manifestations of passion emotion and mood it holds a place equal to cognition and volition in human consciousness Paper edition unseen 19 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Head and Heart Andrew Tallon, 1997 Head and Heart proposes a theory of a triune consciousness formed by the heart and mind composed of an equal partnership of reason will and affection Professor Tallon sets out asking whether and how affective consciousness fits into this triad By first defining affection in terms of intentionality as the theory of a triune consciousness is possible only when affectivity has been shown to participate in intentionality he argues that affection in its full scope of passion emotion and mood earns a place equal to cognition and volition as a constituent of the human consciousness Tallon accomplishes his task by proving the existence of affectivity as a distinct kind of consciousness inseparable from the other two by showing precisely how affection works how it operates in synthesis with reason and will and finally by offering a new concept of a triune consciousness as paradigm for the human mind Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991
