Heart For Any Fate The Biography Of Richard Brevard Russell Sr:

A Heart for Any Fate Sally Russell, 2004 Born in 1861 eldest in a while middle class Southern family that lost everything material in the American civil war Richard Russell grew up consumed with ambition to make a name for himself His dream was to found an outstanding family and to hold the three highest offices in Georgia Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Governor and United States senator In striving for these ambitions he married twice and ran for public office seventeen times Although elected to lesser offices he lost races for chief justice governor Congress and the U S Senate He was elected to the first Georgia Court of Appeals in 1906 and to the Supreme Court as chief justice in 1922 His first wife Minnie Tyler died in childbirth in 1886 leaving him bereft but five years later he married again With Ina Dillard he formed an exemplary marriage relationship that produced fifteen children thirteen of whom survived to become responsible adults credits to effective parenting The eldest son Richard Brevard Russell Jr fulfilled the gubernatorial and senatorial dreams of his father becoming governor of Georgia in 1931 and U S senator from Georgia in 1933 when he was thirty five years old He served thirty seven years in the United States Senate and became Georgia s premier statesman of the twentieth century Thanks to their father s emphasis on education and his willingness to pay for it the Russell children studied law medicine the ministry and teaching and became respected professionals in their careers The glory and difficulty of patriarchy come clear in this story of social and familial structures that both restricted and strengthened conscientious middle and upper class white men of the post Civil War South

Richard Brevard Russell, Jr Sally Russell, 2011 In 1897 the year Richard Brevard Russell Jr was born the world was poised for a dramatic swing into a century that would see more changes in religion politics society science technology and war than almost all other centuries of human history combined It was a wild ride for a boy born to fulfill great expectations in the mercurial modern political arena yet reared to venerate the worn and vanishing splendor of the American South He would become one of the half dozen most powerful men in Washington for a period of almost twenty years and it would be frequently admitted most notably by President Harry Truman that if Russell had not been from Georgia if he had been from a state such as Indiana Illinois or Missouri the Presidency could not have been denied him His love of the South and his native state was such that when Truman s remark was quoted to him Russell replied I d rather be from Georgia than be President This book acquaints the reader with a fascinating and complex man of contrasts An ardent segregationist who fought civil rights legislation Richard B Russell was also the devoted father of the School Lunch Program A Georgia farm boy Russell almost idolized the agricultural society from which America sprang but embraced the nuclear age and space technology An intense family man he appreciated women fell in love easily and conducted numerous affairs Yet Russell never married Deeply private he lived his entire adult life in the public eye Richard Russell was good company His personal story makes good reading
