trips made during a turning point in her life as an artist they are fascinating and illuminating In that critical period between 1927 and 1930 Carr made seven journeys several to isolated Native villages in coastal British Columbia two to eastern Canada to meet fellow artists in the Group of Seven and one metaphorical journey that was an intrinsic part of all the others to nature itself On these travels and sketching trips she used her drawings as part of the process of working out ideas techniques and themes to develop the mature painting style that was uniquely hers Paintings by Emily Carr Emily Carr,Vancouver Art Gallery,Lawren Harris,19?? This and that Emily Carr,2007 Once available and appreciated only by researchers these stories remained buried in the British Columbia Archives until 2007 Finally readers are given a new glimpse into Emily Carr s life with this collection Carr began to write these stories in the last two years of her life She wrote of the project they are too small each to be taken singly but each complete in itself serves to ornament life which would be a drab affair without the little things we do not even notice or think of at the time but which old age memory magnifies This collection illuminates her life and is available to all in This and That The Lost Stories of Emily Carr Enter Emily s world with stories like Father s Temper The First Snow and Smoking with the Cow stories in which she reveals details of her family life school days her fascination with nature animals she loved and how she learned to smoke Pause Emily Carr,2009-12-01 While studying art in London Emily Carr seriously undermined her health and was sent to a sanatorium for a complete rest cure Bridling at the hospital s rules which prohibited excitement of any kind the always rebellious Carr proceeded to make friends raise birds and cause trouble In words and enchanting sketches Carr presents a funny poignant account of her 18 month convalescence Emily Carr Emily Carr,Owens Art Gallery,Confederation Art Gallery and Museum,Memorial University of Newfoundland.
